Dear Chairman Issa:

Thank you for your letter dated January 25, 2011, requesting information and documents related to the NASA Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) program.

The NASA Administrator and staff have taken the White House's recent initiatives regarding FOIA very seriously. Over the past year aggressive measures within the NASA FOIA office have decreased the total outstanding requests by two-thirds.

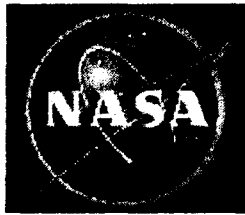

The enclosed disk contains the responsive information. If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact myself or the NASA Principal Agency FOIA Officer, Miriam Brown-Lam at (202) 358-0718.

I have been told by the archives desk, that I would need to place a request for the information I am looking for through the Freedom Of Information Act office. I am looking for scale outline drawings of the these spacecraft, including Pioneer 6-9 (any one in the series is fine, since they were mostly identical), Pioneer Venus (both the orbiter and probe vehicles), Lunar Prospector (I have attached a photo of my model as it stands now) and the Phoenix lender. I would like to get a view from all six axis, X, -X, Y, -Y, Z and -Z. I have attached a sample of Galileo spacecraft to illustrate the type of information I am looking for. The Galileo drawings were obtained through a request placed at the JPL FOIA office (JPL-07-046), and an appeal to the NASA administrator. | | |

| | | | | | | intelligence program(s). I'm particularly seeking information on programs involving "Self-Aware" / "Cognitive" computer ambitions; that is "strong" / "broad" / "Artificial General Intelligence" (AGI), as opposed to "weak" or "narrow" AI which covers a broad range of softwares from video-game-computer-"bots" to compression utilities. 1) Any more information that can be provided about the "Intelligent Archives" program, that isn't already available on the NASA website. Any other related or non-related NASA "AGI" programs or initiatives. 2) I'm especially concerned with information regarding the relationship between NASA and Google Inc. It's publicly known that Google and NASA have entered some sort of "partnership" involving a "million square foot research facility" at the Ames Research Center. Considering Google has been going public for over a year about their AI ambitions, and leaked internal reports mention "building the worlds largest AI research facility", and the "pooling of NASA/Google engineers", what's going on behind the scenes with NASA and Google is absolutely crucial information for the public to understand. In the Google context I seek general information and progress reports. Of those, how many do you fill by releasing the documents? How many have you turned down by withholding documents? Why do you withhold documents? What is the average turnaround time in "perfecting" a request? How much do you charge for documents? | | |

| | | | | | | I am submitting this FOIA Request to look for instructions given to astronauts on how to deal with a UFO encounter in space. There is such a briefing before a flight, since the code word is STAR, and was recorded on live tv when a astronaut said " I think it's a STAR Bill". When clearly this object that was seen/taped/recorded was in between the space shuttle and the earth(100-300 miles above our sea level), and the sun is our closest star. So please do a thorough search for such information on what a astronaut is instructed to do when a UFO is seen. Also is there such a thing as a department of defense encrypted channel that the astronauts talk on to mission control for such UFO sightings? And does NASA have anyone currently researching UFO's? | |

Additionally I want information on how Dr. Whitson was apprised of the situation and degree of risk while she was still aboard the ISS, including all email exchanges between her and Houston, and minutes or notes taken about conversations on this specific subject. Specifically and in addition, I am also looking for any notes explicitly describing the necessary level of protection/sequestration by NASA of this Russian anomaly information from wider dissemination, including public release. | Partial Grant | 8/24/2009 |
| JSC | 2009-149 | James | Oberg | | 5/26/2009 | Documentation from the Mission Operations Directorate in the Aug-Oct 1983 time period related to a high-level NASA request (such as HQ or JSC Center Director) to assess the feasibility of diverting the STS-9 (Spacelab-1) mission to perform an orbital rescue of cosmonauts aboard the Salyut-7 space station. Mr. Glynn Lunney supervised this study, according to my memory. He told me that no Soviet request of any kind had ever been made, but NASA HQ asked about the possibility following onboard failures and the explosion of the relief crew's booster. The conclusion was that such an emergency mission was actually feasible. I am seeking written reports detailing the development of this scenario and their conclusions. | Other Reason for Nondisclosure | 6/8/2009 |

| JSC | 2009-150 | James | Oberg | | 5/26/2009 | Documentation from the Space Shuttle Program Office relating to a 1976-era planning document defining three space shuttle 'Design Reference Missions'. Specifically, I want copies of the sections referring to "Mission 3A/3B", a one-orbit deploy/retrieval mission, including drawings of candidate trajectories. Separate descriptions of a "3A"-alone mission, and a "3B"-alone mission, are also requested. Additionally I want other documentation from that time period concerning the "3A/3B" missions, as well as any written records of eventual termination of consideration of that type of mission as a design driver for the STS. 0 | Other Reason for Nondisclosure | 6/8/2009 |

| JSC | 2009-152 | James | Oberg | | 5/26/2009 | Documentation from NASA organizations including (but not limited to) Space Shuttle Program Office, Mission Operations Directorate, and Space and Life Sciences Directorate, regarding certain events and measures on the STS 51-B (Spacelab-3) mission in Apr-May 1985. Specifically the event involves serious psychological stresses and disturbing behavior from one or more of the Payload Specialists on that mission, behavior so alarming that mission commander Robert Overmyer grew concerned enough to manually duct-tape closed the latch on the mid-deck hatch to prevent its being rapidly opened by anyone in a moment of mental derangement. Google signs a long-term lease for 42-acre complex at Moffett Field; Plans include offices, child care, fitness, dining, sports, conference facilities - even housing for employees

BYLINE: Verne Kopytoff, Chronicle Staff Writer

SECTION: Business; Pg. C1

LENGTH: 846 words

Google Inc. has moved a step closer to building a vast office complex at NASA Ames Research Center that will feature child care, fitness, dining, sports and conference facilities.

It will even have employee housing, harkening back to the days of the company town, when big industry built small cities to accommodate their legions of workers.

Google said Wednesday that it had signed a lease for 42 acres at Moffett Field, the former Naval air station near Mountain View that has been struggling to find a purpose since the military pulled out. The deal calls for Google to initially pay $3.7 million in annual rent to the space agency.

Construction of up to 1.2 million square feet of office and research facilities is expected to start in September 2013, with additional phases in 2018 and 2022. In all, the campus could accommodate as many as 5,000 workers.

The new Google complex is to be located adjacent to the company's current Mountain View headquarters, which encompasses dozens of low-rise office buildings known as the Googleplex. The expansion will ensure that Google - which employs around 8,000 workers in Mountain View - has ample elbow room to accommodate its torrid growth.

David Radcliffe, Google's vice president of real estate and workplace services, said the lease is an important step for his company's future, particularly because it keeps much of its Silicon Valley workforce close together. To that end, Google hopes to get approval for a new entrance at NASA Ames and a bridge to shorten the drive between its headquarters and the new facility.

"It's the synergies that we get from people working together, and people running into each other," Radcliffe said.

Google and NASA started negotiating their real estate deal in 2005 to great fanfare, as part of a broader partnership that includes collaborating on research projects involving super computing, information technology and nanotechnology.

Among the few projects to bear fruit so far is Planetary Connect, an effort to develop software for scientists to post planetary data online that has contributed high-resolution images to Google Moon mapping service.

In addition to offices, Google plans to build an as-yet-undetermined amount of employee housing at NASA Ames as a recruiting tool and to ensure that some of its workers have affordable places to live. The units could also serve to spread some of Google's costs of installing the complex's infrastructure.

Home construction

Although Google has broad ambitions, it doesn't foresee getting into home construction in a major way, a company spokesman said. There was no word on how much a Google home - perhaps among the top Silicon Valley perks - will cost.

Radcliffe said the design of the campus has yet to be decided, although he envisions a high-density urban village. William McDonough + Partners, a Virginia architect known for environmentally friendly buildings, handled the preliminary site analysis and drafted a master plan, both of which were obtained by The Chronicle through a Freedom of Information Act Request.

The master plan shows the footprint of 13 buildings, most scattered around a plaza, along with a basketball court.

Big catch for NASA

NASA has been trying to attract tenants to its Ames facility for several years as part of an effort to offset some of the costs of maintaining the sprawling former air station. But it has met with only modest success.

Many startups and universities have moved in, many of them into unused buildings. Google, by far, is the biggest catch, and helps the space agency burnish its image as being on technology's cutting edge.

"With this new campus, we will establish a new era of expanded collaboration with Google that will further enhance our Silicon Valley connections," Pete Worden, director of NASA Ames, said in a statement.

Google's lease is for 40 years, with possible extensions to up to 90 years. Rent can be increased over time.

Initially, Google had hoped to move into NASA Ames in early 2009, but the urgency has subsided. While negotiating the lease with NASA, Google got approval to build on some Mountain View city-owned land next to its headquarters and move into some other nearby buildings recently vacated by Alza Corp., the biotechnology company.

Google had also considered building a data center at NASA Ames and inquired whether it could take advantage of cheap electricity that is available to the federal government there, according to an e-mail in 2006 by Urs Holzle, a Google senior vice president, that was obtained through a Freedom of Information Act request.

But it turned out that the electricity, supplied by the Department of Energy, isn't available to the private sector, according to Google's site analysis.

The agreement does not cover landing rights at Moffett Field. Last year, Google co-founders Larry Page and Sergey Brin, along with CEO Eric Schmidt, signed a separate $1.5 million annual contract to fly two Boeing 767s and two Gulfstream V jets out of the facility - to the chagrin of some of the airfield's neighbors who were concerned about the noise.

GOOGLE GOALS: STORE TOP SECRETS, TOP MICROSOFT; A LITTLE INTELLIGENCE: Firm working with spying groups, other big government agencies

BYLINE: Verne Kopytoff, Chronicle Staff Writer

SECTION: Business; Pg. C1

LENGTH: 875 words

When the nation's intelligence agencies wanted a computer network to better share information about everything from al Qaeda to North Korea, they turned to a big name in the technology industry to supply some of the equipment: Google Inc.

The Mountain View company sold the agencies servers for searching documents, marking a small victory for the company and its little-known effort to do business with the government.

"We are a very small group, and even a lot of people in the federal government don't know that we exist," said Mike Bradshaw, who leads Google's federal government sales team and its 18 employees.

The strategy is part of a broader plan at Google to expand beyond its consumer roots. Federal, state and local agencies, along with corporations and schools, are increasingly seen by the company as lucrative sources of extra revenue.

In addition to the intelligence agencies, Google's government customers include the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration, the U.S. Coast Guard, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, the state of Alabama and Washington, D.C.

Many of the contracts are for search appliances - servers for storing and searching internal documents. Agencies can use the devices to create their own mini-Google's on intranets made up entirely of government data.

Additionally, Google has had success licensing a souped-up version of its aerial mapping service, Google Earth. Agencies can use it to plot scientific data and chart the U.S. coastline, for example, giving ships another tool to navigate safely.

Spy agencies are using Google equipment as the backbone of Intellipedia, a network aimed at helping agents share intelligence. Rather than hoarding information, spies and analysts are being encouraged to post what they learn on a secure online forum where colleagues can read it and add comments.

"Each analyst, for lack of a better term, has a shoe box with their knowledge," said Sean Dennehy, chief of Intellipedia development for the CIA. "They maintained it in a shared drive or a Word document, but we're encouraging them to move those platforms so that everyone can benefit."

Like Wikipedia

The system is modeled after Wikipedia, the public online, group-edited encyclopedia. However, the cloak-and-dagger version is maintained by the director of national intelligence and is accessible only to the CIA, FBI, National Security Agency and an alphabet soup of other intelligence agencies and offices.

Agents can log in, depending on their clearance, to Intellipedia's three tiers of service: top secret, secret and sensitive but unclassified. So far, 37,000 users have established accounts on the network, which contain 35,000 articles encompassing 200,000 pages, according to Dennehy.

Google supplies the computer servers that support the network, as well as the search software that allows users to sift through messages and data.

Dennehy declined to assess the quality of Google's products, but he applauded the contribution that Intellipedia can make to the government's work. Whether the network actually leads to better intelligence will largely depend on agents sharing some of their most important files and then their colleagues chiming in with incisive commentary - issues that are out of Google's hands.

Normally, Google ranks results on its consumer site by using the number of links to a Web page as a barometer of its importance. Doing so on Intellipedia isn't as effective because the service lies behind a firewall and is used by a limited number of people.

Instead, material gets more prominent placement if it is tagged, or appended by the network's users, with descriptive keywords.

Because of the complexities of doing business with the government, Google uses resellers to process orders on its behalf. Google takes care of the sales, marketing and management of the accounts.

Conspiracy theories

Google is one of many technology vendors vying for government contracts.

A single deal can be sizable, such as the one Google made with the National Security Agency, which paid more than $2 million for four search appliances plus a support agreement, according to a contract obtained through a Freedom of Information Act request.

However, the amount is insignificant when measured against Google's overall revenue of $16.6 billion last year, virtually all of which came from online advertising.

On occasion, Google is the target of conspiracy theories from bloggers who say it is working with spy agencies more closely than simply selling search equipment.

The buzz got so loud two years ago that Matt Cutts, who leads Google's fight against spam Web sites, responded by ridiculing the idea in his personal blog.

Google's Bradshaw emphasized that the company sells virtually the same products to companies as it does to government agencies. Google can make minor tweaks to comply with government rules about equipment security, for example, while major customization is handled by others.

"There were some wild accusations," Bradshaw said. "But everything we do with the government is the same as what we do with our corporate customers."

"Each analyst, for lack of a better term, has a shoe box with their knowledge."

IDEAS ARE STILL TAKING FLIGHT; NASA, Google partnership makes subtle gains

BYLINE: Verne Kopytoff, Chronicle Staff Writer

SECTION: Business; Pg. C1

LENGTH: 1357 words

More than two years after forging a partnership that technology insiders hoped would spawn a new era of innovation in Silicon Valley, Google and NASA have few tangible products to show for their collaboration.

But that that doesn't faze Google's managers, who say the goal is to get employees brainstorming and promote the space program - not to create flashy products.

"Google didn't enter into this partnership saying 'How are we going to change this product and that product?' " said Dan Clancy, engineering director at Google. "The tangible results are that we have a lot more interaction between our staff and their staff."

The relationship began two years ago, when the partners signed a memorandum of understanding that opened the door to cooperation on a broad front. Last year, they formalized their alliance under the Space Act, a federal law that allows the agency to share personnel, facilities and equipment with private companies.

Google, which has the most popular search engine on the Web, knows how to solve complex problems. And NASA did, after all, put a man on the moon and a rover on Mars.

By combining brain power, the partners hope to tackle supercomputing, biotechnology and nanotechnology, the study of extremely small devices.

Only a handful of products have come out of the partnership so far, including a recent update of the Google Moon lunar mapping service with higher-resolution photos.

NASA has added some bells and whistles to Google Earth, an online mapping product. A layer from the space agency highlights dozens of photos by astronauts of unusual places across the globe, such as a dust storm over the Persian Gulf.

NASA played a smaller role in Google Sky, a service that allows users to scan photos of the heavens. So too with Google Mars, which features images of the Martian landscape.

Greg Sterling, principal with Sterling Market Intelligence, described the assembly line of products as slow, although he added that Google probably never gave much thought to making money from them because they generally appeal to college students, amateur astronomers and academics.

"It's one of those initiatives that is kind of sexy in a certain way and consistent with Google's effort to maintain a technology leadership position," Sterling said. "But it's not a revenue generator."

More products are on the way, according to Google and NASA officials. Virtual flights across the moon and through canyons on Mars are just some of the ideas.

Chris Kemp, director of strategic business development for NASA, spoke of other potential projects like having Google digitize some of the agency's books and documents, including research garnered from NASA's giant wind tunnels. Copies could be made available online through Google's book search.

Photos from NASA's space flights and satellites already are available on the agency's Web site. But officials hope that Google's products will give them more pizzazz and reach a bigger audience, partly to generate enthusiasm about space exploration and the big budget necessary to support it.

