Re: FOIA-2012-00279
Issa Correspondence

This is in response to your request dated December 10, 2011, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) seeking access to records provided to Chairman Darrell Issa's Office concerning his January 2011 FOIA inquiry and any related correspondence. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of December 12, 2011, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

We have located 108 pages and 7 spreadsheets of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Portions of these records fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

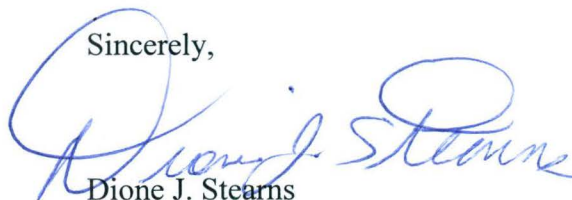

Some responsive records constitute confidential commercial or financial information, which is exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 4, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4). Critical Mass Energy Project v. NRC, 975 F.2d 871, 879 (D.C. Cir. 1992). Moreover, because Section 6(f) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 46(f), prohibits public disclosure of this type of information, it is also exempt under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), which exempts from disclosure any information that is protected from disclosure under another federal statute.

Finally, I am denying access to private individual's names and addresses, and any other identifying information found in the complaints. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request or about the FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Sarah Corrigan at (202) 326-2363.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Darrell Issa
Chairman
Committee on Oversight and Government Reform
United States House of Representatives
2157 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515-6143

Dear Chairman Issa:

Thank you for your letter of January 25, 2011, requesting information concerning the agency's compliance with the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"). Specifically, you requested FOIA logs for the past five years, logs of FOIA responses that are overdue, and information about litigation costs assessed against the Commission. I am responding to your request as an official request of a Congressional Committee, see 16 C.F.R. § 4.11(b).

The agency is proud of its longstanding commitment to FOIA and open government. The Knight Open Government Survey 2007 named the Commission an E-Star citing it as one of the top five Best Overall Agencies for complete compliance with E-FOIA requirements. The report specifically noted the "Federal Trade Commission (FTC) is one agency with an excellent Pdf guide - a comprehensive handbook covering all major issues relevant to FOIA requesters, including detailed discussion of exemptions, how to file requests, fees, and a list of major information systems as well as a description of the types of records held by the agency." Finally, the report commends the agency for the prominent placement of the FOIA tab on the main navigation bar on the Commission's home page.

The Commission's FOIA office began a transition to electronic operations in 1999 when it added an online request form and email address for submitting FOIA requests. In October 2003, the agency fully automated the FOIA process. Every request is scanned into an electronic system and assigned a unique identifier. The agency's FOIA website provides a contact number for the FOIA Office and the Public Liaison Officer, as well as email addresses for both offices. Additionally, all FOIA requesters are given the name and direct telephone number of the staff member processing their request.

The Commission responds to more than 1,200 FOIA requests on average each year. We have received more than 6,187 FOIA requests in the past five years. Despite the large volume of requests, and often the large volume of records responsive to each request, the agency strives to provide timely responses to all requesters. In order to facilitate this, the agency often provides records on a rolling basis, a method preferred by most FOIA requesters. As you will see in the attached documentation, the agency currently has only sixteen requests pending that were received more than 45 days before your letter. Of these, the agency has provided at least one substantive release for every response and, in most of the requests, the agency has reviewed thousands of pages of records. Further, in six requests after releasing records, we have placed the request on hold pending an agreement to pay the fees required to process the remainder of the request or to clarify the scope of the remainder of the request. The number of requests pending on this log represents significantly less than 1% of the total requests received by the agency.

In response to the specific requests in your letter, we are providing the information below.

1. Agency FOIA Log for the 5 years preceding the date of your letter

We have enclosed a CD which contains Excel spread sheets with the data you requested. For part (f) of your request, whether any agency records were received in response to the FOIA request, we have included two fields. The first notes the disposition as it is recorded in our electronic tracking system indicating whether the response was granted in part, granted in full, denied in full, or "other." The "other" field is used to indicate situations where no records were located or where the requester did not agree to pay fees, withdrew the request or only asked for public records. We have included an additional field that specifies which "other" situation applies. All requests with the disposition of granted in full, granted in part, or where the request only sought public records, indicate that records were provided to the requester.

2. Identify each FOIA request submitted more than 45 days prior to the date of this letter to which the agency has not yet issued a complete and final response

We have included on the CD a spreadsheet that indicates those requests and the current status of the request. We note that these requests are voluminous and the agency is releasing the records on a rolling basis. For instances, in one request we reviewed nine boxes of paper records and over 13,000 pages of electronic records in the initial three responses. In another request, we have made six releases from our review of over 14,000 pages of records.

3. For each FOIA request identified in response to Request No. 2, provide all communications between the agency and the requester

We have included all communications responsive to these FOIA requests. To facilitate the review of these requests, we have provided them electronically and identified each set of correspondence by the FOIA tracking number provided on the Excel spreadsheet.

4. Identify any federal judicial action in which your agency, within the five years preceding this letter, has been ordered by the court to pay any attorneys' fees or other litigation costs incurred by a FOIA requestor

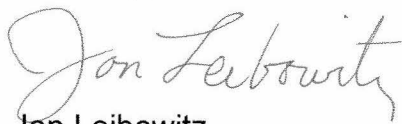

The agency is rarely involved in FOIA litigation. One FOIA requester filed three separate cases against the agency, however, the agency prevailed on every count in each case. Therefore, the agency has not been ordered to pay attorneys' fees or litigation costs in any court proceeding.

