March 18, 2014

This letter responds to your recent Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") request received by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) and assigned to the Consumer & Governmental Affairs ("CGB") Bureau. Your request seeks "all records in the CGB consumer complaint database that are designated with the active assigned code OSBC" from January 1, 2013 to present.

CGB conducted a search of the databases in which we maintain the records of informal complaints filed by, or on behalf of, consumers. Our search revealed 65 documents that are responsive to your request, which are enclosed.

Mike Hennigan of my staff redacted all personal identifying information relating to the individuals who submitted or are named in the enclosed complaints or inquiries based on Exemption 6 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose files that would clearly invade personal privacy. Mr. Hennigan also redacted some FCC employee names based on Exemption 2 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose internal personnel rules and practices.

Please be advised that the Commission receives many complaints and comments that do not involve violations of the Communications Act or any FCC rule or order. Thus, the existence of a complaint filed against a particular carrier or business entity does not necessarily indicate any wrongdoing by any individuals or business entities named in the complaint.

FOIA and FCC rules require the FCC to charge requesters for time spent searching for and reviewing responsive documents, and for copying them.<sup>1</sup> Based on your classification as an "all other" requester, the FCC does not charge you for the first two hours of search time and the first 100 pages of copying.<sup>2</sup> Because preparing the response to your request falls within these limits, the FCC is not charging you for processing it.

If you think this response denies your FOIA request, you may file an application for review of this decision with the FCC's Office of the General Counsel within 30 days.<sup>3</sup> Both the application and envelope containing it must be marked "Review of Freedom of Information Action" and the application should refer to FOIA Control No. 2014-246.

Sincerely,

Nancy Stevenson

During the Michigan Ohio State game broadcasted by ESPN through ABC, a player was ejected for fighting. While leaving he flipped off the crowd with the middle finger and it was clearly shown on the broadcast. It was not blurred or even apologized for on the progress. This is supposed to be a family broadcast of American College football.

During the Steelers/ravens game. The broadcast consistently showed a player by the name of terrel sugs who appeared to be wearing a partial birth abortion as a mouthpiece. I can see no medical/educational purpose to show this on prime time, national television. Whatever was below his nose was certainly obscene.

FORMAL COMPLAINT

This complaint to be placed in the stations Public Inspection File and filed with the Federal Communications Commission

This is a formal complaint against a Broadcast Licensee for willful violation of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code. There was broadcast material that was in violation of law because of obscene, indecent, or profane programming.

The complaint concerns the vile broadcast material on:

STATION CALL LETTERS: KXII-DT / Channel 20
NETWORK: FOX
PROGRAM TITLE: Family Guy
BROADCAST DATE: 11-10-2013
Air Time: 9:00 PM ET/PT
(Note that the episode aired at 8:00 PM Central/Mountain Time)

Complainant also believes that such broadcast material is patently offensive:

- (a.) The material describes or depicts sexual or excretory organs or activities
- (b) It is patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent.

(c) Especially offensive because it was broadcast at an hour when millions of children were watching between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m.

Documentation of the indecent material on which my COMPLAINT is based is provided below.

PLEASE KEEP ME INFORMED OF THE PROGRESS AND RESULTS OF YOUR INVESTIGATION INTO THIS MATTER.

Documentation -----

Upset at being threatened by a bully and challenged to a fight, teenage Meg runs into the girl's restroom. She finds pedophile Quagmire inside.

Meg: "What are you doing in here?"

Quagmire: "This is my base of operations."

Quagmire's phone beeps. Voice on phone: "Mr. Quagmire, the girl's gym class will be in the showers in twenty minutes."

Quagmire recounts being bullied by a girl when he was in high school.

Quagmire: "That was the beginning of a long, abusive relationship. It's one thing if you put your penis inside-out in the safety of your own bedroom. But to have it done in the cafeteria? To this day, I can't have sex with a woman against her will without thinking about rape."

Quagmire offers to help Meg train to fight the bully.

Quagmire: "Over the years, I've studied the limits of the human body. How much it can stuff in, swallow, or choke on. How a scrotum can be stretched into a makeshift sail if stranded at sea."

Meg: "I don't see any yolks."

Quagmire: "Just drink it."

Meg: "Relax my throat and make eye contact?"

Quagmire: "No, no. The fighting stuff."

After being beaten bloody, Meg "wins" the fight by pulling up her shirt and showing the bully her breasts. The bully recoils in horror.

After the fight, Quagmire congratulates Meg.

Quagmire: "I've got a feeling you're going to be around for a real long time."

Meg (voice-over): "But I wasn't around for a long time. A year later, my body reacted to a frozen hot dog, and I died of septic shock. I became the face of internal hot dog defrosting."

End Documentation -----

Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code, prohibits the broadcast of obscene, indecent, or profane programming. The FCC rules implementing that statute, a subsequent statute establishing a "safe harbor" during certain hours, and the Act prohibit radio and television stations from broadcasting obscene material at any time and indecent material between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. The indecent material was broadcast within the 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. time frame relevant to an indecency determination under section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

For the reasons above stated, Complainant urges the FCC to exercise its responsibility to enforce the existing law against indecency on broadcast TV between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. (Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1464) by levying severe sanctions against the broadcasters of this program.

Complainant requests that since the broadcast television licensee willfully violated the law that it be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty. The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act, and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.

I believe this constitutes "profane language" within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. S 1464 because, in context, it involved vulgar and coarse language "so grossly offensive to members of the public who actually hear it as to amount to a nuisance."

The fact that Broadcast Licensee may not have originated the programming in question is irrelevant to whether there is an indecency violation. Hold this licensee accountable for the outrageous sexual and violent content. See Review of the Commission's Regulations Governing Programming Practices of Broadcast Television Networks and Affiliates, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 10 FCC Rcd 11951,11961, P 20 (1995)

Complainant requests the maximum monetary forfeiture statutory penalty amount against the Licensee for broadcasting indecent material in apparent violation of 18 U.S.C. S: 1464 and Section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

Complainant requests the Licensee to air future live entertainment programming with a five-minute delay to avoid future violations of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code.

Objection to renewal of broadcast license. This licensee broadcasts patently offensive material as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent and is not serving the community as required. Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant also certifies a true and correct copy of the foregoing document is being served this day on the licensee of record in the manner specified, via US regular mail, postage prepaid.

Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code, prohibits the broadcast of obscene, indecent, or profane programming. The FCC rules implementing that statute, a subsequent statute establishing a "safe harbor" during certain hours, and the Act prohibit radio and television stations from broadcasting obscene material at any time and indecent material between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. The indecent material was broadcast within the 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. time frame relevant to an indecency determination under section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

For the reasons above stated, Complainant urges the FCC to exercise its responsibility to enforce the existing law against indecency on broadcast TV between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. (Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1464) by levying severe sanctions against the broadcasters of this program.