Google's relationship with NASA was thrust into the headlines after word leaked out two months ago that the agency had awarded the company's top executives landing rights for their planes at Moffett Field, the former naval airstrip at the Ames facility. Residents from neighboring cities quickly raised concerns about noise from the aircraft, which included a Boeing 767.

Moffett Field isn't generally open to civilian aviation. To get access, Google's founders, Larry Page and Sergey Brin, along with CEO Eric Schmidt, agreed to pay $1.3 million annually to NASA through a holding company they control and to carry scientific instruments aboard their aircraft.

In terms of real estate, Google is hoping to build up to a million square feet of office space at NASA Ames Research Center, just a few minutes from the company's Mountain View headquarters. Few companies are hiring as fast as Google, which added 2,175 employees during the three months that ended in September, an average of 24 workers per day.

Closing the deal would bring a marquee tenant to Ames, which has been struggling to find a new purpose since the military pulled out in the 1990s. NASA wants to make the base more financially self-sufficient, and so far has been able to attract only a small number of companies and a handful of satellite college campuses.

Generally, the companies that move onto NASA property must contribute to the agency's mission in some way. In practice, simply paying NASA rent is enough for a company to qualify, Kemp said.

In other signs of collaboration, the partners have sent five groups of employees to tour each other's offices to learn about what the other is working on and how people go about it. Speakers regularly share their expertise about solar power, education programs and parsing data.

To focus the cooperation, NASA employees are being asked for ideas about what they'd like to work on with their Google counterparts. Google, in turn, has awarded $50,000 to $250,000 individually to NASA scientists to support their research.

More informally, hundreds of employees are now talking, said Megan Smith, Google's director of new business development and strategy, and in some cases, her company already has offered a helping hand.

For instance, Google loaned a NASA researcher a search appliance, a server for storing and sifting through files, to find out what kind of NASA files could be read by the technology.

Kemp said that his agency shares many interests with Google and that working together will be a learning experience for both. Slicing and dicing the cascade of data they collect is just one of their mutual challenges.

NASA receives vast amounts of scientific information from its space missions. Google is constantly adding to its search index, which makes up a big chunk of the Web.

"NASA and Google have a lot more in common than at first blush," Kemp said.

Google's interest in space starts at the top with its founders, who have helped with fundraising for the XPrize Foundation, a group that promotes commercial space exploration. Google also is sponsoring the Lunar XPrize, which would award $20 million to the first privately funded team that can send a rover to the moon that can travel 1,300 feet and transmit a specific set of video, images and data back to Earth.

Several Googlers had ties with NASA long before the two organizations started working together. Clancy, who helps oversee the NASA agreement, once was director of information sciences at NASA Ames. Peter Norvig, Google's research director, was NASA's senior computer scientist and played a major role in the mission that placed rovers on Mars.

More recently, Google hired Ed Lu, a veteran of three space missions who holds a doctorate in astrophysics.

Dear Ms. Garcia,

Concerning my request of June 23 and in response to your email of July 14, I'd like to point out that on the NASA Ames Research Center site at http://www.nasa.gov/centers/ames/business/foia/H211_LLC.html there is a lease agreement between NASA and H211, a Google subsidiary.

This agreement expired July 2009. My request includes, but is not limited to any documents and communications regarding extension or renewal of the agreement and current status of the agreement.

On the same page
http://www.nasa.gov/centers/ames/business/foia/H211_LLC.html is also a Space Act Agreement for Research and Development Collaboration, which has a relationship to the lease above, and also a "first amendment" to this Agreement. My request includes any documents and correspondence regarding the current status of this agreement, the subsequent annual Support Agreements and any subsequent amendments to the agreement. Re: Freedom of Information Act Request

Dear Ms. Joy Smith :

This is a request under the Freedom of Information Act. I request that a copy of the following documents be provided to me: Sales documents for land purchases made in Hancock County.

In order to help to determine my status for purposes of determining the applicability of any fees, you should know that I am an employee of Hancock County School District, and this request is made as part of data gathering to apply for a grant and not for a commercial use. I have attached the forms that we are required to complete. I will be working with the Hancock County Tax Assessor's Office to complete the application. I have contacted Kristy Thompson's office and she advised that she has the information but that I must complete this FOIA request in order to receive the information.

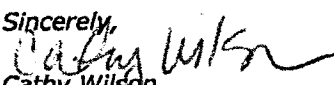

I request a waiver of all fees for this request. Disclosure of the requested information to me is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to the school district's ability to obtain a grant and is not primarily in my commercial interest

I request that the information I seek be provided in electronic format, and I would like to receive it on a personal computer disk or electronic file.

I ask that my request receive expedited processing because of grant deadlines in January.

I also included a telephone number at which I can be contacted during the hours of 7:30am - 4:00 pm, if necessary, to discuss any aspect of my request. Cell phone 228-332-0260.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Mr. Rick Rehberg
International Union of Operating Engineers
1125 17th Street NW
Washington, DC 20036

Dear Mr. Rehberg:

This correspondence is to acknowledge receipt of your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated November 3, 2010. You requested the following records: "All certified payrolls, including any attestation sheet or cover letters, submitted from January 1, 2008, to the present by the following company: Met-Con, Inc., Cocoa, FL (whether submitted for themselves or on behalf of any contractor or subcontractor); any other payrolls submitted by any contractor or subcontractor in relation to any Met-Con project."

I apologize for the delay in acknowledging your request due to a delay in receiving it. The KSC FOIA Office recently moved from the HQ Bldg. to the OSB 2, and as a result of this move our fax number also changed. Our new Fax number is: (321) 867-2692. Your request has been logged in and assigned to the Procurement Office to search for and reproduce any responsive records. Your request has also been assigned the NASA/KSC FOIA Tracking No. 2011-246 for any future correspondence.

Please be aware that per NASA FOIA regulations, once an Agency receives a proper FOIA request, it has 20 working days in which to make an initial determination regarding release on "complex" requests. However, please that the Electronic Freedom of Information Act amendments of 1996 (Pub. L. No. 104-231, 110 Stat. 3048) expressly authorized agencies to promulgate regulations providing for "multitrack processing" of their FOIA requests—which allows agencies to process requests on a first-in, first-out basis within each track, but also permits them to respond to relatively simple requests more quickly than requests involving complex record requests such as yours. It is the policy of NASA to process requests using multi-track processing, in the order in which they are received and according to their complexity.

Please note that FOIA processing fees will be assessed during the search and reviewing of your request, as well as duplication and legal review fees in accordance with our published agency FOIA regulations. If these fees are above the threshold of $200.00 that you have authorized, processing will stop and we will contact you with the updated fee estimate. Search time includes all time spent looking for responsive material, including page-by-page or line-by-line identification of material within documents. Fees are also charged for search time even if we fail to locate any records responsive to your request or if the records located are subsequently determined to be exempt from disclosure. Review costs consist of the direct costs incurred during the initial examination of documents for the purposes of determining whether it must be disclosed under the FOIA.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the status of your FOIA request, please contact me at (321) 867-9280 or by e-mail at: foia@ksc.nasa.gov; and reference FOIA #2011-00246.

Sincerely,

FOIA #201 -00246 (STATUS/FEE UPDATE)

PA-A

December 7, 2010

Mr. Rick Rehberg
International Union of Operating Engineers
1125 17th Street NW
Washington, DC 20036

Dear Mr. Rehberg:

This correspondence is to provide you with an update regarding your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, #2011-00246, dated November 3, 2010. You requested the following records: "All certified payrolls, including any attestation sheet or cover letters, submitted from January 1, 2008, to the present by the following company: Met-Con, Inc., Cocoa, FL (whether submitted for themselves or on behalf of any contractor or subcontractor); any other payrolls submitted by any contractor or subcontractor in relation to any Met-Con project."

Per our FOIA regulations, processing of your request has temporarily stopped because we have exceeded your fee agreement of $200.00. Therefore, please advise us if you would like us to continue processing your request in its entirety by providing us with an updated fee agreement in the estimate amount of $680.00. This estimate is calculated as follows:

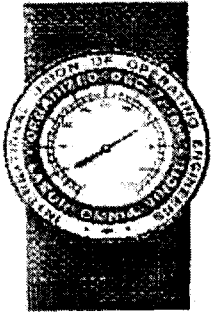

16 hours of search/review time at a rate of $30.00 per hour = $480.00; and 4 hours of legal review time at a rate of 45.00 per hour = $180.00; and $20.00 for reproduction fees. Again, this is only an estimate, therefore, you may wish to agree to a higher threshold to avoid any processing delays.

Once we receive written confirmation of your updated fee agreement, we will continue processing your request. Additionally, per our published FOIA regulations, since processing fees have now exceeded $250.00, we are required to collect a deposit from the requester in advance. However, we have waived that requirement in this instance. Please keep in mind that fee waivers are decided on a case by case basis, and is not a guarantee on any future requests.

If you have any questions about the foregoing, or if you would like to reduce the scope of your request, please advise us of this in writing. At this time, your request will be held in abeyance until December 16, 2010. Dear Ms. Myers:

Pursuant to the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, I am requesting copies of certified payrolls as filed with your agency under the U.S. prevailing wage law known as the Davis-Bacon Act.

Subject: FOIA request for Galileo atmospheric probe drawings

Date: Monday, November 15, 2010 3:19 AM

From: Joseph Parenti (b) (6)

To: <FOIA@ARC.NASA.GOV>

11-ARC-F-0038

To whom it may concern:

I would like to request any documentation available as to the dimensions of the Galileo spacecraft atmospheric probe. Measurements of the Galileo orbiter spacecraft have already been made available in the past by JPL. In these drawings, the atmospheric probe and its accompanying heat shield are not depicted in any detail that is representative of the probe's complexity. The freely available photographs available in low resolution on the mission's webpages do not include detail relating to the spacecraft's size or actual measurements. Specifically, the type of documentation I am looking for would be three-view drawings that depict the scale of the probe, with or without measurements included. These drawings have often been released by NASA centers in the form of a blueprint-type file showing various angles of the final assembly of the spacecraft. This would be ideal, although any drawings would be useful.

I am a builder of scale model spacecraft and would like this information in order to design a freely available downloadable paper model of the atmospheric probe. I do not require any specific details of the probe's inner workings such as circuit diagrams or proprietary information related to the construction of the probe. The dimensions of the probe's major components in order to build an accurate replica of its appearance will be sufficient for my purposes.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Joseph M. Parenti III

Dear Ms. Cleghorn,

This is a request pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552, as amended) for copies of the documents more fully described below:

- All technical reports, documents and records by the NASA Engineering and Safety Center (NESC) regarding the Phoenix Mars mission.
- All e-mails, correspondence and minutes between the NESC independent review team (including but not limited to core team members, project consultants, administrative support personnel) and Phoenix Mars engineers/scientists regarding the Phoenix Mars mission between 2000 and present.
- All e-mails, correspondence and minutes between the NESC review board and Phoenix Mars engineers/scientists regarding the Phoenix Mars mission between 2000 and present.

In order to help to determine my status to assess fees, please note that I am a representative of the news media affiliated with The Associated Press, the global news wire service, and this request is made as part of newsgathering and not for a commercial use.

I am willing to pay fees for this request up to a maximum of $250. If you estimate that the fees will exceed this limit, please inform me first. In addition, please note that if it would expedite this request, I am happy to receive the above documents as they become available instead of once all are ready for release.

Thank you for your consideration of this request. I included a telephone number at which I can be contacted if necessary to discuss any aspect of my request. I look forward to your reply within 20 business days, as the statute requires.

Alicia,

I put a call out to the NESC for documents responsive to your request. I received approximately 500 documents from the NESC, some may be duplicates, but we will not know until they are reviewed. Based on past experience with FOIA requests of this volume and our current backlog, it will take us months to review 500 documents. In an effort to help both of us, is there anyway to narrow the scope of your request?

We have to index all of the documents and review each one separately. The normal procedure for a request this large is to review and release them in groups of 50 - 100 documents, as determined to be releasable.

Ms. Chang,

I received the request sent to my personal e-mail. I've notified my FOIA e-mail manager regarding possible problems with the foia@larc.nasa.gov address.

We will log in and begin processing your request, however, due to the large backlog of requests at NASA LaRC, it will take longer than the allotted 20 business days. Also, without putting out a call for records from the NESC I cannot be certain, however, your request may return a voluminous amount of information, which would also cause your request to take longer than the allotted 20 business days. In order to get the documents to you as quickly as possible, we will release the documents as they are available for release and not hold them until all have been reviewed.

Sincerely,

Cheryl

Dear Ms. Smith:

Thank you for your e-mail of August 3, 2010 concerning the FOIA request I sent earlier.

I would like to limit the time frame involved so that the request is for documents beginning February 9, 2009 thru July 2009. The subcontractor concerning which we seek information is Coatings Unlimited who performed painting and caulking on the A-3 stand during some of all of this time frame.

Directing your attention to your e-mail the request in Para. #1 should be modified to seek only the daily reports if any during this time frame. I anticipate that Jacobs has daily reports and perhaps our client IKBI.

Directing your attention to para. #2 in your e-mail, that request should be modified to seek only those documents concerning the painting aspect of the work.

Directing your attention to para. #3, that request should be modified to seek only those document concerning the painting aspect of the work.

Directing your attention to para. #4, that request should be modified to seek only those Pay applications and the evaluations of same concerning the applicable time frame.

Directing your attention to para. #5, that request should be modified to seek only those schedules in effect and any changes in them which occurred during the applicable time frame.

Directing your attention to para. #6, that request should be modified by eliminating it entirely.

I sincerely hope that with this attempt to tighten the request, that you will be able to provide us access to the documents quickly. I recognize that the request #5 may be particularly difficult to locate and/or evaluate. Please do not delay producing the others while you make an examination of everything attempting to locate the schedules involved.

As you can see, my desire is to examine the records during this time frame limiting them if possible to those dealing with IKBI's painting sub, Coatings Unlimited. It may be easier for you to simply produce the documents for the applicable time frame in toto and leave the sifting to us. We'll be happy to do that.

Please give me a call if there are any questions. I look forward to examining these records and thank you for your cooperation.

Dear Ms. Garcia,

Pursuant to the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, I request access to and copies of all records -- including, but not limited to, contracts and other agreements -- related in any way to Airship Ventures and also Life Flight Aircraft use of Ames facilities. I also request the same for H211LLC, if this information is not covered by any previous FOIAs by me.

Please justify each deletion separately by reference to specific exemptions of the Act, and release all reasonably segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. I, of course, reserve the right to appeal any decisions.

Include all materials generated up to the date of the final response, and do not limit the request to only material generated prior to the date of the request.

Include information contained in the material that otherwise would be considered non-responsive to the specific request. Please exercise your discretion if the information can be considered technically exempt. Send me documentation of any similar requests.

I will only modify this request in writing, not via telephone.

Directions to an internet website will not be accepted as a response to this request.

Notify me prior to incurring more than $150 of expenses. The information I seek is intended for publication that, as the fee waiver requires, is "likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government." Several multi-part projects I have written about government operations were published by numerous newspapers across the country. Those same projects resulted in network news magazine shows on ABC, NBC, CBS and cable networks; Congressional hearings; federal legislation; policy changes; and numerous national awards--including three presented personally by Presidents Clinton, Ford and George W. Bush. I ask that you waive all fees.

I look forward to your reply within 20 business days, as the statute requires.

Thanks for your assistance.

SUBJECT: Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request No. 11-GSFC-F-00234
Contract NAS5-01080 Initial Determination to Release in Part and Withhold in Part

Dear Ms. Penland:

This responds to your request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, dated November 3, 2010, and amended on December 10, 2010, which sought (a) the last 30 days of Task Orders and (b) Modifications 251-298 for Contract NAS5-01080, as well as (c) the RFP.

I have made an initial determination that cost and fee information from the Tasks (in parentheses) and the Modifications (from clauses B.7 (rate and fee structure) and B.9) are exempt from release under the FOIA pursuant to Exemption Four, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), as trade secrets or commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential. Cube Corporation (Cube) has objected to the release of this information. Other information from these documents is releasable and provided as an enclosure.