5. For each federal action identified in response to Request No. 4, provide a copy of the court order requiring the agency to pay attorney fees or other litigation costs.

Because the agency has prevailed in all litigation, there are no records responsive to this part of the request.

If you have any further questions, please contact Jeanne Bumpus, Director, Office of Congressional Relations, at (202) 326-2946.

Sincerely,

Jon Leibowitz

RE: FOIA-2010-00692
Investigative records re:
Credit One, LLC

Dear (b)(6)

On April 28, 2010, we received your request dated April 27, 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to investigative records concerning Credit One, LLC. This letter is to inform you that we will be unable to respond to your request within the statutory 20-business day deadline as codified in 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A)(i).

The FOIA, as amended in 2002, allows for an extension of the 20-day deadline if one of three types of "unusual circumstances" exist (See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(B)(iii)). Your request falls under one or more of these three circumstances:

- (1) The need to search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request;
- (2) The need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request; or
- (3) The need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more components of the agency having substantial subject matter interest therein.

We are continuing to process your request at this time. If you should have any questions regarding your request, or if you would like to narrow your request to reduce the necessary response time, please contact Russell Edwards at (202) 326-2186.

Investigative records re: Credit One,

Dear (b)(6)

This is in partial response to your request dated April 27, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to investigative records concerning Credit One, LLC. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of April 28, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

Thus far, we have located and reviewed approximately thirty-one pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to, and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Portions of some pages fall within an exemption to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

I am denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information found in the records. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. *See The Lakin Law Firm v. If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

We have tried unsuccessfully to reach you to discuss the scope of your request. If you wish to proceed with the remainder of this request, please contact Christopher Falcone at 202-326-2027 by February 25, 2011, or we will close our file on this matter. If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Mr. Falcone.

John Beck

Dear Ms. Neill:

This is in partial response to your request dated May 11, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to documents relating to the investigation of John Beck Amazing Profits, Mentoring of America, and Family Products, FTC File No. 0723138. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of May 12, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

Thus far, we have located and reviewed approximately 3,800 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Approximately 3,300 pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. Additionally, portions are attorney work-product prepared in contemplation of litigation. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975); see Hickman v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495 (1947).

Some records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 7(A), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A), because disclosure of that material could reasonably be expected to interfere with the conduct of the Commission's law enforcement activities. See Robbins Tire & Rubber Co. v. NLRB, 437 U.S. 214 (1978).

Enclosed are 187 pages of responsive complaints that consumers have sent to the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). You should know that the enclosed complaints have not necessarily been verified by the FTC. Therefore, you should make your own judgment about relying on the information provided. I am denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information found in the complaints. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

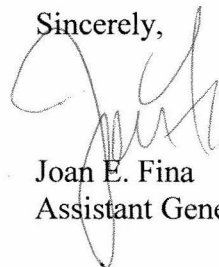

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Financial Management Office, H-790
Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW

Dear Ms. Neill:

This is the second partial response to your request dated May 11, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to documents relating to the investigation of John Beck Amazing Profits, Mentoring of America, and Family Products, FTC File No. 0723138. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of May 12, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

We have located and reviewed approximately 2,250 additional pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of the accessible records. Approximately 2,230 pages and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495 (1947).

Some records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 7(A), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A), because disclosure of that material could reasonably be expected to interfere with the conduct of the Commission's law enforcement activities. See Robbins Tire & Rubber Co. v. NLRB, 437 U.S. 214 (1978).

We have located 191 additional pages of responsive complaints that consumers have sent to the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). You should know that the enclosed complaints have not necessarily been verified by the FTC. Therefore, you should make your own judgment about relying on the information provided. I am denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information found in the complaints. John Beck

Dear Ms. Neill:

This is the third partial response to your request dated May 11, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to documents relating to the investigation of John Beck Amazing Profits, Mentoring of America, and Family Products, FTC File No. 0723138.. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of May 12, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

For this third partial response, we have located and reviewed approximately 5,000 pages of records, portions of which are responsive to your request. I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Approximately 4,700 pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

In addition, some responsive records constitute confidential commercial or financial information, which is exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 4, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4). See Critical Mass Energy Project v. NRC, 975 F.2d 871, 879 (D.C. Cir. 1992). Moreover, because Section 6(f) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 46(f), prohibits public disclosure of this type of information, it is also exempt under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), which, as noted above, exempts from disclosure any information that is protected from disclosure under another federal statute.

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. Additionally, portions are attorney work-product prepared in contemplation of litigation. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975); see Hickman v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495 (1947).

Some records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 7(A), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A), because disclosure of that material could reasonably be expected to interfere with the conduct of the Commission's law enforcement activities. See Robbins Tire & Rubber Co. v. NLRB, 437 U.S. 214 (1978).

I am also denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

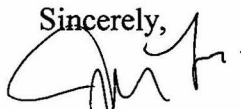

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Financial Management Office, H-790
Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20580

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

At this time, we are continuing to process your request. If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Chris Falcone at 202-326-2027.