Complainant requests that since the broadcast television licensee willfully violated the law that it be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty. The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act, and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.

I believe this constitutes "profane language" within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. S 1464 because, in context, it involved vulgar and coarse language "so grossly offensive to members of the public who actually hear it as to amount to a nuisance."

The fact that Broadcast Licensee may not have originated the programming in question is irrelevant to whether there is an indecency violation. Hold this licensee accountable for the outrageous sexual and violent content. See Review of the Commission's Regulations Governing Programming Practices of Broadcast Television Networks and Affiliates, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 10 FCC Rcd 11951, 11961, P 20 (1995)

Complainant requests the maximum monetary forfeiture statutory penalty amount against the Licensee for broadcasting indecent material in apparent violation of 18 U.S.C. S: 1464 and Section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

Complainant requests the Licensee to air future live entertainment programming with a five-minute delay to avoid future violations of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code.

Objection to renewal of broadcast license. This licensee broadcasts patently offensive material as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent and is not serving the community as required. Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant also certifies a true and correct copy of the foregoing document is being served this day on the licensee of record in the manner specified, via US regular mail, postage prepaid.

FORMAL COMPLAINT

This complaint to be placed in the stations Public Inspection File and filed with the Federal Communications Commission

This is a formal complaint against a Broadcast Licensee for willful violation of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code. There was broadcast material that was in violation of law because of obscene, indecent, or profane programming.

The complaint concerns the vile broadcast material on:

STATION CALL LETTERS: WAGA-TV/FOX 5
NETWORK: FOX
PROGRAM TITLE: Family Guy
BROADCAST DATE: 11-10-2013
Air Time: 9:00 PM ET/PT
(Note that the episode aired at 8:00 PM Central/Mountain Time)

Complainant also believes that such broadcast material is patently offensive:

- (a.) The material describes or depicts sexual or excretory organs or activities
- (b) It is patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent.

(c) Especially offensive because it was broadcast at an hour when millions of children were watching between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m.

Documentation of the indecent material on which my COMPLAINT is based is provided below.

PLEASE KEEP ME INFORMED OF THE PROGRESS AND RESULTS OF YOUR INVESTIGATION INTO THIS MATTER.

Documentation -----

Upset at being threatened by a bully and challenged to a fight, teenage Meg runs into the girl's restroom. She finds pedophile Quagmire inside.

Meg: "What are you doing in here?"

Quagmire: "This is my base of operations."

Quagmire's phone beeps. Voice on phone: "Mr. Quagmire, the girl's gym class will be in the showers in twenty minutes."

Quagmire recounts being bullied by a girl when he was in high school.

Quagmire: "That was the beginning of a long, abusive relationship. It's one thing if you put your penis inside-out in the safety of your own bedroom. But to have it done in the cafeteria? To this day, I can't have sex with a woman against her will without thinking about rape."

Quagmire offers to help Meg train to fight the bully.

Quagmire: "Over the years, I've studied the limits of the human body. How much it can stuff in, swallow, or choke on. How a scrotum can be stretched into a makeshift sail if stranded at sea."

Quagmire gives Meg a glass which he says contains raw eggs, but which implicitly contains his semen.

Meg: "I don't see any yolks."

Quagmire: "Just drink it."

Before the fight, Quagmire tells Meg, "Remember what I taught you."

Meg: "Relax my throat and make eye contact?"

Quagmire: "No, no. The fighting stuff."

After being beaten bloody, Meg "wins" the fight by pulling up her shirt and showing the bully her breasts. The bully recoils in horror.

After the fight, Quagmire congratulates Meg.

Quagmire: "I've got a feeling you're going to be around for a real long time."

Meg (voice-over): "But I wasn't around for a long time. A year later, my body reacted to a frozen hot dog, and I died of septic shock. I became the face of internal hot dog defrosting."

A billboard with Meg's face, a package of frozen hot dogs surrounded by a "no" symbol, and the phrase "Remember how gross it was when Meg died?" is shown. "

Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code, prohibits the broadcast of obscene, indecent, or profane programming. The FCC rules implementing that statute, a subsequent statute establishing a "safe harbor" during certain hours, and the Act prohibit radio and television stations from broadcasting obscene material at any time and indecent material between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. The indecent material was broadcast within the 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. time frame relevant to an indecency determination under section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

For the reasons above stated, Complainant urges the FCC to exercise its responsibility to enforce the existing law against indecency on broadcast TV between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. (Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1464) by levying severe sanctions against the broadcasters of this program.

Complainant requests that since the broadcast television licensee willfully violated the law that it be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty. The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act, and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.

I believe this constitutes "profane language" within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. S 1464 because, in context, it involved vulgar and coarse language "so grossly offensive to members of the public who actually hear it as to amount to a nuisance."

The fact that Broadcast Licensee may not have originated the programming in question is irrelevant to whether there is an indecency violation. Hold this licensee accountable for the outrageous sexual and violent content. See Review of the Commission's Regulations Governing Programming Practices of Broadcast Television Networks and Affiliates, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 10 FCC Rcd 11951,11961, P 20 (1995)

Complainant requests the maximum monetary forfeiture statutory penalty amount against the Licensee for broadcasting indecent material in apparent violation of 18 U.S.C. S: 1464 and Section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

Complainant requests the Licensee to air future live entertainment programming with a five-minute delay to avoid future violations of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code.

Objection to renewal of broadcast license. This licensee broadcasts patently offensive material as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent and is not serving the community as required. Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant also certifies a true and correct copy of the foregoing document is being served this day on the licensee of record in the manner specified, via US regular mail, postage prepaid.

FORMAL COMPLAINT

This complaint to be placed in the stations Public Inspection File and filed with the Federal Communications Commission

This is a formal complaint against a Broadcast Licensee for willful violation of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code. There was broadcast material that was in violation of law because of obscene, indecent, or profane programming.

The complaint concerns the vile broadcast material on:

STATION CALL LETTERS: WDAF-TV/FOX 4
 NETWORK: FOX
 PROGRAM TITLE: Family Guy
 BROADCAST DATE: 11-10-2013
 Air Time: 9:00 PM ET/PT
 (Note that the episode aired at 8:00 PM Central/Mountain Time)

Complainant also believes that such broadcast material is patently offensive:

- (a.) The material describes or depicts sexual or excretory organs or activities
- (b) It is patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent.

(c) Especially offensive because it was broadcast at an hour when millions of children were watching between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m.