Exemption Four of the FOIA is designed to protect the interests of both the Government and the submitter of the information. Information is exempt from release under the Exemption if release is likely (1) to impair the Government's ability to obtain such necessary information in the future, or (2) cause significant harm to the competitive position of the submitter. National Parks and Conservation Ass'n v. Morton, 498 F.2d 765 (D.C. Cir. 1974).

In order for the Government to properly and effectively conduct procurements to fill requirements, it is necessary to obtain from offerors detailed business, financial, and commercial data. Only through evaluation of complete and accurate data of this type can the Government hope to complete an agreement that best meets its requirements, from both a technical and cost standpoint. It is mandatory that the Federal procurement process be handled in a manner that fosters and promotes the uninhibited transmission of such detailed business information as cost and fee.

It is reasonable to conclude that disclosure of such information could dissuade not only Cube but also other companies from participating in future competitive procurements. Thus the ability of the Government to obtain necessary information in the future would be impaired, and the mandate to obtain maximum competition would be frustrated. Public disclosure of this information would, in this respect, undermine the integrity of the Federal procurement process.

In addition to protecting the Government's interest in obtaining detailed business, financial, and commercial information from contractors, Exemption Four serves to protect the competitive position of Government contractors. Release of cost and fee breakdowns in this context would likely cause significant harm to the competitive position of Cube by allowing competitors to undercut its costs and fee and to compile a very accurate assessment of the company's approach to a similar follow-on requirement, now being competed. With such information, competitors could be strongly aided in defeating Cube in future procurements, thus causing the company to lose business. Public disclosure of this information would undermine the integrity of the Federal procurement process in this respect as well.

Here the Government is contracting for specific work for a total amount. Total amounts for such work are released in the Tasks and the Modifications, such that the public can understand what the Government is buying with appropriated funds. The actual profit proposed and obtained is the basis upon which companies compete in this context and is not likely to provide the public with any additional legitimate explanatory information. Hence cost and fee information is exempt from release in this context. National Parks and Conservation Ass'n v. Morton, 498 F2d 765 (D.C. Cir. 1974).

You may appeal this initial determination to the NASA Administrator. Your appeal must (1) be addressed to the Administrator, National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Washington, DC 20546, (2) be clearly identified on the envelope and in the letter as an "Appeal under the Freedom of Information Act," (3) include a copy of the request for the agency record and a copy of this initial adverse determination, (4) to the extent possible, state the reasons why you believe this initial determination should be reversed, and (5) be sent to the Administrator within thirty (30) calendar days of the receipt of this initial determination.

If we may be of further assistance, please contact Ms. Jacque Lofton at 301-286-3375.

Hi Stacy:

We have provided the following items per your request: The Complete Contract, modifications 1-250, all award fee letters, source selection statement/business clearance memorandum (which includes the List of firms submitting proposals). However, the submitted proposal/winning proposal is not releasable under exemption 3.

There are over 1638 task orders (about 12,500 pages), I would like to know if you would be willing to accept the last 30 days of task orders?

The RFP is about 1500 pages plus labor time, would you still like to have this?

Modifications 251-298 are the mods that you have not received, they are all basically funding modifications, do you still want them?

However, the submitted proposals/winning proposal is not releasable under exemption 3.

The estimated cost to provide these items (task orders, the remaining mods 251-298, and the RFP) is about $1800.00 to $2000.00. I noted that you are only willing to pay $150.00 processing charges. Therefore, would you like to amend your request or how would you like to proceed?

Hi Joan! I was directed to you by Jacque who has been working my request. As you can see below, Jacque asked me last week if we would be willing to accept previously released documents to which my reply was yes! Today Jacque emailed me the link to the reading room with the previously released documents. I noticed that the last mod, # 242 is dated November 2008 and asked her if she could you please tell me if that is the last mod that was issued for this contract. She said that there were more mods that had been issued. I told her that I still need the documents that I requested that have not been previously released. She told me that I would need to submit a new request. As you know from working with both Jason and me over the years, we are always more than willing to accept previously released documents in order to save your office time and work and in order to save us time and money! However, when we agree to accepting this, we are in no way amending our request to exclude the remaining documents that have not been previously released. I am sure that this is just a simple misunderstanding! No problem! However, as per our original request, we do need the requested documents.

Thanks tons!

SUBJECT: Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request No. 11-GSFC-F-00234, Contract NAS5-01080 Initial Determination to Release Information in Part and Withhold in Part

Dear Ms. Penland:

This responds to your request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, dated November 3, 2010, for the following documents regarding contract NAS5-01080 awarded to VT Griffin known as the Wallops Institutional Consolidated Contract (WICC):

- Complete contract (includes cover page, pricing, SOW, attachments, etc.)
- All modifications
- Delivery/Task Orders
- RFP
- Award Fee Letters
- Business Clearance Memorandum
- Source Selection Statement
- Submitted Proposals
- List of firms submitting proposals or the Abstract of Offerors

On November 10, 2010, you amended your request to receive previously released documents such as the complete contract and its attachments, modifications 1-250, award fee letters (Periods 1-9) and the source selection statement.

It is NASA's determination to release the basic contract with all attachments and modification with the exception of Attachment J-6 to the contract, which includes the IDIQ Pricing Schedule of Labor Rates for each proposed labor category, and Clauses B.6

and B.7, which contain VT Griffin's proposed rate and fee structure, and except for the portions of contract modifications that describe changes to Clauses B.6 and B.7. The rest of the documents requested, including award fee letters, will be provided.

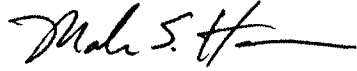

Generally, it is NASA's position that documents concerning the Government's arrangements with its contractors consist of public information that must be released when requested under the FOIA. NASA has also determined that portions of the basic contract are exempt from disclosure under Exemption 4 of the FOIA, and therefore, that information will be redacted. Under Exemption 4, the Government may withhold "trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person [that is] privileged or confidential." 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4). The exemption is designed to protect the interests of both the Government and the submitter of the information. Information is considered to be "confidential" within the meaning of this exemption if release of the information is likely either (1) to impair the Government's ability to obtain such necessary information in the future, or (2) to cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the submitter. National Parks and Conservation Assn. v. Morton, 498 F.2d 765 (D.C. Cir. 1974).

Portions of the contract and the modifications contain information pertaining to hourly labor rates per labor category to include overhead and general and administrative (G&A). The hourly rates (in Attachment J-6) are used by the contractor to price a proposal in response to an order issued by NASA for specified services. The Government is not purchasing individual labor hours per labor category. The labor rates are preliminary prices upon which the total price of the order is based. These labor rates have remained unchanged throughout the entire term of the contract. Release of the rates would enable potential competitors to gain insight into the contractor's pricing of orders under the contract. Competitors would then be better able to under-price the submitter's rates for comparable labor categories in future competitions and thereby underbid the contractor causing it substantial competitive harm. For these reasons, the portions of the contract and the modifications addressing these types of information will not be released. Also, Clauses B.6 and B.7, and modifications of those clauses, contain VT Griffin's proposed rate and fee structure, which, for very similar reasons, will not be disclosed.

You may appeal this initial determination to the NASA Administrator. Your appeal must: (1) Be addressed to: Administrator, National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Mail Stop: FOIA, Room 9R17, 300 E Street, SW, Washington, DC 20546; (2) Be identified clearly on the envelope and in the letter as an "Appeal under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)"; (3) Include a copy of the request for the agency record, and a copy of the contested initial determination; (4) State, to the extent possible, the reasons why you believe the initial determination should be reversed; and (5) Be sent to the Administrator within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the receipt of this initial determination.

If we may be of further assistance, please contact Ms. Jacque Lofton at 301-286-3375.

Sincerely,

Hello! So sorry this has taken me so long to give you an answer! All of the "powers that be" had to come together to decide what to do! We would like to get the RFP (which should just need to be scanned since it does not have to be reviewed), the last 30 days of Task Orders (as per your suggestion) and Mods 251 -298. Please let me know when we can expect to received these documents!

Thanks so much!

Have a super day!

Hi Stacy:

We have provided the following items per your request: The Complete Contract, modifications 1-250, all award fee letters, source selection statement/business clearance memorandum (which includes the List of firms submitting proposals). However, the submitted proposal/winning proposal is not releasable under exemption 3.

There are over 1638 task orders (about 12,500 pages), I would like to know if you would be willing to accept the last 30 days of task orders?

The RFP is about 1500 pages plus labor time, would you still like to have this?

Modifications 251-298 are the mods that you have not received, they are all basically funding modifications, do you still want them?

We have provided the following items per your request: The Complete Contract, modifications 1-250, all award fee letters, source selection statement/business clearance memorandum (which includes the List of firms submitting proposals). However, the submitted proposals/winning proposal is not releasable under exemption 3.

The estimated cost to provide these items (task orders, the remaining mods 251-298, and the RFP) is about $1800.00 to $2000.00. I noted that you are only willing to pay $150.00 processing charges. Therefore, would you like to amend your request or how would you like to proceed?

Thanks!

Hi Joan! I was directed to you by Jacque who has been working my request. As you can see below, Jacque asked me last week if we would be willing to accept previously released documents to which my reply was yes! Today Jacque emailed me the link to the reading room with the previously released documents. I noticed that the last mod, # 242 is dated November 2008 and asked her if she could you please tell me if that is the last mod that was issued for this contract. She said that there were more mods that had been issued. I told her that I still need the documents that I requested that have not been previously released. She told me that I would need to submit a new request. As you know from working with both Jason and me over the years, we are always more than willing to accept previously released documents in order to save your office time and work and in order to save us time and money! However, when we agree to accepting this, we are in no way amending our request to exclude the remaining documents that have not been previously released. I am sure that this is just a simple misunderstanding! No problem! However, as per our original request, we do need the requested documents.

Thanks tons!

FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Leslie Kean,
Plaintiff,

National Aeronautics and

Case No. 03-2509 (EGS)

STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT IN PART

In this case brought pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, the parties have stipulated to the following process for resolution of the dispute, subject to approval by the Court:

1. National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) will designate Judi A. Hollingsworth (FOIA Officer, Marshall Space Flight Center) to manage and oversee compliance with the settlement agreement. Ms. Hollingsworth shall also serve as the liaison and contact person for Leslie Kean (Ms. Kean).
2. Within 45 days of the Court's entry of this stipulation, NASA will conduct a preliminary review of its stored file database for all documents submitted to storage by its Office of Administrator, the Office of International Affairs (and its successors) and the Office of Manned Space Flight (and its successors). This search will be directed at identifying the universe of documents dated 1962 to 1967 submitted to storage by these entities (or their successors). This search will involve a review of the Standard Form 135s for documents submitted to storage through at least 1977.
3. Within the period set out in paragraph 2, NASA will provide to Ms. Kean copies of all of the Standard Form 135s identified, designating by highlighting those files that NASA intends to retrieve and review under the provisions of paragraph 4. Within 30 days of receipt of the information required to be produced under this paragraph, Ms. Kean will notify NASA of any files she believes were omitted from its designations under this paragraph and paragraph 4. If NASA objects to any file designated by Ms. Kean under this paragraph because such file falls outside the categories set out under paragraph 4, Ms. Kean may proceed to designate the file under paragraph 5.

4. NASA agrees that the following categories of files will be retrieved from the relevant federal record center: (a) all files with a geographic designation (e.g., Ecuador, London); (b) all files with a launch, project or mission designation, U.S. or otherwise (e.g., Sputnik, Apollo, Blue Book, Moondust); (c) all files designated by an official's name or title (e.g., diaries of Abernathy, files of the Administrator); (d) all files referencing a U.S. military or State Department entity or otherwise indicating liaison activities between NASA and a military and/or State Department entity (e.g., DoD, Air Force, Fort Henry); (e) all files referencing as contents manuals, instructions, MOUs, and rules; (f) all files referencing orbital debris activities; (g) all files with file designations containing the terms fragments, debris, space junk, objects, satellites, rockets, launches, missiles, launchers, space vehicles, tests, experiment, tracking, samples, landings, crashes, meteor, meteorite and military; (h) all files that suggest that the files contain manuals or instructions relating to NASA's practices in dealing with media or other public inquiries or that suggest that the files contain documents relating to NASA's public relations efforts or contacts with the media, and (i) all files with designations substantially equivalent to categories 4(a) through 4(h), such as, for example, files labeled "press releases" [4(h)], files labeled "retrieval operations" [4(f) and 4(g)] or files labeled "liaison with local governments” [4(a)].

5. For purposes of retrieval of files falling within the categories set forth in paragraph 4, NASA’s obligation to retrieve files does not include those where the file designation, on its face, indicates that it would not contain any document(s) relating or referring to the launch, re-entry, recovery, retrieval, investigation, or analysis of space vehicles or other objects or debris. [For example, a file labeled “Apollo – Congratulatory Photos” or a file labeled “Office of the Administrator – fiscal year 1963 budget” would fall within the preceding condition and thus NASA would not be obligated to retrieve or review that file].

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a file designation does not provide sufficient information to determine the file’s contents or is otherwise ambiguous regarding the subject matter(s) of the documents within the file, NASA shall retrieve the file for review under the process set out in paragraph 8. [For example, NASA would be required to retrieve and review the contents of a file labeled “Press releases--1964” or a file labeled “Administrator’s correspondence--1966”].

6. In addition to the file categories covered under paragraph 4 above, within 30 days of receipt of the Standard Form 135s, Ms. Kean may designate for retrieval and review additional files from the Standard Form 135s referenced in paragraph 3 and the boxes referenced in paragraph 7, which were retrieved from the record center in connection with this case. Under this paragraph, Ms. Kean may designate up to 75 additional files not otherwise designated for retrieval under the preceding paragraphs. Files designated by Ms. Kean under this paragraph will be retrieved from the relevant federal record center and reviewed for purposes of disclosing documents responsive to Ms. Kean's FOIA request (see paragraph 8) and/or for determining whether to assert an exemption from disclosure under FOIA (see paragraphs 11 and 12).

7. NASA's search will include all of the files in the record boxes previously retrieved from a federal record center in connection with this case. NASA's search will also include a search of the Office of Manned Space Files, space debris files and "UFO" files in its Headquarters' History Office.

8. Within 60 days of completing the review referenced in paragraph 2, NASA will retrieve all files designated under paragraphs 4, 5, 6, and 7 and conduct a search, by hand, for documents responsive to Ms. Kean's FOIA request. If Ms. Kean exercises her rights under paragraph 6, this period will be extended by 30 days. Within these same time periods and subject to paragraphs 11 and 12, NASA will turn over to Ms. Kean all information responsive to her FOIA request concerning which NASA will not assert a FOIA exemption. Responsive information includes, but is not limited to, information that: (a) relates to, explains, describes, mentions, references or discusses, in whole or in part, the discovery, retrieval, investigation, or analysis of any object or debris, which fell, landed or crashed in or during the years 1962, 1963, 1964, 1965, 1966, and 1967; and/or (b) relates, explains, describes, mentions, references or discusses the policies or procedures for the discovery, retrieval, investigation, and analysis of any such objects or debris, which were operational in or during the years 1962, 1963, 1964, 1965, 1966, and 1967. Documents which may contain such responsive information include, but are not limited to, those that address inter-agency or inter-departmental activity, foreign relations, contacts with state or local governments or with members of the public, and public or media relations or contacts. NASA acknowledges that the documents to be retrieved and reviewed under this agreement include, but are not to be limited to, retrieval and review of documents that relate to, explain, describe, mention, name, reference or discuss Kecksburg, Pennsylvania; Acme, Pennsylvania; December 9 or 10, 1965; Cosmos 96; "fragology"; "unidentified flying objects" ("UFOs"); and Richard M. Schulherr. Routine, uneventful U.S.

government launches and landings are not encompassed by this paragraph.