Investigatory records concerning
John Beck; FTC No. 0723138

Dear Ms. Neill:

This is the fourth partial response to your request dated May 11, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to investigative records relating to FTC File No. 0723138. For this fourth partial response, we have located and reviewed approximately 3,900 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to, and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Approximately 1,300 pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), *see Kathleen McDermott v. Re: FOIA-2010-00993
Countrywide

Dear Mr. Boyce:

This is in response to your request dated July 15, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all records relating to Countrywide Financial Corporation, Countrywide Home Loans, Countrywide Bank, National Association, Countrywide Bank, FSB, and any of their subsidiaries. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of July 15, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

Thus far, we have located and reviewed approximately 2,600 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and, am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Approximately 1,000 pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

Enclosed are approximately 1,600 pages of responsive complaints that consumers have sent to the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). You should know that the enclosed complaints have not necessarily been verified by the FTC. Therefore, you should make your own judgment about relying on the information provided. I am denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information found in the complaints. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

Dear Mr. Boyce:

This is the second partial response to your request dated July 15, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all records relating to Countrywide Financial Corporation, Countrywide Home Loans, Countrywide Bank, National Association, Countrywide Bank, FSB, and any of their subsidiaries. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of July 15, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

We have located and reviewed approximately 2,850 additional pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and, am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Portions of some pages, fall within an exemption to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Enclosed are approximately 2,850 pages of responsive complaints that consumers have sent to the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). You should know that the enclosed complaints have not necessarily been verified by the FTC. Therefore, you should make your own judgment about relying on the information provided. I am denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information found in the complaints. Re: FOIA-2010-00993

Dear Mr. Boyce:

This is the third partial response to your request dated July 15, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all records relating to Countrywide Financial Corporation, Countrywide Home Loans, Countrywide Bank, National Association, Countrywide Bank, FSB, and any of their subsidiaries. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of July 15, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

For this third partial response, we have located and reviewed approximately 2,600 additional pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and, am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Six pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

Enclosed are approximately 2,590 pages of responsive complaints that consumers have sent to the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). You should know that the enclosed complaints have not necessarily been verified by the FTC. Therefore, you should make your own judgment about relying on the information provided. I am denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information found in the complaints. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Financial Management Office, H-790
Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20580

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

At this time, we are continuing to process the remainder of your request. If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Christopher Falcone at 202-326-2027.

Countrywide

Dear Mr. Boyce:

This is the fourth partial response to your request dated July 15, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all records relating to Countrywide Financial Corporation, Countrywide Home Loans, Countrywide Bank, National Association, Countrywide Bank, FSB, and any of their subsidiaries. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of July 15, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

For this fourth partial response, we have located and reviewed approximately 3,000 additional pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and, am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Ten pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

Enclosed are approximately 2,990 pages of responsive complaints that consumers have sent to the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). You should know that the enclosed complaints have not necessarily been verified by the FTC. Therefore, you should make your own judgment about relying on the information provided. I am denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information found in the complaints. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Financial Management Office, H-790
Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20580

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

This fourth partial response fulfills your $1,000 fee agreement. If you wish to continue with the remainder of your request, please contact Chris Falcone at 202-326-2027 to increase your fee agreement by October 19, 2010, or we will close our file on this matter. If you have any questions about the way we handled your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Mr. Falcone.

Countrywide

Dear Mr. Boyce:

This is the fifth partial response to your request dated July 15, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all records relating to Countrywide Financial Corporation, Countrywide Home Loans, Countrywide Bank, National Association, Countrywide Bank, FSB, and any of their subsidiaries. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of July 15, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office. In your October 6, 2010, telephone conversation with Chris Falcone, agreed to pay an additional $1,000 to continue processing your request. During this conversation, you requested that we stop reviewing responsive consumer complaints and, instead, only review investigative records relating to Countrywide.

For this fifth partial response, we have located and reviewed approximately 2,400 pages and 40.0MB of responsive records. I am granting partial access to, and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Approximately 2,375 pages and 40.0MB fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. Additionally, portions are attorney work-product prepared in contemplation of litigation. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975); see Hickman v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495 (1947).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Financial Management Office, H-790
Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

At this time, we are continuing to process your request. If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Chris Falcone at 202-326-2027.

Re: FOIA-2010-00993
Countrywide

Dear Mr. Boyce:

This is the sixth partial response to your request dated July 15, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all records relating to Countrywide Financial Corporation, Countrywide Home Loans, Countrywide Bank, National Association, Countrywide Bank, FSB, and any of their subsidiaries. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of July 15, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

For this sixth partial response, we have located and reviewed approximately 675 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to, and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Approximately 400 pages and portions of other pages all within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

In addition, some responsive records constitute confidential commercial or financial information, which is exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 4, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4). See Critical Mass Energy Project v. NRC, 975 F.2d 871, 879 (D.C. Cir. 1992). Moreover, because Section 6(f) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 46(f), prohibits public disclosure of this type of information, it is also exempt under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), which, as noted above, exempts from disclosure any information that is protected from disclosure under another federal statute.

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. Additionally, portions are attorney work-product prepared in contemplation of litigation. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5

U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975); see Hickman v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495 (1947).

I am also denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

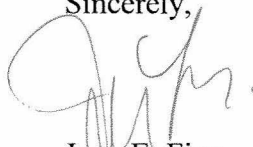

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Financial Management Office, H-790
Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

At this time, we are continuing to process your request. If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Christopher Falcone at 202-326-2027.