Documentation of the indecent material on which my COMPLAINT is based is provided below.

PLEASE KEEP ME INFORMED OF THE PROGRESS AND RESULTS OF YOUR INVESTIGATION INTO THIS MATTER.

Upset at being threatened by a bully and challenged to a fight, teenage Meg runs into the girl's restroom. She finds pedophile Quagmire inside.

Meg: "What are you doing in here?"

Quagmire: "This is my base of operations."

Quagmire's phone beeps. Voice on phone: "Mr. Quagmire, the girl's gym class will be in the showers in twenty minutes."

Quagmire recounts being bullied by a girl when he was in high school.

Quagmire: "That was the beginning of a long, abusive relationship. It's one thing if you put your penis inside-out in the safety of your own bedroom. But to have it done in the cafeteria? To this day, I can't have sex with a woman against her will without thinking about rape."

Quagmire offers to help Meg train to fight the bully.

Quagmire: "Over the years, I've studied the limits of the human body. How much it can stuff in, swallow, or choke on. How a scrotum can be stretched into a makeshift sail if stranded at sea."

Quagmire gives Meg a glass which he says contains raw eggs, but which implicitly contains his semen.

Meg: "I don't see any yolks."

Quagmire: "Just drink it."

Before the fight, Quagmire tells Meg, "Remember what I taught you."

Meg: "Relax my throat and make eye contact?"

Quagmire: "No, no. The fighting stuff."

After being beaten bloody, Meg "wins" the fight by pulling up her shirt and showing the bully her breasts. The bully recoils in horror.

After the fight, Quagmire congratulates Meg.

Quagmire: "I've got a feeling you're going to be around for a real long time."

Meg (voice-over): "But I wasn't around for a long time. A year later, my body reacted to a frozen hot dog, and I died of septic shock. I became the face of internal hot dog defrosting."

A billboard with Meg's face, a package of frozen hot dogs surrounded by a "no" symbol, and the phrase "Remember how gross it was when Meg died?" is shown. "

Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code, prohibits the broadcast of obscene, indecent, or profane programming. The FCC rules implementing that statute, a subsequent statute establishing a "safe harbor" during certain hours, and the Act prohibit radio and television stations from broadcasting obscene material at any time and indecent material between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. The indecent material was broadcast within the 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. time frame relevant to an indecency determination under section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

For the reasons above stated, Complainant urges the FCC to exercise its responsibility to enforce the existing law against indecency on broadcast TV between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. (Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1464) by levying severe sanctions against the broadcasters of this program.

Complainant requests that since the broadcast television licensee willfully violated the law that it be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty. The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act, and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.

I believe this constitutes "profane language" within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. S 1464 because, in context, it involved vulgar and coarse language "so grossly offensive to members of the public who actually hear it as to amount to a nuisance."

The fact that Broadcast Licensee may not have originated the programming in question is irrelevant to whether there is an indecency violation. Hold this licensee accountable for the outrageous sexual and violent content. See Review of the Commission's Regulations Governing Programming Practices of Broadcast Television Networks and Affiliates, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 10 FCC Rcd 11951,11961, P 20 (1995)

Complainant requests the maximum monetary forfeiture statutory penalty amount against the Licensee for broadcasting indecent material in apparent violation of 18 U.S.C. S: 1464 and Section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

Complainant requests the Licensee to air future live entertainment programming with a five-minute delay to avoid future violations of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code.

Objection to renewal of broadcast license. This licensee broadcasts patently offensive material as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent and is not serving the community as required. Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant also certifies a true and correct copy of the foregoing document is being served this day on the licensee of record in the manner specified, via US regular mail, postage prepaid.

FORMAL COMPLAINT

This complaint to be placed in the stations Public Inspection File and filed with the Federal Communications Commission

This is a formal complaint against a Broadcast Licensee for willful violation of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code. There was broadcast material that was in violation of law because of obscene, indecent, or profane programming.

The complaint concerns the vile broadcast material on:

STATION CALL LETTERS: WFLD-TV/FOX 32
NETWORK: FOX
PROGRAM TITLE: Family Guy
BROADCAST DATE: 11-10-2013
Air Time: 9:00 PM ET/PT
(Note that the episode aired at 8:00 PM Central/Mountain Time)

Complainant also believes that such broadcast material is patently offensive:

- (a.) The material describes or depicts sexual or excretory organs or activities
- (b) It is patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent.

(c) Especially offensive because it was broadcast at an hour when millions of children were watching between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m.

Documentation of the indecent material on which my COMPLAINT is based is provided below.

PLEASE KEEP ME INFORMED OF THE PROGRESS AND RESULTS OF YOUR INVESTIGATION INTO THIS MATTER.

Documentation -----

Upset at being threatened by a bully and challenged to a fight, teenage Meg runs into the girl's restroom. She finds pedophile Quagmire inside.

Meg: "What are you doing in here?"

Quagmire: "This is my base of operations."

Quagmire's phone beeps. Voice on phone: "Mr. Quagmire, the girl's gym class will be in the showers in twenty minutes."

Quagmire recounts being bullied by a girl when he was in high school.

Quagmire: "That was the beginning of a long, abusive relationship. It's one thing if you put your penis inside-out in the safety of your own bedroom. But to have it done in the cafeteria? To this day, I can't have sex with a woman against her will without thinking about rape."

Quagmire offers to help Meg train to fight the bully.

Quagmire: "Over the years, I've studied the limits of the human body. How much it can stuff in, swallow, or choke on. How a scrotum can be stretched into a makeshift sail if stranded at sea."

Quagmire gives Meg a glass which he says contains raw eggs, but which implicitly contains his semen.

Meg: "I don't see any yolks."

Quagmire: "Just drink it."

Before the fight, Quagmire tells Meg, "Remember what I taught you."

Meg: "Relax my throat and make eye contact?"

Quagmire: "No, no. The fighting stuff."

After being beaten bloody, Meg "wins" the fight by pulling up her shirt and showing the bully her breasts. The bully recoils in horror.

After the fight, Quagmire congratulates Meg.

Quagmire: "I've got a feeling you're going to be around for a real long time."

Meg (voice-over): "But I wasn't around for a long time. A year later, my body reacted to a frozen hot dog, and I died of septic shock. I became the face of internal hot dog defrosting."

A billboard with Meg's face, a package of frozen hot dogs surrounded by a "no" symbol, and the phrase "Remember how gross it was when Meg died?" is shown. "

Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code, prohibits the broadcast of obscene, indecent, or profane programming. The FCC rules implementing that statute, a subsequent statute establishing a "safe harbor" during certain hours, and the Act prohibit radio and television stations from broadcasting obscene material at any time and indecent material between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. The indecent material was broadcast within the 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. time frame relevant to an indecency determination under section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

For the reasons above stated, Complainant urges the FCC to exercise its responsibility to enforce the existing law against indecency on broadcast TV between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. (Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1464) by levying severe sanctions against the broadcasters of this program.