9. Within 60 days of Ms. Kean's receipt of responsive documents, NASA and Ms. Kean will jointly confer on whether the search efforts revealed information that suggests that additional responsive documents may be retrievable through a search of additional files, additional accessions, other NASA offices or installations, other data systems or through use of different search terms or categories. The determination by NASA to conduct a further search will be based solely upon the documents revealed during the search and any outside historical, technical or archival information known to NASA or Ms. Kean. NASA shall continue the search if the documents referenced above suggest:

- (a) that another NASA office or installation was involved in the retrieval, investigation or analysis of any object or debris that fell, landed or crashed in or during the years 1962, 1963, 1964, 1965, 1966 or 1967;
- (b) that during the period 1962 through 1967 NASA used terminology or referencing methods, not employed in NASA's search efforts under the preceding paragraphs, for purposes of maintaining information on the retrieval, investigation or analysis of any object or debris that fell, landed or crashed in or during the years 1962, 1963, 1964, 1965 or 1967; or
- (c) that files of the Office of Administrator, Office of Manned Space Flight or Office of International Affairs had been retrieved from storage by a NASA official or employee and were either (i) not returned to a federal record center, or (ii) reorganized for purposes of storage.

NASA will confer with Ms. Kean in the design and implementation of any such additional search.

10. All documents disclosed to Ms. Kean will be segregated in a manner that clearly indicates the file from which they were retrieved and, where relevant, the associated SF 135. The documents in each file will be numbered consecutively by NASA (e.g., Bates stamping or other means).

11. With respect to any information located responsive to Ms. Kean's FOIA request, NASA may assert that entire documents or segregable portions of documents are exempt from disclosure under FOIA. Consistent with the FOIA, NASA shall not exempt an entire document when segregation of exempt material is reasonable. For each exemption asserted, NASA will provide to Ms. Kean, within 30 days after NASA completes the actions under paragraph 8, a citation to the asserted exemption and description of the category or types of information withheld under the exemption asserted (e.g., social security number). Ms. Kean reserves the right to challenge in this case any exemption asserted NASA. Prior to filing in court, NASA and Ms. Kean will meet and confer to attempt resolution of any dispute over an exemption.

12. If any file contains information the release of which requires the approval of another federal agency, within ten days of the completion of its search under paragraph 8, NASA will refer the information to the relevant agency and will request expedited review. NASA will also request that any other federal agency, should it assert a FOIA exemption, provide a citation to the exemption and a description of the category or type of information withheld from disclosure. If the federal agency does not respond to NASA within 90 days, NASA will contact that federal agency and notify Ms. Kean of the delay and the reasons therefor. Ms. Kean reserves the right to challenge in this case any exemption asserted by another federal agency with respect to information referred to it by NASA under this paragraph.

13. Within 90 days after the processes set forth in paragraphs 8, 11, or 12, whichever is later, Ms. Kean will notify NASA whether she will challenge any exemptions asserted by NASA or any other federal agency with respect to the information at issue in this case. If no challenge to an exemption asserted will be made, NASA and Ms. Kean shall file a joint motion to dismiss this case within ten days of Ms. Kean notifying NASA that no challenge to an exemption asserted will be made. The parties agree that the only challenge that may be raised to the search to be performed by NASA will be a claim that NASA failed to comply with the terms of this Stipulation.

14. Upon the giving of 5 days notice prior to the expiration of any time period established in one of the preceding paragraphs, either NASA or Ms. Kean may extend the time period set under that paragraph for up to 30 days. No time period set under any paragraph may be extended more than once without the written consent of the other party.

15. The United States of America, on behalf of NASA, agrees to pay Ms. Kean the total sum of $50,000.00 in attorneys' fees and litigation costs in full satisfaction of any such fees and costs incurred to date. After approval of this Stipulation by the Court, counsel for NASA shall make a request within ten (10) days to the Judgment Fund of the U.S. Department of the Treasury for payment to Ms. Kean, through counsel, of the amount set forth in this paragraph. Executed this 11th day of October, 2007.

Dear Mr. McConnell:

We received a request from Ms. Michelle Breidenbach for nine A-133 audits. While the U.S. Census Bureau is the clearinghouse for these audit reports, they are the primary concern of the "cognizant/oversight" government agencies assigned by the Office of Management and Budget. In this case, National Aeronautics and Space Administration is the cognizant/oversight agency for one of these reports.

Ms. Breidenbach has been notified that the requested audit reports were forwarded to you requesting that you respond directly to her. A copy of the FOIA request and our reply to Ms. Breidenbach is enclosed.

If you have any questions, please contact Ms. Jeannette Greene-Bess of my staff on (301) 763-6481.

Dear Ms. Breidenbach:

This responds to your email to the Census Bureau requesting nine audit reports. We received your request in this office on March 30, 2009, and are processing it under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

The Census Bureau is the clearinghouse for all A-133 audit reports. However, for purposes of the FOIA, these reports are the primary concern of the "cognizant/oversight" government agency assigned by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). Our Government's Division's Federal Programs Branch, which is responsible for the OMB Circular A-133 audit reports maintained by the Census Bureau's Federal Audit Clearinghouse in Jeffersonville, Indiana, completed its search and located the nonprofit audit reports you requested.

We are forwarding the reports along with a copy of your request and this letter to the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, Department of Defense, Department of Education, Department of Energy and the National Aeronautic and Space Administration the oversight authority over the requested A-133 reports. They will respond directly to you. For your information, enclosed is a copy of our referral letter to the above referenced agencies.

LEAGUE,

Plaintiff,

v.

NATIONAL AERONAUTICS AND SPACE ADMINISTRATION,

Defendant.

No. C 10-1836 SI

STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
ORDER RE SETTLEMENT AND DISMISSAL

Plaintiff AMERICAN SMALL BUSINESS LEAGUE ("Plaintiff") and Defendant
NATIONAL AERONAUTICS AND SPACE ADMINISTRATION ("Defendant"), by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby enter into this Stipulation and [Proposed] Order Re

STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED] ORDER RE SETTLEMENT AND DISMISSAL
C 10-1836 SI

1 Settlement and Dismissal ("Stipulation") as follows:

2 1. Defendant shall pay to Plaintiff the amount of one thousand six hundred U.S.
3 dollars and zero cents ($1,600.00) in full and complete satisfaction of Plaintiff's claims for 4 attorneys' fees, costs, and litigation expenses under the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") in 5 the above-captioned matter. This payment shall constitute full and final satisfaction of any and
6 all of Plaintiff's claims for attorneys' fees, costs, and litigation expenses in the above-captioned
7 matter, and is inclusive of any interest. Payment of this money will be made by electronic funds
8 transfer, and Plaintiff's counsel will provide the necessary information to Defendant's counsel to 9 effectuate the transfer. Defendant will make all reasonable efforts to make payment within thirty 10 (30) days of the date that Plaintiff's counsel provides the necessary information for the electronic 11 funds transfer and this Stipulation is approved by the Court.

12 2. Upon the execution of this Stipulation, Plaintiff hereby releases and forever
13 discharges Defendant, and its successors, the United States of America, and any department, 14 agency, or establishment of the United States, and any officers, employees, agents, successors, or 15 assigns of such department, agency, or establishment, from any and all claims and causes of 16 action that Plaintiff asserts or could have asserted in this litigation, or which hereinafter could be
17 asserted by reason of, or with respect to, or in connection with, or which arise out of, the FOIA
18 request on which this action is based or any other matter alleged in the Complaint, including but 19 not limited to all past, present, or future claims for attorneys' fees, costs, or litigation expenses in 20 connection with the above-captioned litigation.

21 3. The provisions of California Civil Code Section 1542 are set forth below:

22 "A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or 23 suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him must have materially affected his settlement with the debtor."

24 Plaintiff, having been apprised of the statutory language of Civil Code Section 1542 by its 25 attorneys, and fully understanding the same, nevertheless elects to waive the benefits of any and 26 all rights it may have pursuant to the provision of that statute and any similar provision of federal 27 law. Plaintiff understands that, if the facts concerning any injuries, liability for damages
28 pertaining thereto, or liability for attorneys' fees, costs or litigation expenses are found

1 hereinafter to be other than or different from the facts now believed by it to be true, the
2 Agreement shall be and remain effective notwithstanding such material difference.

3 4. Execution of this Stipulation and its approval by the Court shall constitute 4 dismissal of this case with prejudice pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a).

5 5. The parties acknowledge that this Stipulation is entered into solely for the purpose
6 of settling and compromising any remaining claims in this action without further litigation, and it
7 shall not be construed as evidence or as an admission on the part of Defendant, the United States,
8 its agents, servants, or employees regarding any issue of law or fact, or regarding the truth or 9 validity of any allegation or claim raised in this action, or as evidence or as an admission by the 10 Defendant regarding Plaintiff's entitlement to attorneys' fees or other litigation costs under 11 FOIA. This Stipulation shall not be used in any manner to establish liability for fees, amounts, or 12 hourly rates in any other case or proceeding involving Defendant.

13 6. This Stipulation is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the parties hereto and 14 their respective successors and assigns.

15 7. If any provision of this Stipulation shall be held invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, 16 the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be 17 affected or impaired thereby.

18 8. This Stipulation shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties, and it is 19 expressly understood and agreed that this Stipulation has been freely and voluntarily entered into 20 by the parties hereto. The parties further acknowledge that no warranties or representations have 21 been made on any subject other than as set forth in this Stipulation.

22 9. The persons signing this Stipulation warrant and represent that they possess full 23 authority to bind the persons on whose behalf they are signing to the terms of the Stipulation.

24 10. This Stipulation may not be altered, modified or otherwise changed in any respect
25 except in writing, duly executed by all of the parties or their authorized representatives.

Mr. Joe Goldberg:

Thank you for your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated March 17, 2009 and received in our office March 26, 2009. We are currently processing our FOIA backlog, and your request has come to the front of our queue. Your request was for:

1. A list, containing position titles (not individual names) and position locations of civilian employees employed by the Agency who the Agency has designated as "exempt" from the Fair Labor Standards Act (hereinafter "FLSA").
2. The list, as designated in #1, above, is limited to those Agency employees who are (or at any time during the period designated by #3, below) members of a collective bargaining unit (hereinafter "CBU") of the American Federal of Government Employees (hereinafter "AFGE") recognized as the exclusive representative for any group of employees of the Agency (hereinafter referred to as "Designated Positions")^[sic]
3. The information, as designated in #1 and #2, above, is limited to the time period of March 16, 2006, through the date of the production by the Agency to the Requestor of the information sought by this request (hereinafter referred to as the "Production Date") for the Designated Positions during any period of time from March 16, 2006, through the Production Date.
4. The Requestor further requests a copy of the Position Description (hereinafter referred to as the "PD") as well as any predecessor PD's (going back to March 16, 1999) of any Designated Position referred to in #1-3, above. This request is limited to the dates March 16, 2006, through the Production Date (except as to the predecessor PDs).
5. The Requestor further requests a copy of the Agency's employee evaluation plan (including critical performance elements) for each Designated Position as well as any predecessor evaluation plan (with critical performance elements) of any Designated Employees referred to in #1-3, above. This request is limited to the dates March 16, 2006, through the Production Date (with the exception of the predecessor employee evaluation plans which shall be provided from March 16, 1999, through the Production Date).

6. The information, as designated in #105, above, may be furnished in either hard (paper copy) or in a digital format readable by either Microsoft Excel or Microsoft Work. A key shall be provided by the Agency to allow the information received to be interpreted unless the information, as provided, is clearly self-explanatory. The Agency shall certify that the information and documents provided in response to the Request [sic] are true and accurate copies of the information and/or documents they purport to be.

Additionally, you requested a fee waiver based on the assertion of a public interest. Requests for a waiver or a reduction of fees are considered on a case-by-case basis. Before we grant you a fee waiver, we must determine whether your request meets the twofold objectives for fee waivers established by the National Aeronautics Space Administration (NASA) and the Department of Justice; that is, whether disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it:

- (1) Is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the Government; and
- (2) Is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester

Before we make a decision on your request for a fee waiver we ask, in accordance with NASA regulations and the Department of Justice FOIA Guide and Overview, that you provide information in response to the following questions so that we can determine if granting the waiver or a reduction in fees is in the public interest. The Agency considers the following factors when determining if disclosure of information is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding (public interest) of the operations or activities of the Government:

1. Does the record specifically concern identifiable operations or activities of the Government?
2. If the record(s) concern the operations or activities of the Government, is disclosure likely to contribute to public understanding of those operations and activities? Are the disclosable contents of the record(s) meaningfully informative in relation to the subject of the request? For example, is this information of wide public interest and will your disclosure be unique in enhancing public knowledge.
3. Is the focus of the requester on contributing to public understanding, rather than on the individual understanding of the requester or a narrow segment of interested persons?
4. If there is likely to be a contribution to public understanding, will that contribution be significant? A contribution to public understanding will be significant if the information disclosed is new, clearly supports public oversight of Agency operations, including the quality of Agency activities and the effect of policy and regulations on public health and safety, or otherwise confirms or clarifies data on past or present operations of the Agency. The public's understanding of the subject matter in question, as compared to the level of public understanding existing prior to the disclosure, must be likely to be enhanced by the disclosure to a significant extent (see Sierra Club Legal Def. Fund. No. 93-35383, slip op. at 4, U.S. Department of Justice Guide to the Freedom of Information Act Guide, May 2009, page2 132-133). Your identity, vocation, qualification(s), and expertise regarding the requested information may be relevant factors.

Furthermore, you must demonstrate how you plan to disclose the information and you must disseminate the information to the general public or a reasonably broad audience. (Dissemination to a wide audience is not merely posting the documents on a website, but providing an informative analysis of the information.) Requesters who make no showing of how the information would be disseminated, other than through passively making it available to anyone who might seek access to it, do not meet the burden of demonstrating with particularity that the information will be communicated to the public (U.S. Department of Justice Guide to the Freedom of Information Act Guide, May 2009, page 131); also see FOIA Update, Vol. VIII, No. 1 at 8 ("OIP Guidance: New Fee Waiver Policy Guidance") (advising agencies that . . . requests should be analyzed to identify particular person or persons who actually will use requested information in scholarly or other analytic work and then disseminate it to general public.)

A past grant of a fee waiver does not entitle a FOIA requester to any future FOIA fee waiver. Each fee waiver request must be considered on its own merits. Therefore, you must be specific in addressing the twofold objective for fee waivers for each FOIA request you submit. Since you have asked for a variety of documents related to several subjects, please ensure you address each item in your request.

In accordance with 14 CFR § 1206.704 and Department of Justice guidance, we will not proceed further with your request until we receive additional clarification from you or a willingness to pay all associated fees. If we do not hear from you within 20 workdays of the date of this letter, we will assume you are no longer interested in this matter and close our file on your request. You may also choose to limit the scope of your request in order to reduce associated processing fees.

Please contact me at 202-358-0718 if you require further assistance.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Atlas,

Hello again. I just forwarded your e-mail inquiry below to our Chief Counsel's Office. My FOIA POC in that office already responded and said that she will talk to our Deputy Chief Counsel and let me know a timeline ASAP. As soon as I get an update from them, I will contact you immediately.

Would it possibly be helpful for you to speak to our Chief Counsel's office directly about your request? If so, I can ask the attorney working on this FOIA case or the Deputy Chief Counsel to contact you. However, I don't know if they can discuss anything with you until the legal review is complete as that would not be a standard protocol or FOIA processing procedure.

At this time, I'll plan to contact you before this Friday with any new updates from Legal. Again, I apologize for the long delay and I wish I could speed things up for you. Unfortunately, the records are complex in nature and have been difficult to process.

Best regards,

Dear Mr. Atlas,

Good afternoon. I just sent your inquiry below to our Chief Counsel's Office, to the attorney that has been reviewing the responsive records and also the Chief Counsel FOIA POC. I will let you know what they say just as soon as I hear back from them. Again, I sincerely apologize for the continued delay and I hope that we can assist you with a response soon.

