Re: F07-0055

This is in further response to your August 13, 2007 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to this Office for certain FOIA case logs. As a result of discussions with the Office of Information and Privacy, we have agreed to further processing of the record responsive to your request. A copy of the reprocessed document is enclosed.

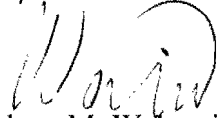

I am continuing to withhold information pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(2), (b)(6) and (b)(7)(C). Exemption (b)(2) allows for the withholding of information that is “related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency.” Exemption (b)(6) permits the withholding of information about individuals in “personnel and medical files and similar files” when disclosure of such information “would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.” Exemption (b)(7)(C) allows for the withholding of information compiled for law enforcement purposes the release of which “could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.”

If you are not satisfied with this response, you may appeal in writing within sixty days of the date of this letter to the Director, Office of Information and Privacy. Your letter and envelope should be marked “FREEDOM OF INFORMATION APPEAL” and addressed to:

Office of Information and Privacy
United States Department of Justice
1425 New York Ave., N.W.
Suite 11050
Washington, D.C. 20530-0001

If you are dissatisfied with the result of any appeal you make, judicial review may thereafter be available to you in the United States District Court for the judicial district in which you reside, or in which you have your principal place of business, or in the District of Columbia.

Sincerely,

Re: F07-0055

This is in response to your August 13, 2007 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to this Office for certain FOIA case logs. We received your request on August 29, 2007. It has been assigned request number F07-0055. Please refer to that number in any correspondence pertaining to this matter. A search of our system of records located one document responsive to your request. I have determined that this document may be released to you in part. A copy is enclosed.

I am withholding the remaining information pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(2) and (b)(6). Exemption (b)(2) allows for the withholding of information that is "related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency." Exemption (b)(6) permits the withholding of information about individuals in "personnel and medical files and similar files" when disclosure of such information "would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy."

If you are not satisfied with this response, you may appeal in writing within sixty days of the date of this letter to the Director, Office of Information and Privacy. Your letter and envelope should be marked "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION APPEAL" and addressed to:

Office of Information and Privacy
United States Department of Justice