Countrywide

Dear Mr. Boyce:

This is the seventh partial response to your request dated July 15, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all records relating to Countrywide Financial Corporation, Countrywide Home Loans, Countrywide Bank, National Association, Countrywide Bank, FSB, and any of their subsidiaries. For this seventh partial response, we have located and reviewed approximately 1,075 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to, and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Approximately 1,065 pages and portions of other pages all within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

In addition, some responsive records constitute confidential commercial or financial information, which is exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 4, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4). See Critical Mass Energy Project v. NRC, 975 F.2d 871, 879 (D.C. Cir. 1992). Moreover, because Section 6(f) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 46(f), prohibits public disclosure of this type of information, it is also exempt under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), which, as noted above, exempts from disclosure any information that is protected from disclosure under another federal statute.

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. Additionally, portions are attorney work-product prepared in contemplation of litigation. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975); see Hickman v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495 (1947).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Financial Management Office, H-790
Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20580

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

This seventh partial response fulfills your $1,000 fee agreement. There are additional materials responsive to your request. If you would like to continue with the remainder of your request, please contact Christopher Falcone at 202-326-2027 by February 24, 2011, or we will close our file on this matter. If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Mr. Falcone at 202-326-2027.

Subject: August 23, 2010 FOIA Request from Greenberg Traurig

Nathaniel,

In accordance with our discussion today, I am writing to confirm the following concerning our August 23, 2010 Freedom of Information Act Request.

You advised us that the “fees, assessed in accordance with the law, in connection with the search and copying” would be approximately $350. That is acceptable.

You also asked that we consider narrowing Requests 4 and 5 with regard to “any other company engaged in Negative Option Marketing or Deal Pass” because of the volume of materials that would entail. We agree to narrow the request by modifying the definition of “Negative Option Marketing” in the request to read as follows: “in an offer or agreement to sell or provide any goods or services, a provision under which the customer’s silence or failure to take an affirmative action to cancel the agreement is interpreted by the seller as acceptance of the offer.”

Please let me know if that modification will work. Thanks.

Subject: August 23, 2010 FOIA Request

Nathaniel and Frank,

In light of the concerns you expressed on our phone conversation on September 10, we have decided to limit the scope of our pending FOIA request, dated August 23, 2010, by amending the requests as follows:

—Request # 5 should now read: "Any and all records of communications with AGs concerning Affinion, WebLoyalty, and/or Vertrue. This request is for all documents the FTC sent to or received from AGs, and any documents reflecting any oral communications between any representative of the FTC and the AGs."

—Request # 6 should now read: "Any and all records of communications with the Other Entities concerning Affinion, WebLoyalty, and/or Vertrue. This request is for all documents the FTC sent to or received from the Other Entities, and any documents reflecting any oral communications between any representative of the FTC and the Other Entities."

—New Request, # 7: "The identity and contact information of all companies engaged in Negative Option Marketing and/or Deal Pass for which, since January 1, 2005: (i) the FTC conducted an investigation, or (ii) the FTC had communications with AGs or Other Entities regarding an investigation or enforcement action."

Request #1-4 remain as set forth in our August 23 letter.

#4 is Unamended. or another company.

Please call or email if you have any questions or concerns. Thank you.

Dear Mr. Horowitz:

On August 24, 2010 we received your request dated August 23, 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all FTC records of correspondence between the FTC, State Attorney Generals, and the Senate Commerce, Science, and Transportation Committee, or any other federal or state legislative body or regulatory agency or any of its clients, regarding on-line marketing practices such as Negative Option Marketing in conjunction with Affinion, Webloyalty, or Vertrue. This letter is to inform you that we will be unable to respond to your request within the statutory 20-business day deadline as codified in 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A)(i).

The FOIA, as amended in 2002, allows for an extension of the 20-day deadline if one of three types of "unusual circumstances" exist (See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(B)(iii)). Your request falls under one or more of these three circumstances:

- (1) The need to search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request;
- (2) The need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request; or
- (3) The need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more components of the agency having substantial subject matter interest therein.

We are continuing to process your request at this time. If you should have any questions regarding your request, or if you would like to narrow your request to reduce the necessary response time, please contact Nathaniel Gray at (202) 326-3452.

Dear Mr. Horowitz:

On August 24, 2010 we received your request dated August 23, 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all FTC records of correspondence between the FTC, State Attorneys General, and the Senate Commerce, Science, and Transportation Committee, or any other federal or state legislative body or regulatory agency or any of its clients, regarding on-line marketing practices such as negative option marketing in conjunction with Affinion Group, Webloyalty.com, Inc., or Vertrue, Inc.

We are placing your request on hold pending payment of fees incurred by Greenberg Traurig, LLP. Greenberg Traurig, LLP owes $1,197.38 in fees associated with FOIA 2010-00414, closed September 20, 2010.

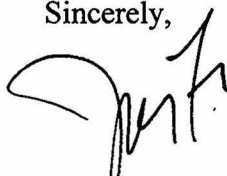

The FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 4.8 et seq, as amended, provide a 30-day time period in which the requestor is required to pay fees. If the requestor fails to pay within the allotted time period, "the requestor may be required to pay all unpaid bills, including accrued interest, prior to processing the request."