Since NASA has exceeded the FOIA statutory timelines, I do need to inform you that you do have the right to appeal to the NASA Administrator if you are dissatisfied. If you need our NASA FOIA appeal instructions, I can forward that info to you. However, I hope that when the Chief Counsel's Office sees your new request below seeking a possible partial/incremental release, we may be able to accommodate it. Since it is getting late in the day today, I will contact you again on Monday with an updated status.

Additionally, please let me know whether NASA will consider releasing those portions of the documents that have already been reviewed and cleared, and the remainder upon completion of review. A partial production will at least provide us an opportunity to begin to review NASA's records. Our FOIA request was submitted in the summer of 2010, and to date, we have not received any documents.

Subject: Status of Legal Review of NASA/KSC FOIA Request No. 2010-1418?

Dear Mr. Atlas,

Good afternoon. In response to your voice mail inquiry today regarding NASA/KSC FOIA #2010-1418, your FOIA request is still in our KSC Chief Counsel's Office. I sent an e-mail request to my FOIA POC in the Legal Office this morning seeking the current status of your request—in fact just shortly before you called. At this time, I have not heard back from her.

When I spoke with the Chief Counsel's Office before the Christmas holidays, I was told that the legal review was almost complete. Therefore, I believe that I should have the legal opinion "in-hand" any day now. Since Monday, January 17 is a government holiday, I will contact you on Tuesday, Jan. 18, with another update.

Again, I sincerely apologize for the delay. However, I do know that it has been a lot of work for all of our folks processing this request and that they are working on it as diligently as possible. Thank you for your continued patience, it is appreciated very much!

Sincerely,

Penny L. Myers

Dear Mr. Atlas,

Good afternoon. In reply to your e-mail inquiry below, this e-mail is to provide you with the current status of your FOIA Request No. 2010-1418, seeking any and all contract/project records related to your client, Sauer Inc.'s, performance of the replacement of the high pressure nitrogen & helium pipelines located at the LC-39 Area of KSC under a subcontract with SGS.

The responsive records are currently in the KSC Chief Counsel's Office for a legal opinion regarding their release pursuant to the FOIA. I contacted my POC in that office today for an estimated completion date. I was informed that they are still reviewing the objections that we received from SGS, in which they have cited FOIA Exemptions to possibly prevent the release of some of these records. The current estimate for completion of the NASA Legal review is Friday, November 12. After the legal review is complete, and if NASA decides to disclose any commercial information over the objections of SGS, NASA is then required to forward SGS a written statement of our release determination, as well as the proposed release date (usually 10 calendar days from the date of the Intent Letter.)

Although your request is taking a lot of time to process, please know that we are working on it actively and as expeditiously as possible considering the complex nature of the records and the large volume of records that had to be reviewed. I will contact you with an updated completion date, once the Legal review is complete. I apologize the processing delay and truly appreciate your patience.

Sincerely,

Penny L. Myers

Subject: Status of NASA/KSC FOIA Request No. 2010-1418

Dear Mr. Atlas,

This e-mail is to provide you with the current status of your NASA/KSC FOIA request, #2010-1418. Your law firm requested records related to the replacement of the High Pressure Nitrogen & Helium Pipelines located at the LC-39 Area at KSC, under Contract No. NAS10-99001, Project No. 03-38.

To ensure proper protection of all submitted business information in its possession and in accordance with our published NASA FOIA regulations (14 CFR 1206.610), a Submitter's Notice was sent to SGS. This notice identified the commercial information requested and informed the submitter of the opportunity to object to its disclosure in accordance with paragraph (d) of the aforementioned Agency FOIA regulations. Since the submitter did not otherwise have access to all of the document that contained responsive information, and upon the request of the submitter, NASA provided copies of the records and/or portions thereof containing the commercial information after our search was completed. We received SGS's response to our Submitter's Notice today (which was their suspense date). The Contracting Officer is already reviewing their input, and it is expected to be in Legal Review sometime tomorrow. I estimate that the legal review will take a minimum of 10 business days. However, I will ask our Chief Counsel's Office to expedite this review if at all possible.

NASA must carefully consider any objections of the submitter in the course of determining whether to disclose commercial information. If NASA decides to disclose commercial information over the objection of a submitter, NASA is then required per our published FOIA regulations to forward SGS with a written statement which shall include the following:

- (1) A brief explanation as to why the Agency did not agree with any objection(s);
- (2) A description of the commercial information to be disclosed, sufficient to identify the information to the submitter; and
- (3) A date after which disclosure is expected. Such notice of intent to disclose shall be forwarded to the submitter in a reasonable number of working days prior to the expected disclosure date.

If an Intent Letter is sent to SGS, I will notify you immediately and also provide you with the pending release date. I trust this status update will be of assistance to you. Thank you again for your patience regarding your FOIA request.

Pursuant to the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, I request access to and copies of all databases containing information related in any way to travel by NASA employees and/or financed by the NASA. This would include, but not be limited to, travel paid for by other entities, public or private.

This request is for entire databases, all tables, all fields, all records, all years. Include all records generated up to the day of the final response, and do not limit the request to only records generated until the date of the request.

I also request that you include a record layout (data dictionary) describing all database fields, including withheld fields, and any training/instructional material associated with this database. I need raw computer data in an electronic form with field delimiters, not a text dump, printout or directions to a website. Also, please include definitions for any codes.

I can accept this computer data in a variety of formats (Access, Excel, FoxPro and Paradox and many others), and I ask that you contact me first if you have any technical questions so we can work those out beforehand.

Please justify each deletion (including individual computer fields) separately by reference to specific exemptions of the Act, and release all reasonably segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. I, of course, reserve the right to appeal any decisions.

I will only modify this request in writing -- not via telephone.

Include information contained in the material that otherwise would be considered non-responsive to the specific request. In other words, this request includes the entire database containing this information, not just a portion of it.

Send me documentation of any similar requests.

Notify me prior to incurring more than $150 of expenses. The information is intended for publication that, as the fee waiver requires, is "likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government." A number of projects about government operations written by me were published by numerous newspapers across the United States and in other countries. Those projects resulted in network news magazine shows on ABC, NBC, CBS and cable networks; Congressional hearings; federal legislation; policy changes; and numerous national awards, including three presented personally by U.S. Presidents Ford, Clinton and George W. Bush. I ask that you waive all fees.

This information is of timely value, so please communicate questions by telephone rather than by mail. I look forward to your reply within 20 business days, as the statute requires.

Thanks for your assistance.

Mr. Carollo:

This correspondence is in regards to your Freedom of Information Act request (denominated for our records as FOIA #10-MSFC-F-00257) received at MSFC on 1/19/2010. You requested "access to and copies of all databases containing information related in any way to travel by NASA employees and/or financed by the NASA. This would include, but not be limited to, travel paid for by other entities, public or private. This request is for entire databases, all tables, all fields, all records, all years. I need raw computer data in an electronic form with field delimiters, not a text dump, printout or directions to a website. Also, please include definitions for any codes. I can accept this computer data in a variety of formats (Access, Excel, FoxPro and Paradox and many others)..."

As relayed to you in an email on 1/21/2010, your request was being evaluated by the Program Office. On 2/18/2010 I informed you that due to the fact that NASA Headquarters was closed for 4-1/2 days last week because of weather, we required more time to provide you a response to your request.

Your request is extremely voluminous. The information you are seeking involves over 18,000 NASA employees along with unknown number of NASA invitational travelers over a time period from October 2002 to present. The Program Office did a preliminary search of the records you are seeking and below is the information on the NASA travel databases:

1. FedTraveler Database (July 2009 – present)

Tables within database (extract granularity) : 543

Records: 5,074,885 (Trip planning table contents)

Format: Internal Oracle

Format Delivery: Human Readable (Text, CSV or similar)

Database size: 30 G
Data Dictionary: Yes

2. Gelco Travel Manager databases (Oct 2002 – June 2009)
Tables within database (extract granularity): 112
Records: 182,909,865
Format: Internal Oracle
Format Delivery: Human Readable (Text , CSV or similar)
Database size: 146,774,663,168 Bytes
Data Dictionary: Yes

As you can see from the sizes of the databases noted above, your request is extremely voluminous and will require significant agency resources to gather the material and put it in an appropriate format. This will also include finding storage capability because the data is too large to place on a disk drive or thumb drive. Additionally, we will require extensive time for our employees to review the material for redaction of personal information. If you are looking for something specific, perhaps you could narrow your request to a limited period of time or to a specific NASA Center, departments or specific employees.

As a media requester, you are not charged for search and review time and receive the first 150 pages free of charge. However, if an agency incurs direct costs associated with processing of your request, those charges can be passed on to the requester. We have not estimated those charges as we wanted to give you an opportunity to narrow your request.

I will put your request on hold until I hear back from you. If you have any questions regarding your request, please contact me at 256-544-1837 or email at foia@msfc.nasa.gov.

Dear Ms. Hollingsworth,

I am responding to your attached letter dated March 1.

Nothing in this letter is intended to change the scope of any of my requests.

It would help greatly if you could email me the record layouts (data dictionaries) that are part of my request. It's impossible for me to narrow the scope of my request without those records, which should be quit small in size.

As far as the databases, I can convert Oracle, so you can send the data in Oracle.

I question that there are 543 "tables" and 30 gigs of data in a database recording travel information for 18,000 employees since 2009. Since each table contains fields, that would mean the database has thousands of fields, each representing a different category of information. I don't see how there can be that many categories of information about travel. I've received travel databases from other agencies with fewer than 15 fields in a single table.

The record number (5 million or 282 -- more than one per day -- per employee in less than eight months) also seems high.

Again, the record layouts (data dictionaries) would clear this up.

Thank you for your assistance.

Yours very truly,

Russell Carollo

Correspondence was sent to you on March 1, 2010 which outlined the magnitude of your request. You responded that you would like a copy of the data dictionaries for the databases identified as responsive to your request. The Gelco Travel Manager data dictionary is attached. The data dictionary for the FedTraveler database is exempt from release pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4) which authorizes an agency to withhold from disclosure "...trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential." Disclosure of the contractor's confidential commercial information would harm its competitive position by providing insight into its competitive type information. Such insight would provide competitors with an unfair competitive advantage on future procurements. Furthermore, release of this information, which is considered to be proprietary by the submitter, could impair the Government's ability to obtain this type of information from them or other contractors in the future.

Again, your request is extremely voluminous. If you are looking for something specific, perhaps you could narrow your request to a limited period of time or to a specific NASA Center, departments or specific employees.

This is an appeal under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552. On Jan. 16, 2010, I filed the attached request.

Nothing in this appeal is intended to change the scope of my request.

The response was not correct for the following reasons:

- 1)I was denied records under 5 U.S.C. 552, yet provided no appeal authority.
- 2)More than a dozen other federal entities already have responded to the identical request, including FTC, FCC, ARC, FCA, SSS, CNA, FLRA, FMC,USPS, DHHS, GSA, GSA OIG, NRC.

GSA, DHHS and NRC together already have provided more than 1.2 million computer records. NRC provided records back to 1990.

Several agencies, like NASA, use outside contractors for data.

- 3)To respond to my request, the FOIA officer need only select from the record layout fields exempt under FOIA and provide those fields names to an IT person for removal for the database. The IT person then can filter the exempt fields by pressing one key – less than one second – per field name. This entire process can be completed in less time than it took the FOIA officer to write all the letters explaining why the information cannot provided.

Storing the data on an external storage device for shipment to me takes even less time.

- 4)The fact that the records are outsourced to an outside company does not mean the records are no longer public or are not “an agency record.” These are records of how taxpayer funds were spent by top officials in your agency, and the public interest is intense. In addition, taxpayer funds were used to create and maintain the records. They are agency records. They are public records.

- 5)Nothing under FOIA allows agencies to make their public records secret simply by sending them to an outside entity.

- 6)Your contractor works for you, has your records and is paid by taxpayer funds. You have the authority to command your contractor to produce the records.

7)I challenged NASA's contention that its travel database was somehow more than 100 times larger (543 "tables" and 30 gigs) and more complex than the databases kept by any other federal entity and many times larger than any other government database I've ever acquired in the past 20 years by reminding the FOIA officer I requested a record layout(s)/data dictionary(s), which would indicate the size and complexity of the database.

The FOIA officer countered that the record layout for FedTraveler was a trade secret.

A record layout is nothing more than the field name, field length, description of information in field, etc. A record layout is not software. A record layout does not disclose secret and unique data design information.

This same information is available by looking at the database itself, so to suggest it is a trade secret and exempt under b-4 is not only baseless but it also suggests that the data itself cannot be released because a trade secret would somehow be disclosed by knowing, for example, that the government contractor calls its field with the name of the traveler in it "TRAVELER" or because it calls the field with the price of the trip "COST OF TRIP."

This type of information is not covered under b-4.

8)I was asked to narrow the scope of my request. I requested "entire databases, all tables, all fields, all records, all years."

Given that I am requesting data, not paper records, this is the reasonable approach. If I specify years, you would be required to search specific years and remove years I do not request, which requires more work. Also, not knowing what years you have on your database, I would be guessing

Also, given that a copy of your databases can fit on a device the size of a human thumb, asking for all data, too, is reasonable. Again, if I specify specific information, it would require you to search for only that information and remove what I didn't ask for, in addition to removing exempt materials. My request only requires that you remove and identify what you consider exempt under the act, so my request requires less work by you.

I respectfully ask that you consider that this request and appeal are made by a journalist and that the information I seek is sought under a law intended by Congress to keep our citizens informed about the activities of government – a law our government and many others feel is vital to a free nation. I also respectfully ask that you consider that this response is not in keeping with the spirit or the letter of that law or with your own policies.

In any case, I expect to receive your decision no later than by 20 business days, as the statute requires.

Thank you for your assistance.

Judi,

This is to recap our conversation today. I'm still not modifying my requests in any way at this point, however.

NASA has two travel databases: Gelco, which has records up to July 2009, and FedTraveler, which has records since July 2009.

You've send me the record layout for Gelco, and I told you I would look it over to see if I can limit my request by selecting fields from that layout.

I've appealed NASA's denial of the record layout for FedTraveler, and you agreed to forward the appeal you received to the proper place.

You also agreed to see if you can provide me with all table/field names, field lengths and table/field descriptions for FedTraveler, removing other information that may be considered a trade secret.

I told you that once I receive all FedTraveler table/field names, field lenghts, table/field descriptions, I would look it over to determine whether it satisfies issues raised in my appeal.

Thank you.

I just wanted to inform you that Mr. Stephen McConnell has left the Agency and I have been appointed the NASA Chief Public Liaison Officer (Acting). I am physically located at the Marshall Space Flight Center in Alabama.

NASA has received your appeal dated 5/5/2010. I have read your appeal and I would like to offer that we have not made an initial determination on the records you requested in your initial request (FOIA #10-MSFC-F-00257). No records requested in your FOIA letter dated 1/16/2010 have been denied. When you asked for the data dictionaries in a subsequent email, we did have to deny the FedTraveler data dictionary due to (b)(4) since that dictionary itself is proprietary. We did provide you the Gelco Travel Manager dictionary. You are correct that the actual travel records are Government records. The records you requested in your original request are extremely voluminous and I have explained that in great detail in my first correspondence sent to you.

We have been trying to negotiate with you on your request and you indicated to me in our last correspondence dated 4/10/2010 that you would get back to me. Since I thought we were discussing your request in good faith, I was surprised to receive an appeal.

When we looked at your request we took it literally as "all" as you requested and the "all" for NASA is as stated in my initial correspondence to you. As we explained to you, your request is extremely voluminous. You indicated that you might be willing to narrow your request and we hoped that providing the dictionary that you would be able to do so. Perhaps you could share with me what "fields" the other agencies have provided and that would narrow your request and we could proceed.