Complainant requests that since the broadcast television licensee willfully violated the law that it be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty. The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act, and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.

I believe this constitutes "profane language" within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. S 1464 because, in context, it involved vulgar and coarse language "so grossly offensive to members of the public who actually hear it as to amount to a nuisance."

The fact that Broadcast Licensee may not have originated the programming in question is irrelevant to whether there is an indecency violation. Hold this licensee accountable for the outrageous sexual and violent content. See Review of the Commission's Regulations Governing Programming Practices of Broadcast Television Networks and Affiliates, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 10 FCC Rcd 11951,11961, P 20 (1995)

Complainant requests the maximum monetary forfeiture statutory penalty amount against the Licensee for broadcasting indecent material in apparent violation of 18 U.S.C. S: 1464 and Section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

Complainant requests the Licensee to air future live entertainment programming with a five-minute delay to avoid future violations of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code.

Objection to renewal of broadcast license. This licensee broadcasts patently offensive material as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent and is not serving the community as required. Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant also certifies a true and correct copy of the foregoing document is being served this day on the licensee of record in the manner specified, via US regular mail, postage prepaid.

FORMAL COMPLAINT

This complaint to be placed in the stations Public Inspection File and filed with the Federal Communications Commission

This is a formal complaint against a Broadcast Licensee for willful violation of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code. There was broadcast material that was in violation of law because of obscene, indecent, or profane programming.

The complaint concerns the vile broadcast material on:

STATION CALL LETTERS: KBFX-LP/FOX 58
NETWORK: FOX
PROGRAM TITLE: Family Guy
BROADCAST DATE: 11-10-2013
Air Time: 9:00 PM ET/PT
(Note that the episode aired at 8:00 PM Central/Mountain Time)

Complainant also believes that such broadcast material is patently offensive:

- (a.) The material describes or depicts sexual or excretory organs or activities
- (b) It is patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent.

(c) Especially offensive because it was broadcast at an hour when millions of children were watching between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m.

Documentation of the indecent material on which my COMPLAINT is based is provided below.

PLEASE KEEP ME INFORMED OF THE PROGRESS AND RESULTS OF YOUR INVESTIGATION INTO THIS MATTER.

Upset at being threatened by a bully and challenged to a fight, teenage Meg runs into the girl's restroom. She finds pedophile Quagmire inside.

Meg: "What are you doing in here?"

Quagmire: "This is my base of operations."

Quagmire's phone beeps. Voice on phone: "Mr. Quagmire, the girl's gym class will be in the showers in twenty minutes."

Quagmire recounts being bullied by a girl when he was in high school.

Quagmire: "That was the beginning of a long, abusive relationship. It's one thing if you put your penis inside-out in the safety of your own bedroom. But to have it done in the cafeteria? To this day, I can't have sex with a woman against her will without thinking about rape."

Quagmire offers to help Meg train to fight the bully.

Quagmire: "Over the years, I've studied the limits of the human body. How much it can stuff in, swallow, or choke on. How a scrotum can be stretched into a makeshift sail if stranded at sea."

Quagmire gives Meg a glass which he says contains raw eggs, but which implicitly contains his semen.

Meg: "I don't see any yolks."

Quagmire: "Just drink it."

Before the fight, Quagmire tells Meg, "Remember what I taught you."

Meg: "Relax my throat and make eye contact?"

Quagmire: "No, no. The fighting stuff."

After being beaten bloody, Meg "wins" the fight by pulling up her shirt and showing the bully her breasts. The bully recoils in horror.

After the fight, Quagmire congratulates Meg.

Quagmire: "I've got a feeling you're going to be around for a real long time."

Meg (voice-over): "But I wasn't around for a long time. A year later, my body reacted to a frozen hot dog, and I died of septic shock. I became the face of internal hot dog defrosting."

A billboard with Meg's face, a package of frozen hot dogs surrounded by a "no" symbol, and the phrase "Remember how gross it was when Meg died?" is shown. "

Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code, prohibits the broadcast of obscene, indecent, or profane programming. The FCC rules implementing that statute, a subsequent statute establishing a "safe harbor" during certain hours, and the Act prohibit radio and television stations from broadcasting obscene material at any time and indecent material between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. The indecent material was broadcast within the 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. time frame relevant to an indecency determination under section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

For the reasons above stated, Complainant urges the FCC to exercise its responsibility to enforce the existing law against indecency on broadcast TV between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. (Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1464) by levying severe sanctions against the broadcasters of this program.

Complainant requests that since the broadcast television licensee willfully violated the law that it be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty. The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act, and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.

I believe this constitutes "profane language" within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. S 1464 because, in context, it involved vulgar and coarse language "so grossly offensive to members of the public who actually hear it as to amount to a nuisance."

The fact that Broadcast Licensee may not have originated the programming in question is irrelevant to whether there is an indecency violation. Hold this licensee accountable for the outrageous sexual and violent content. See Review of the Commission's Regulations Governing Programming Practices of Broadcast Television Networks and Affiliates, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 10 FCC Rcd 11951,11961, P 20 (1995)

Complainant requests the maximum monetary forfeiture statutory penalty amount against the Licensee for broadcasting indecent material in apparent violation of 18 U.S.C. S: 1464 and Section 73.3999 of the Commission's rules.

Complainant requests the Licensee to air future live entertainment programming with a five-minute delay to avoid future violations of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code.

Objection to renewal of broadcast license. This licensee broadcasts patently offensive material as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent and is not serving the community as required. Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant certifies that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information on and attached to this affidavit is true, correct, and complete and made in good faith.

Complainant also certifies a true and correct copy of the foregoing document is being served this day on the licensee of record in the manner specified, via US regular mail, postage prepaid.

FORMAL COMPLAINT

This complaint to be placed in the stations Public Inspection File and filed with the Federal Communications Commission

This is a formal complaint against a Broadcast Licensee for willful violation of Section 1464 of Title 18, United States Code. There was broadcast material that was in violation of law because of obscene, indecent, or profane programming.

The complaint concerns the vile broadcast material on:

STATION CALL LETTERS: KABB-TV/FOX 29
 NETWORK: FOX
 PROGRAM TITLE: Family Guy
 BROADCAST DATE: 11-10-2013
 Air Time: 9:00 PM ET/PT
 (Note that the episode aired at 8:00 PM Central/Mountain Time)

Complainant also believes that such broadcast material is patently offensive:

- (a.) The material describes or depicts sexual or excretory organs or activities
- (b) It is patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium and thus apparently indecent.