If you wish to proceed with this request, please make payment and/or provide proof of payment by February 8, 2011 or we will close our file on this matter. Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Financial Management Office, H-790

Dear Mr. Piazza:

This is in partial response to your request dated February 12, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all investigative records concerning Commerce Planet, Inc; Consumer Loyalty Group, LLC; Legacy Media, LLC; Charles Gugliuzza; Michael Hill; and Aaron Gravitz. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of February 12, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

We have located and reviewed 173 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of the accessible records. One hundred fifty five pages fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Dear Mr. Piazza:

This is in response to your request dated February 12, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to documents relating to Commerce Planet, Inc.; Consumer Loyalty Group, LLC; Legacy Media, LLC; Charles Gugliuzza; Michael Hill; and Aaron Gravitz. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of February 12, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

Pursuant to your $1,200 fee agreement, we have located and reviewed 1,827 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of the accessible records. Approximately 778 pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975).

Some records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 7(A), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A), because disclosure of that material could reasonably be expected to interfere with the conduct of the Commission's law enforcement activities. See Robbins Tire & Rubber Co. v. NLRB, 437 U.S. 214 (1978). We are releasing correspondence between you and the FTC. Ordinarily, this correspondence would be exempt from public disclosure under Exemption 7(A).

of the FOIA. However, because you are requesting a copy of your own records, we are granting you access to these documents.

I am also denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information found in complaints filed with the FTC. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

There may be more records responsive to your request. If you would like to request more records, please file a new Freedom of Information Act request with a new fee agreement. If you have any questions about the way we handled your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Deanna Edwards at (202) 326-3558.

Dear Mr. Horowitz:

This letter is in partial response to your request dated August 23, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all FTC records of correspondence between the FTC, State Attorneys General, and the Senate Commerce, Science, and Transportation Committee, or any other federal or state legislative body, regarding on-line marketing practices such as negative option marketing or deal pass in conjunction with Affinion Group, Webloyalty.com, Inc., or Vertrue, Inc. In telephone conversations with Nate Gray on September 2nd and 15th, 2010, you amended your request by defining negative option marketing or deal pass and seeking the identity and contact information of all companies engaged in Negative Option Marketing and/or Deal Pass for which, since January 1, 2005: (i) the FTC has conducted an investigation, or (ii) the FTC had communications with AGs or Other Entities regarding an investigation or enforcement action. You also amended your fee agreement by stating your willingness to pay fees up to $350.

In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of September 15, 2010, the date we received your amended request in our FOIA office. Pursuant to your $350 fee agreement, we have located and reviewed 243 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. There are 154 pages, and portions of other pages, that fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975).

Some records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 7(A), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A), because disclosure of that material could reasonably be expected to interfere with the conduct of the Commission's law enforcement activities. See Robbins Tire & Rubber Co. v. NLRB, 437 U.S. 214 (1978).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

RE: FOIA-2010-01180
FTC v. Tashman, Case No.
98-civ-07058

Dear Mr. Sarelson:

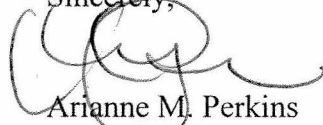

On August 27, 2010 we received your request dated August 27, 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to any and all records concerning the following individuals, commercial entities, and cases: "Stephen Tashman," "Lisa Tashman," "Lisa Tashman Siegel," "Julien Seigel," "William Gale," "Charles Neustein," "Paragon Properties of Costa Rica SA," "Properties of Costa Rica," "FTC v. Tashman, Case No. 98-civ-07058 (S.D. Fla.)." This letter is to inform you that we will be unable to respond to your request within the statutory 20-business day deadline as codified in 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A)(i).

The FOIA, as amended in 2002, allows for an extension of the 20-day deadline if one of three types of "unusual circumstances" exist (See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(B)(iii)). Your request falls under one or more of these three circumstances:

- (1) The need to search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request;
- (2) The need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request; or
- (3) The need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more components of the agency having substantial subject matter interest therein.

We are continuing to process your request at this time. If you should have any questions regarding your request, or if you would like to narrow your request to reduce the necessary response time, please contact Matthew Fairman at (202) 326-3360.

Sincerely,

Re: FOIA-2010-01180
FTC v. Tashman, Case No.
98-civ-07058

Dear Mr. Sarelson:

This is in partial response to your request dated August 27, 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to any and all records concerning the following individuals, commercial entities, and cases: "Stephen Tashman," "Lisa Tashman," "Lisa Tashman Siegel," "Julien Seigel," "William Gale," "Charles Neustein," "Paragon Properties of Costa Rica SA," "Properties of Costa Rica," and "FTC v. Tashman, Case No. 98-civ-07058 (S.D. Fla.)." In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of August 27, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

We have located and reviewed approximately 267 pages of responsive records thus far, and are continuing our review of additional records. We anticipate providing additional responsive records within the next few weeks. I am granting partial access to, and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. One hundred sixty-six pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

I am denying access to portions of the responsive records under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

I am also denying access to portions of the responsive material under FOIA Exemption 5, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5), because they contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. See NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975).

Other portions of the responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), which protects from disclosure "personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy." Individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

Additional records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 7(C), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(C), because disclosure of that material could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. See Thomas v. DOJ, 260 F. App'x 677 (5th Cir. 2007) and Hoffman v. Brown, No. 97-1145, 1998 WL 279575 (4th Cir. May 19, 1998).