Though we have not denied you any records for your initial request and an appeal is not appropriate at this time for those records, the appeal rights for your subsequent request for the data dictionaries are provided below:

You are advised that you may appeal this initial determination to the NASA Administrator. Your appeal must (1) be addressed to the Administrator, NASA, Mail Stop: FOIA, Room 9R17, 300 E Street, SW, Washington, D.C. 20546; (2) be identified clearly on the envelope and in the letter as an "Appeal under the Freedom of Information Act", (3) include a copy of the request for the agency record and a copy of the contested initial determination; (4) state, to the extent possible, the reasons why you believe the initial determination should be reversed; and (5) be sent to the Administrator within 30 calendar days of the date of the receipt of the initial determination.

I would like the opportunity to speak with you by phone about this request so that we might be able to resolve this matter.

Dear Ms. Hollingsworth,

I highlighted in yellow the names of fields in the attached document to indicate the information/fields I need from this database.

In addition to the fields I marked in yellow, I need common fields to link the tables containing the information/fields I identified, and, just in case these are not already included in my selections, I need to ensure I also receive: name(s) of traveler, location(s) visited, total cost of each trip/move, reason for trip, dates of trip.

This letter does not limit my request to only this database. Instead it limits the responsive information in only this database to the selected fields.

Thank you for your assistance.

Yours very truly,

Russell Carollo

Dear Ms. Hollingsworth,

I am following up on our phone conversation today.

Attached is the record layout for FedTraveler provided by NASA. The fields I want are highlighted in yellow. The first few selections also are circled or underlined, but there was no room to underline or circle subsequent selected field names, which are only highlighted.

I also will need any fields required to link tables.

You already have my field selections for the Gelco database, and you said you expected the database to be ready soon.

Thank you for your assistance.

Mr. Carollo,

I just wanted to inform you that Mr. Stephen McConnell has left the Agency and I have been appointed the NASA Chief Public Liaison Officer (Acting). I am physically located at the Marshall Space Flight Center in Alabama.

NASA has received your appeal dated 5/5/2010. I have read your appeal and I would like to offer that we have not made an initial determination on the records you requested in your initial request (FOIA #10-MSFC-F-00257). No records requested in your FOIA letter dated 1/16/2010 have been denied. When you asked for the data dictionaries in a subsequent email, we did have to deny the FedTraveler data dictionary due to (b)(4) since that dictionary itself is proprietary. We did provide you the Gelco Travel Manager dictionary. You are correct that the actual travel records are Government records. The records you requested in your original request are extremely voluminous and I have explained that in great detail in my first correspondence sent to you.

We have been trying to negotiate with you on your request and you indicated to me in our last correspondence dated 4/10/2010 that you would get back to me. Since I thought we were discussing your request in good faith, I was surprised to receive an appeal.

When we looked at your request we took it literally as "all" as you requested and the "all" for NASA is as stated in my initial correspondence to you. As we explained to you, your request is extremely voluminous. You indicated that you might be willing to narrow your request and we hoped that providing the dictionary that you would be able to do so. Perhaps you could share with me what "fields" the other agencies have provided and that would narrow your request and we could proceed.

Though we have not denied you any records for your initial request and an appeal is not appropriate at this time for those records, the appeal rights for your subsequent request for the data dictionaries are provided below:

You are advised that you may appeal this initial determination to the NASA Administrator. Your appeal must (1) be addressed to the Administrator, NASA, Mail Stop: FOIA, Room 9R17, 300 E Street, SW, Washington, D.C. 20546; (2) be identified clearly on the envelope and in the letter as an "Appeal under the Freedom of Information Act", (3) include a copy of the request for the agency record and a copy of the contested initial determination; (4) state, to the extent possible, the reasons why you believe the initial determination should be reversed; and (5) be sent to the Administrator within 30 calendar days of the date of the receipt of the initial determination.

I would like the opportunity to speak with you by phone about this request so that we might be able to resolve this matter.

Thank you,

Judi A. Hollingsworth

Dear Ms. Hoffman::

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request received on November 29, 2007.

Your request is being processed in chronological order based upon the date it was received. NASA processes all FOIA requests in a multi-track processing system, based upon the date of receipt and the amount of work and time involved in processing the request. The agency determines whether the request is simple or complex. In order for a request to be expedited, the requestor must demonstrate a compelling or urgent need and demonstrate that failure to obtain the information could pose an imminent threat to life or physical safety or loss of substantial due process rights.

Questions regarding this action should be in writing to this center at the address shown below.

Dear Mr. McConnell:

This letter constitutes a request under the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552, and is submitted to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration ("NASA") on behalf of OpenTheGovernment.org ("OTG") and the Electronic Frontier Foundation ("EFF").

We request copies of all memoranda of understanding, contracts or other agreements between NASA and Google or other technology companies from January 2006 to the present for the digitization or other copying of agency information (including pre-existing "legacy" information and data holdings) to promote greater access of such data by the general public.

We believe that the requested records may be maintained by NASA's chief information officer.

Request for News Media Fee Status

OTG and EFF ask that they not be charged search or review fees for this request because each organization qualifies as a "representative of the news media" pursuant to the FOIA and 14 C.F.R. § 1206.701(c).

OTG is a coalition of journalists, consumer and good government groups, environmentalists, library organizations, labor and others united to make the federal government a more open place in order to make us safer, strengthen public trust in government, and support our democratic principles. One of OTG's primary objectives is to "raise the visibility of a secrecy/openness message through work with the media, through our website, and through coordination with our partners, and with policy makers." To accomplish this goal, OTG routinely and systematically disseminates information through its website and regular policy and news updates. OTG engages in analysis and produces reports on developing and ongoing issues that are widely disseminated to the public.

EFF is a non-profit public interest organization that works "to protect and enhance our core civil liberties in the digital age."¹ One of EFF's primary objectives is "to educate the press, policymakers and the general public about online civil liberties."² To accomplish this goal, EFF routinely and systematically disseminates information through its heavily visited web site, online newsletter, blog, white papers, books, and podcasts. We note that the Department of Homeland Security, Department of State, and National Security Agency have recognized that EFF qualifies as a "news media" requester, based upon the publication activities set forth below (see DHS stipulation, State Department letter, and NSA letter, attached hereto). We further note that the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit has stressed that "different agencies [must not] adopt inconsistent interpretations of the FOIA." Al-Fayed v. CIA, 254 F.3d 300, 307 (D.C. Cir. 2001), quoting Pub. Citizen Health Research Group v. FDA, 704 F.2d 1230, 1237 (D.C. Cir. 1983).

Due to their extensive publication activities, OTG and EFF are "representative[s] of the news media" under the FOIA and agency regulations. As such, this request is subject only to duplication fees after the first 100 pages. However, all duplication fees should be waived, as discussed below, because disclosure of the information requested above is in the public interest.

Request for a Public Interest Fee Waiver

OpenTheGovernment.org and EFF are entitled to a waiver of duplication fees because disclosure of the requested information is in the public interest within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(a)(iii). To determine whether a request meets this standard, NASA considers whether "disclosure of the requested information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government," 14 C.F.R. § 1206.702(a)(1), and that disclosure of the information "is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester," id. § 1206.702(a)(2). This request clearly satisfies these criteria.

First, negotiations or agreements for services between federal agencies and technology companies concern the operations or activities of the government. Id. § 1206.702(c)(1). The federal government's collaboration with private sector companies to digitize and disseminate agency holdings unquestionably constitutes government activity.

Second, disclosure of the requested information is likely to contribute to public understanding of government operations or activities. Id. § 1206.702(c)(2). OTG and EFF have requested information that will shed light on the details of the work that Google and similar companies will perform for federal agencies. This information will contribute not only to OTG and EFF's understanding of the relationship between these companies and federal agencies, but to the understanding of a reasonably broad audience of persons interested in the subject. Id. § 1206.702(c)(3). OTG and EFF will make the information they obtain under the FOIA available to the public and the media through their web sites and newsletters, which highlight developments concerning privacy and civil liberties issues, and/or other channels discussed more fully above.

Finally, the disclosure will contribute significantly to the public's knowledge and understanding of the digitization agreements reached by technology companies and federal agencies. Id. § 1206.702(c)(4). Disclosure of the requested information will not only inform the public about the terms of those agreements, but also the type and extent of the services performed for the agencies.

Furthermore, a fee waiver is appropriate here because OTG and EFF have no commercial interest in the disclosure of the requested records. Id. § 1206.702(d). Both entities are 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, and will derive no commercial benefit from the information at issue here.

Thank you for your consideration of this request. Should you have any questions concerning this request, please contact me at (415) 436-9333 x. 116. As the FOIA provides, we will anticipate your determination on this request within twenty (20) working days.

Description: The unreleased appendixes of the 2005 ESAS report, namely appendixes 6A, 6B, 6C, 6D, 6E & 6F that give supporting evidence and technical information about all proposed Constellation architectures. According to Dr. Doug Stanley "All of the tens of thousands of pages of supporting charts and materials that were not released should already be in the public domain if you or others had simply requested it through the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) process (which takes a couple of months). I am surprised no one has requested it. NASA has to release anything that is not proprietary or competition sensitive (and very little was)."

FOIA: 09-HQ-F-00199

Dear Mr. Matthews:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, received on May 6, 2009, requesting access to and copies of the twelve (12) appendices that accompanied the exploration Systems Architecture Study (2005).

Your request has been received by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), Headquarters Requester Service Center and will be sent to the area(s) which may have pertinent records. Program officials will initiate a search, and will provide a copy of all releasable agency records as quickly as possible.

Requests are processed in chronological order based upon the date it was received. NASA processes all FOIA requests in a multi-track processing system, based upon the date of receipt and the amount of work and time involved in processing the request. The agency determines whether the request is simple or complex.

There may be a charge for processing your request.

Sincerely,

Denise Young

Subject: FOIA for the Constellation Acceleration Study Report

Hey folks, it's Mark Matthews with the Orlando Sentinel again with another FOIA. Here's the request. It's pretty straightforward – just one document. I also talked with Grey in the public affairs department who knows of our request. To reduce the paperwork for everyone involved, if we can get the document without a FOIA, that would be preferable. But here's the filing just in case.

Dear FOIA Officer:

Pursuant to the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, I request access to and copies of The Constellation Acceleration Study Report, dated Dec. 18, 2008. If this date is incorrect, we seek any study of this same name. I agree to pay reasonable duplication fees for the processing of this request.

As a representative of the news media I am only required to pay for the direct cost of duplication after the first 100 pages. Through this request, I am gathering information on that is of current interest to the public because it affects the future of US manned spaceflight. This information is being sought for dissemination to the general public.

If my request is denied in whole or part, I ask that you justify all deletions by reference to specific exemptions of the act. I will also expect you to release all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. I reserve the right to appeal your decision to withhold any information or to deny a waiver of fees.

As I am making this request as a journalist and this information is of timely value, I would appreciate your communicating with me by telephone, rather than by mail, if you have questions regarding this request.

I look forward to your reply within 20 business days, as the statute requires.

Thank you for your assistance.

10-HQ-F-00043

Dear Mr. McClanahan:

This is an acknowledgement response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, dated October 26, 2009, for agency records regarding "all correspondence and emails from 2007-2008 between the National Aeronautics and Space Administration ("NASA") and any Congressional committee, Member of Congress, Senator, or Congressional staffer acting in an official capacity as representative of any of the above."

Your request has been received by NASA's Headquarters FOIA Requester Service Center, on October 26, 2009. We will conduct records search with the Office of Legislative Affairs (OLIA), which is the proponent office responsible for agency correspondence to congress.

However, after consulting with OLIA, your request is considered too voluminous without a specific subject matter; therefore, we seek your assistance in narrowing of the scope of this request. In its current state, it's too broad and would create an undue burden on the searching office. It's requested that you provide a revised request with explicit search clarification on:

1. What subject matter or topic.
2. Which individual congressional member(s), staffer(s) or committee can be specifically identified as a search criteria.
3. More specific on your date range as 2007 – 2008, as your request could be for any correspondence between January 1, 2007 to January 1, 2008 or all correspondence within the calendar years of both 2007 and 2008. Specifically identifying and reducing the scope of your request will allow us to better facilitate the processing time of your request.
4. Identify what NASA or congressional officials would be the focus of your email request, since we will need some specific search criteria or key words to input a query into our archival database.

Once your request is clarified with the new specific search criteria, we forward this to OLIA's program staff for processing. Also, it will also be concurrently refer to NASA's Office of the Inspector General (OIG) FOIA Requester Service Center, to be processed independently; as that office maintains and control their records separately.

It should be noted that NASA processes it's FOIA requests in a multi-track processing system, using the chronological order based upon the date of receipt, 'first in first out' processing; if we encounter any delays this office will update you on that status. Your request has been assigned FOIA Case Number: 10-HQ-F-00043 and if you would like an update on your status please contact Ms. Mary Bell, at (202) 358-1708.

Also, you've asked for a fee waiver as a representative of the news media. As the Editor of the American Intelligence Journal, we will use this to assess your fee category once the initial process has begun. Therefore, FOIA processing fees may be assessed during the search and reviewing of your request; also duplication fees could also be assessed in accordance with our published agency FOIA regulations. So you may wish to provide a threshold you are willing to pay prior to your waiver is considered.

Sincerely,

Not a problem. As we discussed on the phone, since this information is to be used for a statistical survey of the changing nature of Executive-Congressional correspondence for an academic publication, please just select 200 pieces of correspondence at random from OLIA and send those (you can leave the IG's office out). I do ask that if you send email correspondence, you send the entire conversation (and I do encourage you to send some email correspondence). Ideally, we'll get a healthy mix of email, letter, and meeting notes from this request.

Thank you very much, and please do not hesitate to call or email with any further questions.

Re: FOIA Request – Congressional correspondence

Dear Mr. McConnell:

This is a request on behalf of National Security Counselors ("NSC") under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, et seq., for copies of all correspondence and emails from 2007-2008 between the National Aeronautics and Space Administration ("NASA") and any Congressional committee, Member of Congress, Senator, or Congressional staffer acting in an official capacity as representative of any of the above. You may limit your searches to the Offices of the Director, Deputy Director, Congressional Affairs, General Counsel, and Inspector General.

When processing this request, please note that the D.C. Circuit has previously held that agencies have a duty to construe the subject material of FOIA requests liberally to ensure responsive records are not overlooked. See Nation Magazine, Washington Bureau v. U.S. Customs Service, 71 F.3d 885, 890 (D.C. Cir. 1995). Accordingly, you are hereby instructed that the term "record" includes, but is not limited to: 1) all email communications to or from any individual within your agency; 2) memoranda; 3) inter-agency communications; 4) sound recordings; 5) tape recordings; 6) video or film recordings; 7) photographs; 8) notes; 9) notebooks; 10) indices; 11) jottings; 12) message slips; 13) letters or correspondence; 14) telexes; 15) telegrams; 16) facsimile transmissions; 17) statements; 18) policies; 19) manuals or binders; 20) books; 21) handbooks; 22) business records; 23) personnel records; 24) ledgers; 25) notices; 26) warnings; 27) affidavits; 28) declarations under penalty of perjury; 29) unsworn statements; 30) reports; 31) diaries; or 32) calendars, regardless of whether they are handwritten, printed, typed, mechanically or electronically recorded or reproduced on any medium capable of conveying an image, such as paper, CDs, DVDs, or diskettes.

Furthermore, in line with the guidance issued by the Department of Justice ("DOJ") on 9 September 2008 to all federal agencies with records subject to FOIA, agency records that are currently in the possession of a U.S. Government contractor for purposes of records management remain subject to FOIA. Please ensure that your search complies with this clarification on the effect of Section 9 of the OPEN Government Act of 2007 of the definition of a "record" for purposes of FOIA. In addition, NASA should not interpret this request to exclude correspondence sent to outside third parties. Please also consider this letter an affirmative rejection of any limitation of your search to NASA-originated records.

In conclusion, NASA is hereby instructed to interpret the scope of this request in the most liberal manner possible short of an interpretation that would lead to a conclusion that the request does not reasonably describe the records sought. If, even given these restrictions, NASA still determines that this request does not reasonably describe the records sought, it is instructed to contact NSC to discuss reformulation of the request before rejecting the request as overbroad, vague, or unduly burdensome.