(c) Especially offensive because it was broadcast at an hour when millions of children were watching between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m.

Documentation of the indecent material on which my COMPLAINT is based is provided below.

PLEASE KEEP ME INFORMED OF THE PROGRESS AND RESULTS OF YOUR INVESTIGATION INTO THIS MATTER.

Documentation -----

Upset at being threatened by a bully and challenged to a fight, teenage Meg runs into the girl's restroom. She finds pedophile Quagmire inside.

Meg: "What are you doing in here?"

Quagmire: "This is my base of operations."

Quagmire's phone beeps. Voice on phone: "Mr. Quagmire, the girl's gym class will be in the showers in twenty minutes."

Quagmire recounts being bullied by a girl when he was in high school.

Quagmire: "That was the beginning of a long, abusive relationship. It's one thing if you put your penis inside-out in the safety of your own bedroom. But to have it done in the cafeteria? To this day, I can't have sex with a woman against her will without thinking about rape."

Quagmire offers to help Meg train to fight the bully.

Quagmire: "Over the years, I've studied the limits of the human body. How much it can stuff in, swallow, or choke on. How a scrotum can be stretched into a makeshift sail if stranded at sea."

Quagmire gives Meg a glass which he says contains raw eggs, but which implicitly contains his semen.

Meg: "I don't see any yolks."

Quagmire: "Just drink it."

Before the fight, Quagmire tells Meg, "Remember what I taught you."

Meg: "Relax my throat and make eye contact?"

Quagmire: "No, no. The fighting stuff."

After being beaten bloody, Meg "wins" the fight by pulling up her shirt and showing the bully her breasts. The bully recoils in horror.

After the fight, Quagmire congratulates Meg.

Quagmire: "I've got a feeling you're going to be around for a real long time."

Meg (voice-over): "But I wasn't around for a long time. A year later, my body reacted to a frozen hot dog, and I died of septic shock. I became the face of internal hot dog defrosting."

Problem Description

On 11-18-2013 on the 4:00 PM KOCO TV broadcast the show host, Ellen DeGeneres, was interviewing Kanye West and a video clip was shown promoting a new song. In the song Kanye West was singing and riding a motorcycle with a black woman. The black woman was riding the motorcycle FACING the driver having simulated sex. The woman was nude from the waist up with the breast area blurred out. It was obvious to anyone that watched this segment the people on the motorcycle were having simulated sex that resulted in orgasm. This was totally inappropriate for this time of day and very offensive. Segments and/or content of the Ellen DeGeneres show such as this is totally inappropriate for this time slot, 4:00PM, since it is most likely viewable by children and young adults. KOCO TV should be subject to enforcement action and forced to move this program to a time, preferably 11:00PM to 5:00AM and the show should be subjected to a adult rating for inappropriate content. The program viewing time should be changed and an adult viewing rating should be placed on this show for possible future offensive content. This show contained some of the most disgusting visual simulation of sex that is degrading to women that I have ever seen on daytime television in this time slot. I think it is time something is done to move this show to a different time slot and viewers warned of INAPPROPRIATE sexual content.

Problem Description

From the Independan Journal "Can the left get any lower? After suspending Alec Baldwin for his homophobic and violent outbursts, MSNBC has yet to address the disgusting vitriol coming out of their other host, Martin Bashir.

In this shocking commentary, Bashir actually suggests that Sarah Palin have her eyes and mouth defecated in. Here is the horrifyingly idiotic transcript:

SARAH PALIN: Our free stuff today is being paid for by taking money from our children, and borrowing from China. When that note comes due ? and this isn?t racist, so try it. Try it anyway. This isn?t racist. But it?s going to be like slavery when that note is due.

BASHIR: ?One of the most comprehensive first-person accounts of slavery comes from the personal diary of a man called Thomas Thistlewood, who kept copious notes for 39 years. [...]

In 1756, he records that ?A slave named Darby caught eating canes had him well flogged and pickled, then made Hector, another slave, s-h-i-t in his mouth.? This became known as Darby?s dose, a punishment invented by Thistlewood that spoke only of the slave owner?s savagery and inhumanity. [...]

When Mrs. Palin invoked slavery, she doesn?t just prove her rank ignorance. She confirms that if anyone truly qualified for a dose of discipline from Thomas Thistlewood, then she would be the outstanding candidate.

Think they?ll reprimand him? Somehow I doubt it. And despite the absence of such bilious speech on the right, the media will perpetuate the myth that we?re the uncivil side of the aisle."

This is OUTRAGIOUS and now MSNBC is boasting about it on twitter! " msnbc ? @msnbc

Problem Description

Ending his daily program on November 15, Martin Bashir's opinion was that Sarah Palin's reference to slavery in speaking about our national debt had earned her a "Darby's dose." He described the history and in graphic detail this punishment involving both urinating and defecating in an offender's mouth.

Since he spelled "s h I t" on air, it is certain Bashir knew that he was abandoning civil discourse. Of course, using the word "idiot" to describe Sarah Palin is offensive, but is the norm for liberal commentators... and it is his opinion. However, his foul and offensive language, or even suggestion, that Sarah Palin deserved this "Darby's Dose" is disgusting and should have drawn a fine from the FCC. (P.S. I would consider Bashir's offense much greater than a Super Bowl "wardrobe malfunction."

Problem Description

Bashir told a story that referenced slavery and a story about a slave owner who as punishment had another slave poop in the offending slaves mouth, and then another story where an offending slave was punished with urination in the offending slaves mouth and eyes. Then Bashir referencing slavery once more said Mrs. Palin would be the modern day best candidate for such a punishment. Now, coming from an Muslim, chiding someone about slavery is rather hypocritical considering there is an estimated 5-10 millions slaves in the world and most of their owners are Muslim... I find it offensive that this Network still has a broadcast license. The continually do incredibly insensitive, immoral, and untruthful broadcasts and then expect everyone to say ok when they are forced to apologize. A small fine is not in order. Something tangible must be levied against this network or it will continue. Now I hope the FCC will takes it's job of enforcement a bit more serious this time.. Best regards.

He should be fired and the network fined for allowing this kind of language and filth, this is commonly used language on such shows as David Letterman and Bill Mahers programs, this is disgraceful and an embarassment for the world to see this happening in the US. Problem Description

Martin Bashir has to take a very circuitous route to tie Sara Palin to slavery what she says has nothing to do with the Caribbean Black Slave Trade of Antiquity. What Martin Bashir publically says is pure racist slander, implied sexual perversion, and obscenity about an American citizen. He is doing it for purely self-serving reasons.