Lastly, some of the records were obtained on the condition that the agency keep the source of the information confidential and are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 7(D), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(D). That exemption is intended to ensure that "confidential sources are not lost because of retaliation against the sources for past disclosures or because of the sources' fear of future disclosures." Brant Constr. Co. v. EPA, 778 F.2d 1258, 1262 (7th Cir. 1985).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

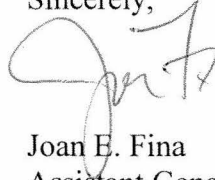

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Financial Management Office, H-790

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

Re: FOIA-2010-01187
Nestle Healthcare Nutrition, Inc. and BOOST Kid Essentials

Dear Mr. Glinchenko:

This is in response to your request dated August 30, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all inspections, reviews, investigative records, orders, public responses, and any other substantive documents relating to the Federal Trade Commission's ("FTC") investigation into Nestle Healthcare Nutrition, Inc.'s product BOOST Kid Essentials. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of August 30, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

We have located approximately 1,445 pages of responsive records, I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. In this response, there are approximately 1,198 pages, and portions of other pages, that fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

In addition, some responsive records constitute confidential commercial or financial information, which is exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 4, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4). In particular, information that would reveal the identity of parties contemplating a business transaction is "not customarily released to the public," and is therefore within the scope of this exemption. See Critical Mass Energy Project v. NRC, 975 F.2d 871, 879 (D.C. Cir. 1992). Moreover, because Section 6(f) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 46(f), prohibits public disclosure of this type of information, it is also exempt under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), which, as noted above, exempts from disclosure any information that is protected from disclosure under another federal statute.

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

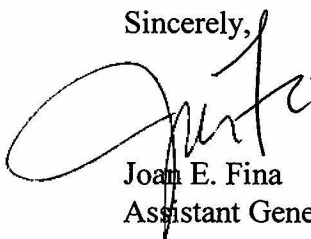

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20580

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

The processing of this request has exhausted your fee agreement. If you would like to continue the processing of this request, please contact us by February 24, 2011, or we will close your request and assume it has been fully satisfied. If you have any questions about the way we handled your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Nathaniel Gray at (202) 326-3452.

Investigative records for Nestle
Healthcare Nutrition, Inc.

Dear Mr. Butler:

This is in response to your request dated September 08, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all investigative records concerning the Nestle Healthcare Nutrition, Inc.'s product BOOST Kid Essentials, between the years 2007-present. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of September 08, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

We have located approximately 1,841 pages of responsive records, I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. There are 1,614 pages, and portions of other pages, that fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

I am denying access to approximately 1,275 pages of the responsive records under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Sections 21(b) and (f) provide that the FTC may not disclose information it obtains in a law enforcement investigation pursuant to compulsory process or voluntarily in lieu thereof. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2; see A. Michael's Piano, Inc. v. FTC, 18 F.3d 138 (2d Cir. 1994).

In addition, some responsive records constitute confidential commercial or financial information, which is exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 4, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4). Moreover, because Section 6(f) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 46(f), prohibits public disclosure of this type of information, it is also exempt under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), which, as noted above, exempts from disclosure any information that is protected from disclosure under another federal statute.

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

Dear Ms. Sheedy:

This is in response to your request dated October 18, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to information regarding the Do Not Call Registry. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of October 18, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

At this time, we have located and reviewed 260 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to, and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Approximately 180 pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records constitute confidential commercial or financial information, which is exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 4, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4). See Critical Mass Energy Project v. NRC, 975 F.2d 871, 879 (D.C. Cir. 1992). Moreover, because Section 6(f) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 46(f), prohibits public disclosure of this type of information, it is also exempt under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), which exempts from disclosure any information that is protected from disclosure under another federal statute.

In addition, I am denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information found in the records. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Re: FOIA-2011-00094
Investigative records of Steve
Warshak or Berkeley Premium
Nutraceuticals

Dear Mr. Warshak:

This is in partial response to your request dated October 14, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to documents pertaining to yourself and Berkeley Pharmaceuticals. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of October 25, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office. We have located a large number of records and are in the process of reviewing the responsive pages. Due to the volume, we will send interim responses until we have completed our review.

For this response we have reviewed 278 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Two hundred fifty pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975). Additionally, some records contain information prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation which is exempt under the attorney work-product privilege. *See Hickman v. If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

We plan to send you another response in the next two weeks. If you have any questions about the way we handled your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Sarah Corrigan at (202) 326-2363.

Hi Ms. Vera,

I have been thinking more about our conversation last week about the initial response to my FOIA on Basic Research. I remain frustrated that the documents provided in both print and disc format are the same as the ones publicly available on the website. Essentially my company received nothing of value for our $98 printing fee.

I would like to take you up on your advice to request 100 pages, which would be at no cost since I'm a member of the news media working on a story for publication.

I would like 100 pages that do not appear among the documents presented online involving the FTC complaint against Basic Research. I am particularly interested in the role Mitchell K. Friedlander has played in Basic Research and its products. I understand that a general area of interest such as that may be hard to fulfill. Unfortunately, I can not name a specific document since I do not know what is in the seven boxes of information involving Basic Research and as you have informed me, no catalogue of those documents exists.

Please don't hesitate to contact me as you seek to fulfill this request to the best of your abilities.

I also have a second request involving Basic Research. The original order requires respondents Dennis Gay, Daniel B. Mowrey and Mitchell K. Friedlander to notify the FTC of any discontinuance of their current business or employment and any new affiliation with a business or employer. I would like any and all such notifications provided by respondents Gay, Mowrey and Friedlander to the FTC. I would like this in electronic and not printed format.