If you deny all or part of this request, please cite the specific exemptions you believe justify your refusal to release the information or permit the review and notify us of your appeal procedures available under the law. In excising material, please "black out" rather than "white out" or "cut out." In addition, we draw your attention to President Obama's 21 January 2009 Memorandum for the Heads of Executive Departments and Agencies, directing federal agencies to adopt a presumption in favor of disclosure and stating that government information should not be kept confidential "merely because public officials might be embarrassed by disclosure, because errors and failures might be revealed, or because of speculative or abstract fears."

We are hereby requesting a waiver of all fees in accordance with our status as a representative of the news media. NSC is a non-profit organization under Virginia law, has the ability to disseminate information on a wide scale, and intends to use information obtained through FOIA in original works. According to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii), codifying the ruling of Nat'l Security Archive v. Dep't of Defense, 880 F.2d 1381 (D.C. Cir. 1989), the term 'a representative of the news media' means any person or entity that gathers information of potential interest to a segment of the public, uses its editorial skills to turn the raw materials into a distinct work, and distributes that work to an audience.

NSC has clear intent to "publish[] or otherwise disseminate[] information to the public." Id. at 1386 (quoting the following legislative history: 1) "It is critical that the phrase 'representative of the news media' be broadly interpreted if the act is to work as expected. . . . In fact, any person or organization which regularly publishes or disseminates information to the public . . . should qualify for waivers as a 'representative of the news media.'" 132 Cong. Rec. S14298 (daily ed. Sept. 30, 1986) (emphasis in original quotation); 2) "A request by a reporter or other person affiliated with a newspaper, magazine, television or radio station, or other entity that is in the business of publishing or otherwise disseminating information to the public qualifies under this provision." 132 Cong. Rec. H9463 (Oct. 8, 1986) (emphasis in original quotation)). Our website, where much of the information received through our FOIA requests will be posted for all to review, can be accessed at <http://www.nationalsecuritylaw.org>. In addition, we also intend to use information obtained through FOIA in our own published opinion editorials, journal articles, and the like. I personally have already published information received through FOIA in this manner (Kel McClanahan, A Perception Based Model for Comparing Intelligence Communities, 25(2) AMER. INTELLIGENCE J. 46 (Winter 2007/2008) (includes material obtained through a CIA FOIA request)). Therefore, in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act and relevant case law, NSC should be considered a representative of the news media. Similarly, our request for a public interest fee waiver should be granted, for the reasons elucidated below.

We request that any documents or records produced in response to this request be provided in electronic (soft-copy) form wherever possible. Acceptable formats are .pdf, .jpg, .gif, .tif. Please provide soft-copy records by email or on a CD if email is not feasible. However, NSC does not agree to pay an additional fee to receive records on a CD, and in the instance that such a fee is required, NSC will accept a paper copy of responsive records.

Your cooperation in this matter would be appreciated. If you wish to discuss this request, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Time Frame: January 1, 2007- Present

We call your attention to President Obama's January 21, 2009 Memorandum concerning the Freedom of Information Act, in which he states:

All agencies should adopt a presumption in favor of disclosure, in order to renew their commitment to the principles embodied in FOIA... The presumption of disclosure should be applied to all decisions involving FOIA.¹

President Obama adds that "The Freedom of Information Act should be administered with a clear presumption: In the case of doubt, openness prevails." Nevertheless, if any responsive record or portion thereof is claimed to be exempt from production under FOIA, please provide sufficient identifying information with respect to each allegedly exempt record or portion thereof to allow us to assess the propriety of the claimed exemption. Vaughn v. Rosen, 484 F.2d 820 (D.C. Cir. 1973), cert. denied, 415 U.S. 977 (1974). In addition, any reasonably segregable portion of a responsive record must be provided, after redaction of any allegedly exempt material. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b).

For purpose of this request, the term "record" shall mean: (1) any written, printed, or typed material of any kind, including without limitation all correspondence, memoranda, notes, messages, letters, cards, telegrams, teletypes, facsimiles, papers, forms, records, telephone messages, diaries, schedules, calendars, chronological data, minutes, books, reports, charts, lists, ledgers, invoices, worksheets, receipts, returns, computer printouts, printed matter, prospectuses, statements, checks, statistics, surveys, affidavits, contracts, agreements, transcripts, magazine or newspaper articles, or press releases; (2) any electronically, magnetically, or mechanically stored material of any kind, including without limitation all electronic mail or e-mail, meaning any electronically transmitted text or graphic communication created upon and transmitted or received by any computer or other electronic device, and all materials stored on compact disk, computer disk, diskette, hard drive, server, or tape; (3) any audio, aural, visual, or video records, recordings, or representations of any kind, including without limitation all cassette tapes, compact disks, digital video disks, microfiche, microfilm, motion pictures, pictures, photographs, or videotapes; (4) any graphic materials and data compilations from which information can be obtained; (5) any materials using other means of preserving thought or expression; and (6) any tangible things from which data or information can be obtained, processed, recorded, or transcribed. The term "record" also shall mean any drafts, alterations, amendments, changes, or modifications of or to any of the foregoing.

Judicial Watch also hereby requests a waiver of both search and duplication fees pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II) and 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii).

Judicial Watch is entitled to a waiver of search fees under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II) because it is a member of the news media. In accordance with the statutory designation for a media group, Judicial Watch gathers information of potential interest, uses its editorial skills to create a distinct work, and distributes it to the public. Judicial Watch gathers information using Freedom of Information Act requests, state open records law requests, government contacts, interviews, Internet based research, book based research, and community tips. Judicial Watch distributes its distinct work using its editorial skills in its monthly newsletter The Verdict, its weekly e-mail publication Weekly Update, its blog Corruption Chronicles, and special reports. The Verdict maintains a subscription of over 120,000 and Judicial Watch's website has logged over 500,000 page views just between January 2009 and April 2009 with 2,000 unique visitors per day. Weekly Update reaches 25,000 people per week.

The statute also notes that government may consider an organization's past publication record. When considering Judicial Watch's past publication record, its previous media status is also relevant. Judicial Watch has been recognized as a member of the media in past FOIA litigation; See Judicial Watch, Inc. v. U.S. Department of Justice, 133 F. Supp.2d 52 (D.D.C. 2000); and, Judicial Watch, Inc. v. Dep't of Defense, 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 44003, *1 (D.D.C. June 28, 2006). Furthermore, Judicial Watch has consistently been recognized as a member of the news media in other FOIA requests. Within the last 6 months, Judicial Watch was designated as media by the Department of State on 27 March 2009 (200901038), Department of Homeland Security on 20 November 2008 (DHS/OS/PRIV 09-49), Federal Housing Finance Agency on 8 December 2008 (FOIA 2009-31), and Department of the Treasury on 6 January 2009 (2008-12-019).

In addition to meeting and exceeding the statutory requirements as a media organization, Judicial Watch's mission and peer recognition further qualify it for the media category. The Pew Research Center's Project for Excellence in Journalism provides that "the central purpose of journalism is to provide citizens with accurate and reliable information they need to function in a free society.... serving as watchdog and offering voice to the voiceless." Judicial Watch's mission is consistent with this definition ("promotes transparency, accountability and integrity in government, politics and the law.") Furthermore, The Hill has recognized Judicial Watch as one of the top watchdog organizations in the country.² In addition to the Hill's recognition, Judicial Watch has also been awarded press credentials and membership in journalism organizations.

Judicial Watch also is entitled to a complete waiver of both search fees and duplication fees pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii). Under this provision, records:

shall be furnished without any charge or at a charge reduced below the fees established under clause (ii) if disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii).

Judicial Watch is a 501(c)(3), not-for-profit, educational organization, and, by definition, it has no commercial purpose. Judicial Watch exists to promote transparency, accountability and integrity in government, politics and the law. Its loyalty is to the truth and to the public. It uses litigation to access the truth and its publications to inform the public.

The requested records necessarily concern government activities. Recent reports on climategate allege that the climate change data has been tampered with. Significant U.S. resources and rhetoric has been guided by this data. Disclosure will contribute to understanding whether government resources were guided solely and without hesitation by this data or whether other considerations were at play. Disclosure will significantly contribute to public understanding as the recent allegations bring into question the accuracy and credibility of the man-made climate change hypothesis. The records should provide additional facts about what the government actually knew and whether there was any independent analysis or any other influences. A broad audience will likely be interested in records as climate change has become a major focus of US policy and the upcoming Copenhagen summit will make any discussion about accuracy and resources even more timely. The public has a right to know whether government policy and resources are based on accurate and verified information.

Once Judicial Watch obtains the requested records, it intends to analyze them and disseminate the results of its analysis, as well as the records themselves, as an article to a broad audience in one of its publications.

In addition, if records are not produced within twenty (20) business days, Judicial Watch is entitled to a complete waiver of search and duplication fees under the OPEN Government Act of 2007, Section 6(b).

Given these circumstances, Judicial Watch is entitled to a public interest fee waiver of both search costs and duplication costs. Nonetheless, in the event our request for a waiver of search and/or duplication costs is denied, Judicial Watch is willing to pay up to $350.00 in search and/or duplication costs. Judicial Watch requests that it be contacted before any such costs are incurred, in order to prioritize search and duplication efforts.

Judicial Watch also requests expedited processing of this request. Given the gravity and compelling circumstances of this request, Judicial Watch, as a member of the news media, hereby requests expedited processing, pursuant to 28 C.F.R. 16.5 (d)(ii)(iv) and C.F.R. 1250.28. In accordance with 28 C.F.R. 16.5 (d)(1)(3), Judicial Watch certifies to be true and correct to the best of its knowledge and belief that it has, as a member of the media, a compelling urgency in order to inform the public concerning actual or alleged federal government activity (see 32 C.F.R. 286.4 and 36 C.F.R. 1250.28). Given the upcoming Copenhagen summit and intense controversy surrounding the CRU data's credibility, it is in the public interest to prioritize and expedite this current event information. Before any treaties are agreed upon and any more policy and resources directed towards climate change, the public has a right to know all the facts surrounding the underlying data and that unequivocally includes the analysis of the data by the US government.

In an effort to facilitate record production within the statutory time limit, Judicial Watch is willing to accept documents in electronic format (e.g. e-mail, .pdfs). When necessary, Judicial Watch will also accept the "rolling production" of documents.

If you do not understand this request or any portion thereof, or if you feel you require clarification of this request or any portion thereof, please contact us immediately at 202-646-5181 or jsmall@judicialwatch.org. We look forward to receiving the requested documents and a waiver of both search and duplication costs within twenty (20) business days. Thank you for your cooperation.

FOIA REQUEST
Fee benefit requested
Fee waiver requested

Dear FOIA Officer:

Pursuant to the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, I request access to and copies of the calendar for NASA Administrator Charles F. Bolden, Jr., documenting appointments, meetings and telephone calls from July 17, 2009 to present.

I would like to receive the information in electronic format.

As a representative of the news media I am only required to pay for the direct cost of duplication after the first 100 pages. Through this request, I am gathering information on Bolden's activities that is of current interest to the public because Bolden is currently charged with plotting the future course of NASA. This information is being sought for dissemination to the general public. I am a student journalist on the UCSC science communication program and a freelancer that intends to publish an article. A few of my recently published clips can be found on at http://www.montereyherald.com/circare/html/sca_template.jsp?pageSearchKey=News&pageQuery=Jane+Palmer&origQuery=Jane+Palmer

Please waive any applicable fees. Release of the information is in the public interest because it will contribute significantly to public understanding of government operations and activities. The future course of NASA is of important information that should be available to the public and Bolden's calendar will give the public important insights into how he is tackling his job. As a journalist I intend to disseminate what I find in this record to the public.

If my request is denied in whole or part, I ask that you justify all deletions by reference to specific exemptions of the act. I will also expect you to release all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. I, of course, reserve the right to appeal your decision to withhold any information or to deny a waiver of fees.

As I am making this request as a journalist and this information is of timely value, I would appreciate your communicating with me by telephone, rather than by mail, if you have questions regarding this request.

I look forward to your reply within 20 business days, as the statute requires.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,
Teresa Jane Palmer

We call your attention to President Obama's January 21, 2009 Memorandum concerning the Freedom of Information Act, in which he states:

All agencies should adopt a presumption in favor of disclosure, in order to renew their commitment to the principles embodied in FOIA...The presumption of disclosure should be applied to all decisions involving FOIA.¹

President Obama adds that "The Freedom of Information Act should be administered with a clear presumption: In the case of doubt, openness prevails." Nevertheless, if any responsive record or portion thereof is claimed to be exempt from production under FOIA, please provide sufficient identifying information with respect to each allegedly exempt record or portion thereof to allow us to assess the propriety of the claimed exemption. Vaughn v. Rosen, 484 F.2d 820 (D.C. Cir. 1973), cert. denied, 415 U.S. 977 (1974). In addition, any reasonably segregable portion of a responsive record must be provided, after redaction of any allegedly exempt material. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b).

For purpose of this request, the term "record" shall mean: (1) any written, printed, or typed material of any kind, including without limitation all correspondence, memoranda, notes, messages, letters, cards, telegrams, teletypes, facsimiles, papers, forms, records, telephone messages, diaries, schedules, calendars, chronological data, minutes, books, reports, charts, lists, ledgers, invoices, worksheets, receipts, returns, computer printouts, printed matter, prospectuses, statements, checks, statistics, surveys, affidavits, contracts, agreements, transcripts, magazine or newspaper articles, or press releases; (2) any electronically, magnetically, or mechanically stored material of any kind, including without limitation all electronic mail or e-mail, meaning any electronically transmitted text or graphic communication created upon and transmitted or received by any computer or other electronic device, and all materials stored on compact disk, computer disk, diskette, hard drive, server, or tape; (3) any audio, aural, visual, or video records, recordings, or representations of any kind, including without limitation all cassette tapes, compact disks, digital video disks, microfiche, microfilm, motion pictures, pictures, photographs, or videotapes; (4) any graphic materials and data compilations from which information can be obtained; (5) any materials using other means of preserving thought or expression; and (6) any tangible things from which data or information can be obtained, processed, recorded, or transcribed. The term "record" also shall mean any drafts, alterations, amendments, changes, or modifications of or to any of the foregoing.

Judicial Watch also hereby requests a waiver of both search and duplication fees pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II) and 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii). Judicial Watch is entitled to a waiver of search fees under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II) because it is a member of the news media. See National Security Archive v. U.S. Department of Defense, 880 F.2d 1381, 1387 (D.C. Cir. 1989). In fact, Judicial Watch has been recognized as a member of the news media in other FOIA litigation. See Judicial Watch, Inc. v. U.S. Department of Justice, 133 F. Supp.2d 52 (D.D.C. 2000); and, Judicial Watch, Inc. v. Dep't of Defense, 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 44003, *1 (D.D.C. June 28, 2006). Judicial Watch, Inc. regularly obtains information about the operations and activities of government through FOIA and other means, uses its editorial skills to turn this information into distinct works, and publishes and disseminates these works to the public. It intends to do likewise with the records it receives in response to this request.

Judicial Watch also is entitled to a complete waiver of both search fees and duplication fees pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii). Under this provision, records:

shall be furnished without any charge or at a charge reduced below the fees established under clause (ii) if disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii).

In addition, if records are not produced within twenty (20) business days, Judicial Watch is entitled to a complete waiver of search and duplication fees under the OPEN Government Act of 2007, Section 6(b).

Judicial Watch is a 501(c)(3), not-for-profit, educational organization, and, by definition, it has no commercial purpose. Judicial Watch exists to educate the public about the operations and activities of government, as well as to increase public understanding about the importance of ethics and the rule of law in government. The particular records requested herein are sought as part of Judicial Watch's ongoing efforts to document the operations and activities of the federal government and to educate the public about these operations and activities. Once Judicial Watch obtains the requested records, it intends to analyze them and disseminate the results of its analysis, as well as the records themselves, as a special written report. Judicial Watch will also educate the public via radio programs, Judicial Watch's website, and/or newsletter, among other outlets. It also will make the records available to other members of the media or researchers upon request. Judicial Watch has a proven ability to disseminate information obtained through FOIA to the public, as demonstrated by its long-standing and continuing public outreach efforts, including radio and television programs, website, newsletter, periodic published reports, public appearances, and other educational undertakings.