Martin Bashir, born in England to parents of Pakistani origin, needs to read about his roots. From a 2009 report: "Pakistan is a source, transit, and destination country for men, women, and children trafficked for the purposes of forced labor and sexual exploitation." <http://gvnet.com/humantrafficking/Pakistan.htm> ,
<http://www.cnn.com/2013/10/17/world/global-slavery-index/index.html>

It is no coincidence that Martin Bashir cites an immoral man from the Jamaican slave trade. He is also pandering and promoting his album, from wiki: "In 2010, Bashir released his first album entitled Bass Lion. The reggae album was produced by Cary Haase and mixed by Casey Conrad". Reggae from a British Pakistani?

There is a recently published book about a rarely told story of enslaved Europeans, "White Gold: The Extraordinary Story of Thomas Pellow and Islam's One Million White Slaves". He was a cabin boy on his uncle's ship when it was taken off the coast by the Barbary Pirates. The information in his diaries was verified by Muslim writers of the time. Read a few pages at <http://www.amazon.com/White-Gold-Extraordinary-Thomas-Million/dp/03...>

Martin Bashir would have all people believe Europeans alone were responsible for all slavery.

Our Marines wiped out the Barbary Pirates of Judaism and Islam. Their accomplishment is immortalized in their song when they reference, "from the halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli". Tripoli, Libya, was the major Islamic and Jewish slave trader port.

"According to Robert Davis, between 1 million and 1.25 million Europeans were captured between the 16th and 19th centuries by Barbary corsairs, who were vassals of the Ottoman Empire, and sold as slaves."

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Arab\_slave\_trade

?According to military historian Michael Antonucci and economic historians Glenn Hubbard and Tim Kane, the Turkish administrators would scour their regions (but especially the Balkans) every five years for the strongest sons of the sultan's Christian subjects. These boys, usually between the ages of 6 and 14, were then taken from their parents and given to Turkish families in the provinces to learn Turkish language and customs, and the rules of Islam.? Some of these young men, taken as tribute slaves, were used against their own people in the Balkans causing the great bitterness there.

Please look into the trade in white slaves, men, women, and children, women used as concubines, sexual slaves, and children, how they were abused, what was done to them, what people did it, what religions believe in it, and that they are still doing it. General overview of the history of trade in white slaves:

Martin Bashir is a colored man who we have foolishly given access to our broadcast frequencies. He is using that privilege to slander white people and subject us to his pornographic threats of degradation. He is fantasizing about personally degrading a white woman. He is like the HuffPo blogger Pascal Robert, Negro Haitian, who publically fantasized about raping a white, conservative, mother, the columnist Dana Loesch. ?@DLoesch I know you would look lovely with thigh high stockings and would love to have a brother give to you up the a**. Wouldn't you??

Go home, Martin Bashir, to Pakistan where you can confront the current, ongoing evil of slavery. Tell the truth about your own race and stop peddling your self-serving diatribes to promote your career. We do not like disingenuous, dishonest, revisionist historians in this country. We know what economic slavery is. We fought and defeated George III because of it.

Free speech is important, but it should be tempered by a level of decency, especially when broadcasted.

MARTIN BASHIR: It's time now to clear the air. And we end this week in the way it began - with America's resident dunce, Sarah Palin, scraping the barrel of her long deceased mind, and using her all-time favorite analogy in an attempt to sound intelligent about the national debt.

BASHIR: It'll be like slavery. Given her well-established reputation as a world class idiot, it's hardly surprising that she should choose to mention slavery in a way that is abominable to anyone who knows anything about its barbaric history. So here's an example.

One of the most comprehensive first-person accounts of slavery comes from the personal diary of a man called Thomas Thistlewood, who kept copious notes for 39 years. Thistlewood was the son of a tenant farmer who arrived on the island of Jamaica in April 1750, and assumed the position of overseer at a major plantation. What is most shocking about Thistlewood's diary is not simply the fact that he assumes the right to own and possess other human beings, but is the sheer cruelty and brutality of his regime.

In 1756, he records that "A slave named Darby caught eating canes had him well flogged and pickled, then made Hector, another slave, s-h-i-t in his mouth." This became known as Darby's dose, a punishment invented by Thistlewood that spoke only of the slave owners savagery and inhumanity.

And he mentions a similar incident again in 1756, this time in relation to a man he refers to as Punch. "Flogged Punch well, and then washed and rubbed salt pickle, lime juice and bird pepper made Negro Joe piss in his eyes and mouth." I could go on, but you get the point.

When Mrs. Palin invoked slavery, she doesn't just prove her rank ignorance. She confirms that if anyone truly qualified for a dose of discipline from Thomas Thistlewood, then she would be the outstanding candidate.

While no nudity was shown, it is definitely far more than just implied. Other episodes of the show have included videos of humans stimulating dog's genitalia with no censoring, purely to invoke shock and humor at completely inappropriate content. While this content was restricted to certain times of the day, it is far too obscene to be shown under the guise of comedy.

According to the FCC's website, "The FCC has defined broadcast indecency as language or material that, in context, depicts or describes, in terms patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium, sexual or excretory organs or activities." The Commission further states on the site that "...broadcasts ...that fit within the indecency definition and that are aired between 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 pm are prohibited and subject to indecency enforcement action."

This episode of 2 Broke Girls focuses primarily on one subject: Caroline's father's penis (a sexual organ), and it was broadcast at 8:30 pm EDT.

The story line is that Caroline's father is in prison. Caroline and Max visit the father in prison. During a private moment with Max, he tells her that a previous girl friend has written a book and "... the woman claims I have a small penis." On the train going home, Caroline repeatedly asks Max what her Dad told her. The scene is complicated by the fact that a small band has gotten on the train and some band members are blowing horns. Finally, Max yells out on the train, "Your Father has a small penis!?"

Later, back at the restaurant, Sophie joins the girls and lets it be known that knowledge of the penis problem is widespread. Then Oleg, the cook, says "It came up on the Google Penis Alert! I have to keep current. See what the trends are. You don't want to be the middle aged guy who wears the same penis you had in high school!"

Toward the end of the show, Caroline and the woman accuser appear on Piers Morgan's TV news show. Caroline works hard to keep the conversation away from her Dad's penis, but Max who has a picture of the penis on her mobile phone and she eventually gets the picture (not shown on the broadcast) in the hands of Piers Morgan. Piers says the penis is not inadequate, and decides in favor of Caroline.