And once again, please contact me to discuss any potential fees or if I can provide any clarification. As always, I appreciate your time and how promptly you have responded to my past inquiries,

Respectfully,

Hi Elena,

Thanks for following up. I have had time to briefly review the administrative proceedings concerning Basic Research, but I am not ready at this time to say whether that page satisfies my request or gives me the insight needed to alter my request. It will take me a little time to go through all of that data.

As I said on the phone, is there any sort of glossary as to what appears in the FTC records on Basic Research, so I can compare that to what is already publicly available?

Re: FOIA-2011-00112
Basic Research records

Dear Mr. Canham:

This is in response to your request dated October 26, 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to documents identifying the role of Mitchell K. Friedlander in the Basic Research investigation and any submissions made by Mr. Friedlander, Dennis Gay, and Daniel Mowrey stating any affiliation with new employment in regards to the original order. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of February 3, 2011, the date we discussed your newly narrowed request.

Ms. Vera has referred you to the FTC.gov public website to review the publicly available administrative proceedings surrounding this investigation and Mr. Friedlander's role in the investigation. Because of the breadth of your request, we cannot conduct a further search of records for this portion of your request without clarification from you.

Our search of the FTC's records did not identify any records that would respond to your second request.

If you are not satisfied with this partial response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, or by facsimile at (202) 326-2477 within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response.

Please contact Ms. Vera by February 11, 2011 to clarify your request or we will assume have fully satisfied your request and close this matter. If you have any questions about the way we handled your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Elena Vera at (202) 326-3368.

Re: FOIA-2011-00112
Basic Research

Dear Mr. Canham:

On October 27, 2010 we received your request dated October 26, 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to investigative records concerning Basic Research between 2004 and 2010. On November 4, 2010, Elena Vera called to discuss your request and referred you to publicly available materials on the FTC.gov website regarding the Basic Research matter. During this telephone conversation, you informed Ms. Vera that you would review the materials and narrow the scope of your request. On November 8, 2010, Ms. Vera followed up to discuss the scope of your request and on November 10, 2010, you stated that you were still unable to narrow your initial request.

Based on that discussion, Ms. Vera processed the initial request and sent you a partial response with dated December 2, 2010, which included an invoice totaling $98.00 for the charges incurred. In addition, the letter requested that you contact Ms. Vera if you wished to continue with the request. On December 6, 2010 you contacted Ms. Vera via email with a newly narrowed request to include documents indicating the role of Mitchell K. Friedlander in the Basic Research investigation and notifications provided by Dennis Gay, Daniel B. Mowrey, and Mitchell K. Friedlander to the Commission. You further indicated that, based on your November 10, 2010 conversation you believed the requests was on hold while you determined whether the request could be narrowed. Based on your belief, as a courtesy, we have waived the initial $98.00 fee and will process your narrowed request. Please note that you will be charged for all duplication charges incurred moving forward.

If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Elena Vera at (202) 326-3368

Research

Dear Mr. Canham:

This is in response to your request dated October 26, 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all investigative records concerning Basic Research between 2004 and 2010. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of October 27, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

Pursuant to your $100 fee agreement, we have located and reviewed approximately 700 pages of responsive records. You are granted full access to the responsive records, which are enclosed. Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Financial Management Office, H-790

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580 or by facsimile at (202) 326-2477, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response.

There are additional records responsive to your request. If you would like us to continue processing your request, please contact Elena Vera (202) 326-3368 by December 2, 2010 with a new fee agreement. If you have any questions about the way we handled your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Ms. Vera.

Dear Ms. McPartland:

This is in partial response to your request dated October 29, 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to documents relating to ALW Sourcing, LLC; AssetCare, Inc.; NCO Financial Systems, Inc.; NCO Group; North Shore Agency, Inc.; Systems & Services Technologies, Inc.; Total Debt Management, Inc.; and Transworld Systems, Inc. from 2009 to the present. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of November 1, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

Pursuant to your $500 fee agreement, we have located and reviewed 2,130 pages of responsive complaints that consumers have made to the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"). You should know that the enclosed complaints have not necessarily been verified by the FTC. Therefore, you should make your own judgment about relying on the information provided. I am denying access to consumers' names and addresses, and any other identifying information found in the complaints. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Do you expect that to be the final response, or is there still more after that?

Re: FOIA-2011-00134
Documents Concerning Google
Wi-Fi Inquiry

Dear Mr. Simpson:

This is in response to your request dated November 1, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to records regarding Google Wi-Fi. In that request you also asked for a fee waiver. We are granting your request for a fee waiver since we have found that the disclosure of the information you requested is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and that the request is not primarily in your organization's commercial interests. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(4)(A)(i) and (iii).

In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of November 2, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office. We have located a large number of records and are in the process of reviewing the responsive pages. Due to the volume, we will send interim responses until we have completed our review.

For this response, we have reviewed approximately 260 pages of responsive records, of which approximately 80 pages were duplicates. I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Seventy-seven pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

First, some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), see Kathleen McDermott v. FTC, 1981-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 63964 (D.D.C. April 13, 1981).

Second, some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975). Additionally, some records contain information prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation which is exempt under the attorney work-product privilege. See Hickman v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495, 509-10 (1947).

Finally, some records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 7(A), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A), because disclosure of that material could reasonably be expected to interfere with the conduct of the Commission's law enforcement activities. See Robbins Tire & Rubber Co. v. NLRB, 437 U.S. 214 (1978).