Due to the penis material, the FCC should designate this episode as indecent. Why? The show, as outlined above, i) focuses on a sexual organ, ii) was broadcast and re-broadcast at a prohibited time, iii) is patently offensive and harmful, especially to children and young adults that are watching at the early evening time, and don't need to be worrying about penis lengths at their age, and iv) it is well beyond community standards in Columbus, Ohio and most of America. A key test is this: how many other TV programs or newspaper reports does an average person see about a "man's penis length"? The answer - none for general consumption. The only exception might be occasionally on a health show.

One final point, this complaint should also be considered in WBNS-TV's license renewal proceeding which is currently before the Commission. See BRCDT - 20130603BEU in the Media Bureau.

Not sure of the time or date but contact this person to find out at the URL mentioned above. I believe it was around 8:30AM a few days ago. ABC needs to pay HUGE fines like CBS did with the Janet Jackson/Super Bowl debacle. They showed two nude people having sex mid-morning when kids may be up watching TV before school or whatever.

Problem Description

I watched the season finale of the TV series, "Defiance," on Monday, 8/5/13. I do not know the original air date of the episode. It was recorded with my DVR, and I started watching the show early in the afternoon, as I recall. In an early scene, an extraterrestrial man and his wife were shown having explicit sexual intercourse. The depiction was entirely and inexcusably obscene. Additionally, there was no warning about the content of the show (At least, I didn't see one.) Nor was there any rating, or even the typical, "parental discretion is advised." Regardless of the lack of warning, I found the depiction both offensive and repulsive, and a warning could not have justified what was presented. Please investigate this matter, and apply the proper sanctions. Thank you for your attention.

Under The Dome! Absolutely disgusted to change the channel at 8Pm on a Sunday night, to watch this show and have graphic sex on my bigscreen, while my 9 year old daughter who is sitting next to me, screams in horror and starts crying!! There were several scenes quickly moving and it was VERY sudden that it switched to this scene of a Naked girl sitting on top of man, girating, moving up and down and making faces and noises??? One does not need to see genetalia to know what is going on! This is UNACCEPTABLE!! It happened so fast and was so unexpected that there was not time to change the channel!

Problem Description

The essence of the program is close up of women performing sexual activity fully nude, and close up footage of sexual/excretory organs, that is patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards. HBO is well known to be in hotels, which is where this was viewed, and is reasonable to expect children to stay up past their usual bedtime during vacations. This was not pay-per-view. We choose hotels that do not carry pornography, so it was surprising to find pornography on the HBO channel that is predictably available in hotels with no filters. This is an intentional disregard for community standards and FCC guidelines.

My family subscribed to a Dish Network family package. One day we came home and found that some porn channels had been added to our package without warning and without asking our permission. It is only by chance that my oldest daughter found them and warned me before any children stumbled upon them. I called Dish, and they did remove them. But when I complained to Dish later, they said that they had no control over the programming provided to me. I want to know that my home is safe from porn.

I was only able to stomach the first 30min of the above mentioned show, however in that time i feel as an average 38 year old male with my own contemporary standards that the content of the show appeals to the most prurient of interests.

The scenes that i witnessed such as, the explicit rape of the main female character as well as an audio recording playback of the main female character "sticking her finger up a mans butt" where patently offensive.

The young son shouting "shit!" on a show that aired at 9:00pm US Central Time led me to believe someone at the FCC had fallen asleep at the wheel.

Although the shows material taken as a whole offered potential political value, i fail to see how that potential political value out weighs the serious sexually explicit content.

Problem Description

Really? You really have made no comments about Kathy Griffin trying to kiss Anderson Cooper's dick? That wasn't even a wardrobe malfunction. She did it on purpose and Anderson was clearly uncomfortable with it...and I was enraged that on New Year's Eve, with small children watching, they thought it would be OK to run with crap like that. Where are you on this? Ok with it? I'm not. Was she high? Drunk? Or just so morally bankrupt she sees no problem with that behavior? I bet you say nothing. After all, you toady to the left anyway with the overall plan of removing any moral standards from the world we live in.

 Cathouse: Menagois a trois

Problem Description

I am a person who is fairly tolerant of programming. I was appalled to find at ten o'clock, when MOST teenagers are still awake, (13-19), a program on my regular, not ADULT cable channel, #444, (HBO on Comcast, in Spring/The Woodlands, TEXAS), that was solely devoted to the exploitation and promotion of life in a "cathouse". The scenes were graphic and the atmosphere "fun and normal". Now, I don't think a program about how to pole dance is necessarily offensive or obscene. However, a program on at ten, when 90% of teens and preteens are awake in this country, that portrays "foot jobs" given by two women to a man, explicit sexual acts between people who pay and are paid for this service, and general depiction of the "cathouse" as a great place to work, is in any way a picture we want to paint for our children, who could be classed for their entire lives as sexual predators, should they think about participating in any of these behaviors as teenagers. And good grief, do we not understand that hormones and curiosity are natural in teens? This program was unbelievably offensive. If a teenager with a television in the game room or in their own room (and this is common in this country) were to just flip the channels, they would certainly find this program. Curiosity would be the first inclination, as it was with me (a mature adult). Once in, they would be exposed to situations that are really only the arena of adulthood and, I have to admit, I would have been extremely angry with my spouse if he had participated in frequenting a brothel. We wouldn't have stayed married, for sure. There is no responsible sexuality that is portrayed in this program. The image is purely prurient. How fun life would be in a brothel, and how lucky are those clients and employees! (That was sarcasm, but that is what you see in the images.) Please take a look at this program. Sexuality isn't a bad thing, but sexuality without responsibility is. This program should be aired, if at all, on the ADULT channels, and, in my opinion, around 2:00 a.m.

Problem Description

Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, Days of our Lives showed a shower sex scene between a character in his late 30's and a girl that onscreen appears around 17-18 years old. Tuesday was bad enough as there was a point where the girls full breast was visible from the side. On Wednesday, it got worse. They showed the pair completely naked with her legs wrapped around his waist and he was lifting her up and down and thrusting. There was a point where her full breast with nipple exposed could be seen over his shoulder. At a point in the story where they got caught by someone, the male character moved and turned the hot water off, turned the cold water on with the scene showing the water hitting his genital area in order to calm himself down before stepping out of the shower.

I am not a prude in any way, shape or form, but this was too much for daytime network television. My 14 year old daughter usually watches the show with me and thank goodness based on Tuesdays show I was not allowing her to watch until I pre-screened. This is nothing but soft core porn and I have honestly seen cable shows where less was showed than what aired yesterday. I'm astonished something like this got past the network censors.

Thank you.