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

We plan to complete another response next week, at which point we will send you a further response. If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Sarah Corrigan at (202) 326-2363.

Documents Concerning Google
Wi-Fi Inquiry

Dear Mr. Simpson:

This is in partial response to your request dated November 1, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to records regarding Google Wi-Fi.

For this response, we have reviewed approximately 500 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of, the accessible records. Approximately 80 pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

First, some responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 3, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(3), because they are exempt from disclosure by another statute. Specifically, Section 21(f) of the FTC Act provides that information obtained by the Commission in a law enforcement investigation, whether through compulsory process, or voluntarily in lieu of such process, is exempt from disclosure under the FOIA. 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(f), *see Kathleen McDermott v. Second, some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975). Additionally, some records contain information prepared by an attorney in contemplation of litigation which is exempt under the attorney work-product privilege. See Hickman v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495, 509-10 (1947).

Finally, some records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 7(A), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A), because disclosure of that material could reasonably be expected to interfere with the conduct of the Commission's law enforcement activities. *See Robbins Tire & Rubber Co. v. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

We plan to complete another response next week, at which point we will send you additional records. If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Sarah Corrigan at (202) 326-2363.

Dear Mr. Verdi:

On November 3, 2010 we received your request dated November 3, 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to all. In your request you asked that we expedite our review of this matter. You also asked for a fee waiver for any charges incurred by this request.

We are granting your request for expedited treatment since we have found that you have met the "compelling need" standard by establishing that you are a "person primarily engaged in disseminating information," and by demonstrating that an "urgency to inform the public concerning actual or alleged Federal Government activity" exists. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(6)(E)(v).

Additionally, we are granting your request for a fee waiver since we have found that the disclosure of the information you requested is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and that the request is not primarily in your organization's commercial interests. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(4)(A)(i) and (iii).

Health Advisory Opinions

To Whom it May Concern:

Cindy Yen of Kreager Law Firm has made a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552 et seq., request for access to the MedSouth Request for Advisory Opinion Letter, dated June 1, 2001. Our records indicate that Ober Kale on behalf of MedSouth, Inc has previously provided materials to the Federal Trade Commission that are responsive to the request.

We have determined that the information must be released under the FOIA because it is not confidential commercial or financial information within the meaning of Section 6(f) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 46(f). Under Section 21(c) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2(c), the FTC must provide ten days advance notice prior to the release of these documents. This letter constitutes required advance written notice.

I have enclosed a copy of the FOIA request and a copy of the responsive documents. If you disagree with our determination, you have until no later than ten days after you receive this letter to provide written justification for the documents' confidentiality. You may submit written comments to FTC FOIA Office 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., H-585, Washington, D.C. 20580 or by facsimile at (202) 326-2477. Please refer to the above FOIA reference number on all correspondence. If we do not receive a written request within the 10 day period, the records will be released.

If you have any questions about this process or about the Federal Trade Commission's regulations related to the FOIA, please contact Michael Killoy at (202) 326-3475.

Re: FOIA-2011-00201
MedSouth, GRIPA, & TriState
Health Advisory Opinions

Dear Ms. Yen:

This is in partial response to your request dated November 18, 2010 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to advisory opinion letters from MedSouth, GRIPA, and TriState. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of November 19, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

We have located and reviewed approximately 722 pages of responsive records thus far, and are continuing our search for additional records. We anticipate completing our search for responsive records within the next two weeks, at which point we will send you a further response. You are granted full access to the records located thus far, which are enclosed.

Based on the fee provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A), and the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR § 4.8 et seq., as amended, I am also enclosing an invoice for the charges we incurred for this partial response to your request. Failure to pay this bill promptly will result in our refusal to provide copies of accessible documents in response to future requests. If not paid within 30 days, this bill will accrue interest penalties as provided by Federal Claims Collection Standards, 31 C.F.R. § 900-904, as amended.

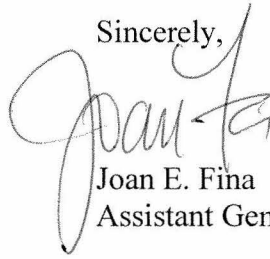

Please make checks payable to U.S. Treasury and send payment to:

Financial Management Office, H-790
Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20580

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

If you have any questions about the way we handled your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Michael Killoy at (202) 326-3475.

Sincerely,

Re: FOIA-2011-00255
FTC comments regarding the EPA's
Reporting Rule

Dear Mr. Moreno:

This is in partial response to your request dated November 30, 2010, under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to documents relating to the FTC's comments regarding the EPA's Reporting Rule. In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of December 01, 2010, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

In your request you asked for a fee waiver for any charges incurred by this request. We are granting your request for a fee waiver since we have found that the disclosure of the information you requested is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and that the request is not primarily in your organization's commercial interests. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(4)(A)(i) and (iii).

We have located 423 pages of responsive records. I am granting partial access to and am enclosing copies of the accessible records. Fifty eight pages, and portions of other pages, fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's disclosure requirements, as explained below.

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions, and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency's decision making process. They are exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5.5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5); see NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132 (1975).

If you are not satisfied with this partial response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20580, within 30 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response. If you believe that we should choose to disclose additional materials beyond what the FOIA requires, please explain why this would be in the public interest.

There are more documents responsive to your request. We are continuing to process this request and anticipate sending you a further response in the coming weeks. If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request, or about our FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Deanna Edwards at (202) 326-3558.

Sincerely,