Problem Description

There is a daytime soap opera on called 'Days of Our Lives' and it is out of control.
 It's bad enough they show homosexuals kissing and rolling in bed naked but NOW they are using a story line that is showing a supposed 15 yr old girl who is having an affair with a 40 yr old married man.
 They recently showed them in a shower scene where she stripped off her clothes and joined him in the shower. He is a tall man (emphasizing the age difference of grown man and child pedophilia) so he picks her up to hold her against him in the shower showing her bare breasts from side view up against him. They have aired a number of incidences of them in sexual escapades besides this one as well.

This show is out of control and airing at prime daytime hours.

The latest story line is definitely encouraging pedophilia, child adult sex and NEEDS to be stopped!

I didn't know if you knew about this or not.

It was a shower scene between the characters of EJ & Abigail. Her breast was in complete view from the side in one shot and the front in the other. Also I thought it was over the top to have him spray his manhood with cold water when caught by his fiancé implying his erection. I let it go last week when they were in a store closet legs up in the air and him choking her with the string from her hospital badge but enough is enough. It says this program is appropriate for a 14year old maybe it should be relabeled NC 17!

This TV show had obscene language expected on premium cable channels, not basic cable. There was a scene where the main characters were in a brothel. It showed a woman's back side, completely naked. It showed a vigorous sex scene with no nudity. Adults understand what goes on in a brothel without these scenes. These scenes added nothing to the story. And all of this was in the first hour!! This was vulgar and unacceptable viewing of basic cable television.

This is the re-filing of the complaint filed 07/09/2013 which was rejected because it was filed on the wrong form. That complaint reference number for the previous rejected complaint was 13-C00510148.

On 6/23/2013 at 6 pm, I was listening to "The Celestial News Hour" on KWCR-FM which is licensed to Weber State University in Ogden, UT. the program was hosted by "Big Jared" Christensen (KWCR General manager) and KC Austin (who may be a stage name for Austin Hatch, KWCR Program Director.) when the show took a turn for the graphic. The show contained, among other things, many references to sexual or excretory organs or activities.

The courts have held that indecent material is protected by the First Amendment and cannot be banned entirely. It may, however, be restricted in order to avoid its broadcast during times of the day when there is a reasonable risk that children may be in the audience. Consistent with a federal indecency statute and federal court decisions interpreting the statute, the Commission has adopted a rule that broadcasts that fit within the indecency definition and that are aired between 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m. are prohibited and subject to indecency enforcement action. This broadcast was between 6 and 7 pm when there is an extreme likelihood that children would have been in the audience (As it was after school hours and before when children would normally be in bed.)

Highlights from this broadcast of what I believe to be indecent material are below.

In one segment the hosts discuss bedbugs. They go on to say "So, bedbugs in this country are a complete epidemic. In the late 70's, before DDT was outlawed, bedbugs were no more. Bedbugs didn't exist in this country until the late 70's when they outlawed DDT. And then when they outlawed DDT then bedbugs just came in and are everywhere now. It's just like, these guys, whatever. Dude, Bedbugs are crazy, they have knife-like penises, oh excuse me I shouldn't have said that word. Units. Yeah they have Knife like units that just stab, they don't have intercourse per se, they just like straight up just stab their mate and spread it all over." Well, that's probably what the guy in this van was thinking, right? I mean, he said it was a prank. Social experiment! That's, you know, the next excuse I'm gonna give. I tried social norm experiments all the time when I was in college. It just backfired. Yeah, yeah, why not, its college, right? I don't know man.. So my next question is, if he is asking this kids to help him look for his dog, is that some sort of metaphor? (Laughing)

Another example from this show of indecent content is that the hosts are discussing another story about a man that was under the influence of drugs who "ripped his own genetailia off". at one point in the story, they are talking about the police officers taking the man and the pieces of his genetailia to the hospital and one of them makes a joke about the man, when he is being put in the police car yelling at the officers "Hey, grab that tip, grab that tip" they make references to male sexual organs over and over in this story by calling it a "Unit"

The last example is yet another story about John Wayne Bobbitt. They begin the story by one of the hosts singing, to the melody of "The lion sleeps tonight" By the Tolkins: "Lorena grabs a knife.. a wiener whack a weiner whack a weiner whack a weiner whack" Then saying "well, if Lorena Bobbitt was trying to get off, like.... Well that might not have been the appropriate word... was she just trying to find herself like a permanent toy when she did it? Yeah, maybe she just didn't want to go to the Doctor Johns" (Doctor Johns is an "adult novelty" store in this area)

This Indecent content was not the only problem with this programming, there were sexual innuendos, glorification of Drug use and in the first story quoted above, they made a joke about pedophilia. I will send in a recording of this show to be reviewed as I believe there are many things that are against FCC policy, rules and regulations, too many for me to transcribe them all.

Problem Description

When we selected channel 4 on our Fioptics program guide on the date/time above, the description on the guide stated that an episode of Downton abbey was supposed to be playing. Instead there was a pornographic show, with full nudity and close ups of explicit sex acts. We tried selecting other channels on the guide and returning to channel 4 to see if it returned to the regularly scheduled program, but it did not. We checked a few times within a 30 minute time frame and the pornography was continuing to be broadcast. We called Cincinnati Bell/Fioptics customer service to report it, but they gave no explanation and simply said they were surprised to hear this and would report it. The person on the phone said something like we should let WCET know about it. I did send them a message by email and they basically said they were in no way responsible, that it had to be the Fioptics system. I also sent an email to Cincinnati Bell, and just received a response today, almost 2 weeks later, asking for my account number only. The next morning after the pornography was being shown, we checked the guide again, and there was no signal/show on wcet/channel 4 at all. The channel remained blocked/blank for several days. The fact that this can occur, and such material could be accidentally viewed by children or anyone at any time is highly disturbing. Cincinnati Bell has basically shown no concern over this matter by ignoring it, and I think they need to be held accountable and required to immediately improve their safety measures to protect the general public from being exposed to this unwanted, disgusting type of programming. I hope that your organization can address the legal issues of this matter with Cincinnati Bell

Problem Description

During the opening scene between Tina Fey and Amy Poehler mention the words masturbation, sex, and gay sex several times. Is this appropriate for prime time television? Why is this allowed?

Problem Description

I was channel surfing, landed on this channel, and for 2-4 seconds while there, there were two naked women in a bed finishing up an oral sex session. Fortunately, I live alone, still I was offended. I don't choose to watch porn, soft or otherwise, and I resent the choice being made for me. Where's the comedy in that scene, and who's supposed to be doing the laughing? I remember years ago when a woman appearing in a full slip was scandalous, and now look where we are. TV is disgusting. Who's monitoring this stuff? And what do I need to do to bring it back?