Given these circumstances, Judicial Watch is entitled to a public interest fee waiver of both search costs and duplication costs. Nonetheless, in the event our request for a waiver of search and/or duplication costs is denied, Judicial Watch is willing to pay up to $350.00 in search and/or duplication costs. Judicial Watch requests that it be contacted before any such costs are incurred, in order to prioritize search and duplication efforts.

In an effort to facilitate record production within the statutory time limit, Judicial Watch is willing to accept documents in electronic format (e.g. e-mail, .pdfs). When necessary, Judicial Watch will also accept the "rolling production" of documents.

If you do not understand this request or any portion thereof, or if you feel you require clarification of this request or any portion thereof, please contact us immediately at 202-646-5172 or jalthen@judicialwatch.org. We look forward to receiving the requested documents and a waiver of both search and duplication costs within twenty (20) business days. Thank you for your cooperation.

REF: 10-HQ-00466

Dear Mr. Borenstein:

Thank you for your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated March 18, 2010 and received in our office July 29, 2010. We are currently processing our FOIA backlog and your request has come to the front of this queue. Your request was for:

- All external correspondence, including e-mails, to NASA political appointees (Charles Bolden, Lori Garver, et al. and NASA legislative office) from Jan. 1, 2010 to March 18, 2010 about the cancellation of the Constellation program, the end of the space shuttle program, and the future of the human space program.
- All correspondence since Jan. 20, 2009 with members of the Human Spaceflight Committee, including but not limited to Norman Augustine, Sally Ride, Ed Crawley and Chris Chyba. And the same goes for all correspondence with former astronauts Buzz Aldrin, Neil Armstrong, Scott Horowitz, Robert "Hoot" Gibson, Robert Crippen, John Young, Charles Precourt, and William Readdy.
- All correspondence since Jan. 20, 2009 with potential commercial human spaceflight companies and executives with such companies about operations with NASA passengers to and from low earth orbit. That includes companies and representatives from Space X, X Cor, Armadillo, Orbital Science Corp., Blue Origin, Virgin Galactic, Masten Systems, Paragon, Sierra Nevada, United Launch Alliance, and Boeing Co.
- All studies since Jan. 1, 2004 about job losses from the end of the space shuttle program and Constellation programs at and around Kennedy Space Center, Marshall Space Flight Center and Johnson Space Center and Dryden Flight Research Center, including not just civil service but contractor job losses and any associated economic impact for the local communities.
- Any correspondence to and from Administrator Bolden discussing space shuttle safety in the wind down of the program, especially ones using the phrase "deathtrap" or "death trap."

In your letter you asserted status in the news media category. In the past, we have granted you news media status based solely on your assertion of that FOIA fee category. However, we are asking you to provide justification to warrant news media status in accordance with Department of Justice guidance. Requests for a waiver or a reduction of fees are considered on a case-by-case basis. Before we grant you news media status, thus waiver of associated processing fees, we must determine whether your request meets the twofold objectives for fee waivers established by the National Aeronautics Space Administration (NASA) and the Department of Justice; that is, whether disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it:

- (1) Is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the Government; and
- (2) Is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester (14 CFR § 1206.702).

Before we make a decision on your request for a fee waiver we ask, in accordance with NASA regulations and the Department of Justice FOIA Guide and Overview, that you provide information in response to the following questions so that we can determine if granting the waiver or a reduction in fees is in the public interest. The Agency considers the following factors when determining if disclosure of information is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding (public interest) of the operations or activities of the Government:

1. Does the record specifically concern identifiable operations or activities of the Government?
2. If the record(s) concern the operations or activities of the Government, is disclosure likely to contribute to public understanding of those operations and activities? Are the disclosable contents of the record(s) meaningfully informative in relation to the subject of the request? For example, is this information of wide public interest and will your disclosure be unique in enhancing public knowledge.
3. Is the focus of the requester on contributing to public understanding, rather than on the individual understanding of the requester or a narrow segment of interested persons?
4. If there is likely to be a contribution to public understanding, will that contribution be significant? A contribution to public understanding will be significant if the information disclosed is new, clearly supports public oversight of Agency operations, including the quality of Agency activities and the effect of policy and regulations on public health and safety, or otherwise confirms or clarifies data on past or present operations of the Agency. The public's understanding of the subject matter in question, as compared to the level of public understanding existing prior to the disclosure, must be likely to be enhanced by the disclosure to a significant extent (see Sierra Club Legal Def. Fund. No. 93-35383, slip op. at 4, U.S. Department of Justice Guide to the Freedom of Information Act Guide, May 2009, page2 132-133). Your identity, vocation, qualification(s), and expertise regarding the requested information may be relevant factors.

Furthermore, you must demonstrate how you plan to disclose the information and you must disseminate the information to the general public or a reasonably broad audience. (Dissemination to a wide audience is not merely posting the documents on a website, but providing an informative analysis of the information.) Requesters who make no showing of how the information would be disseminated, other than through passively making it available to anyone who might seek access to it, do not meet the burden of demonstrating with particularity that the information will be communicated to the public (U.S. Department of Justice Guide to the Freedom of Information Act Guide, May 2009, page 131); also see FOIA Update, Vol. VIII, No.

1 at 8 ("OIP Guidance: New Fee Waiver Policy Guidance") (advising agencies that . . . requests should be analyzed to identify particular person or persons who actually will use requested information in scholarly or other analytic work and then disseminate it to general public.)

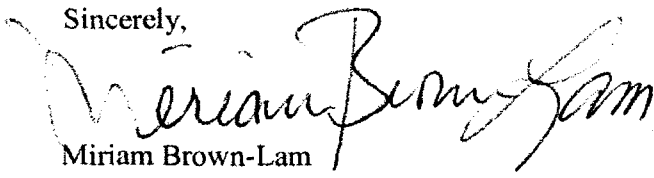

Please be advised that in your request, you stated you are, ". . . gathering vital information on the activities of the taxpayer-funded EPA that is important to the public's understanding of how its space agency spends public money and whether it is doing so in compliance with federal laws." NASA does not have control over the spend-plan for EPA. Additionally, although you are associated with the Associated Press, you are still required to provide justification as to how you intend to disseminate the information (see item #4 above) as well as address a public interest in the information (see #2 above). Requests by a requester to be placed in a specific 'category' for assessing fees or supporting a waiver or a reduction of fees must be considered on a case-by-case basis and should address these requirements in sufficient detail for this office to make an informed decision as to whether we can appropriately waive or reduce the fees in question. A past grant of a fee waiver does not entitle a FOIA requester to any future FOIA fee waiver. Each fee waiver request must be considered on its own merits. Therefore, you must be specific in addressing the twofold objective for fee waivers for each FOIA request you submit. Since you have asked for a variety of documents related to several subjects, please ensure you address each item in your request.

Given that you have referenced the EPA rather than NASA, we will not process your request until we receive clarification from you and you have addressed the above referenced items.

In accordance with 14 CFR § 1206.704 and Department of Justice guidance, we will not proceed further with your request until we receive additional clarification from you or a willingness to pay all associated fees. If we do not hear from you within 20 workdays of the date of this letter, we will assume you are no longer interested in this matter and close our file on your request. You may also choose to limit the scope of your request in order to reduce associated processing fees.

Please contact me at 202-358-0718 if you require further assistance.

Dear Ms. Young, Mr. McConnell, Mr. Jacobs,

It's Seth Borenstein, national science writer for the Associated Press, the worldwide wire service. Pursuant to the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, I request access to and copies of the following materials:

- All external correspondence, including e-mails, to NASA political appointees (Charles Bolden, Lori Garver, et al. and NASA legislative office) from Jan. 1, 2010 to March 18, 2010 about the cancellation of the Constellation program, the end of the space shuttle program, and the future of the human space program.
- All correspondence since Jan. 20, 2009 with members of the Human Spaceflight Committee, including but not limited to Norman Augustine, Sally Ride, Ed Crawley and Chris Chyba. And the same goes for all correspondence with former astronauts Buzz Aldrin, Neil Armstrong, Scott Horowitz, Robert "Hoot" Gibson, Robert Crippen, John Young, Charles Precourt, and William Readdy.
- All correspondence since Jan. 20, 2009 with potential commercial human spaceflight companies and executives with such companies about operations with NASA passengers to and from low earth orbit. That includes companies and representatives from Space X, X Cor, Armadillo, Orbital Science Corp., Blue Origin, Virgin Galactic, Masten Systems, Paragon, Sierra Nevada, United Launch Alliance, and Boeing Co.
- All studies since Jan. 1, 2004 about job losses from the end of the space shuttle program and Constellation programs at and around Kennedy Space Center, Marshall Space Flight Center and Johnson Space Center and Dryden Flight Research Center, including not just civil service but contractor job losses and any associated economic impact for the local communities.
- Any correspondence to and from Administrator Bolden discussing space shuttle safety in the wind down of the program, especially ones using the phrase "deathtrap" or "death trap."

As a news media representative I am only required to pay for the direct cost of duplication after the first 100 pages. As a news media representative, I ask you to please waive any applicable fees. In the following eight paragraphs I will underscore my reasons in response to your guidelines on fee requests. I understand that is a separate process than my FOIA request. So I ask that you initiate both processes simultaneously. In other words, please start processing the FOIA request itself as you are doing the fee-waiver request. In the event that you disallow my fee-waiver request, I pledge to pay the price of the FOIA request up to $200. Please notify me upon passing the $100 and $150 thresholds and reaching the $200 limit if this is before a decision on fee-waiver request of if my fee-waiver is denied, however unwarranted that event may be. This paragraph should serve to authorize you to begin to accrue such charges, pending a decision on the fee-waiver request.

Through this FOIA request I am gathering vital information on the activities of the taxpayer-funded EPA that is important to the public's understanding of how its space agency spends public money and whether it is doing so in compliance with federal laws.

Now, let me specifically address the six hurdles used by the FOIA for fee-waiver determination by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and other federal agencies.

1. The subject matter of the requested records must specifically concern identifiable operations or activities of the government. This is a NASA program involving billions of dollars.
2. The disclosure should be "likely to contribute" to an understanding of government operations or activities. This is self-evident. It involves the public human spaceflight program.
3. The disclosure must contribute to the understanding of the public at large, as opposed to the requester or a narrow segment of interested persons. Again this is obvious, it is about the decision to cancel the moon program and aftermath of the space shuttle program.
4. The disclosure must contribute "significantly" to the public understanding of government operations. This too is self-evident. It will significantly aid to the public to understand why publicly funded programs, in which billions have been spent, are ended and the repercussions.
5. The disclosure will not serve any commercial interest of me as an individual. My company does not sell newspapers individually. My company, The Associated Press, is a not-for-profit wire service (see the .org at the end of my e-mail) that is a consortium of members. Even the AP members will not likely sell a single newspaper more because of the disclosure. This is just a matter of a not-for-profit wire service fulfilling its public duty to ferret out the truth about the way government operates. In fact, the entire process will likely cost my company money because it involves my time.
6. The public interest in disclosure far outweighs commercial interest. First, as shown above there is massive amount of public interest. Second, as shown above, there is little if any commercial interest.

If my request is denied in whole or part, I ask that you justify all deletions by reference to specific exemptions of the Act and release all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. I reserve the right to appeal.

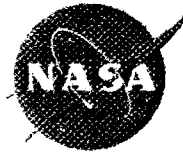

As I am making this information as a daily journalist and this information is of timely value, please contact me by telephone, rather than by mail if you have questions regarding this request. FOIA REQUEST
EXPEDITED REQUEST

Dear Judi:

Pursuant to the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. ^ 552, I request access to and copies of any and all correspondence concerning termination liability obligations or any funds that that Alliant TechSystems (ATK) would keep in reserve for for its Ares I rocket contract (or related documentation, including contract modifications and preliminary agreements) with NASA.

This correspondence may include, but is not limited to, e-mails to/from Michael Griffin, former NASA Administrator; Jeff Hanley, Constellation manager; Doug Cooke, associate administrator for the exploration systems mission directorate; and Steve Cook, former director of the Exploration Launch Projects at Marshall Space Flight Center. It also may take the form of written accounts of verbal instructions or agreements and is not limited to the four NASA officials mentioned previously; top officials at Johnson Space Center and Marshall Space Flight Center may have been involved in this decision-making.

The date range of this request is from Jan. 1 2008 though May 1, 2010.

I'm also seeking all correspondence between former NASA administrator Michael Griffin and NASA personnel at Johnson, Marshall and NASA headquarters between Jan 28, 2010 and May 1, 2010. Release of these documents - or any in this request - does not have to come at once and I would prefer to have them released as soon as any piece becomes available.

Please expedite the processing of this request. As a member of the news media, I am regularly engaged in disseminating information and the request covers the federal government activity. Moreover, there is an urgency to inform the public in this matter. Congress is set to act soon on the future of the Constellation moon rocket program and any information about its origin is vital for the national debate.

Delaying a response to my request would significantly compromise my ability to report on these issues in a timely fashion.

I agree to pay reasonable duplication fees for the processing of this request. As a representative of the news media I am only required to pay for the direct cost of duplication after the first 100 pages. Through this request, I am gathering information on that is of current interest to the public because this information is being sought for dissemination to the general public. If my request is denied in whole or part, I ask that you justify all deletions by reference to specific exemptions of the act. I will also expect you to release all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. I, of course, reserve the right to appeal your decision to withhold any information or to deny a waiver of fees. As I am making this request as a journalist and this information is of timely value, I would appreciate your communicating with me by telephone, rather than by mail, if you have questions regarding this request. I look forward to your reply within 20 business days, as the statute requires.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,
Mark K. Matthews

I would like to recover any proof of any of the above both documentary, and pictures for my Family History.

He would have been flown from Perth Western Australia to the USA, I expect tho via Sydney during those years due to reduced Air Routes. He was known to have worked with NASA at Woomera South Australia and at Carnarvon Satellite Tracking Stations.

I look forward to hearing from NASA to assist in clearing up this part of Alan Noel Barber (nicknamed Ali Barber) life story.

REF: FOIA 10-HQ-F-01283

Dear Mr. Matthew Alford:

Thank you for your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated and received in our office on April 24, 2010. Your request was for:

... a letter from NASA to Columbia Pictures about their film production "Close Encounters of the Third Kind". The letter is likely from 1976. As the Air Force sent a similar letter rejecting cooperation with the film in March 1976, I suspect NASA sent their rejection letter around that same time.

In accordance with NASA's FOIA regulations (14 CFR §1206.101(i), a diligent search was conducted for the records you requested, and no responsive records were located.

Under 14 CFR §1206.605, you may appeal this response by writing to:

Administrator
NASA Headquarters
Mail Stop: FOIA, Room 9R17
300 E Street, SW
Washington, DC 20546
ATTN: FOIA Appeals

Your appeal must be received within thirty calendar days from the date of this letter. A copy of your initial request and this denial letter must accompany the appeal. The appeal should be marked "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION APPEAL" both on the envelope and the face of the letter. In order to expedite the appellate process and ensure full consideration of your appeal, your appeal should contain a brief statement of the reasons you believe this initial decision to be in error.

Fees for processing this request are less than $15.00 and are not being charged in accordance with 14 CFR § 1206.700(i)(2).

Please call Ms. Josephine Sibley at (202) 358-2462 for further assistance.

We apologize for the delay in processing your request.

Sincerely,

While there is no information or correspondence I can think of or locate on 2, 3, 4, and 6, I can send a copy of the MOU to you (says nothing about media) which takes care of 5, and there is very limited material (1-2 messages) for #1 since Steve and I talked in my office on two occasions during the weekly ICESCAPE telecons regarding media participation. How do I go about responding to a FOIA for physical conversations?

Steve's office is ten feet from mine, we didn't send a lot of Email. This gentleman has sent a lot of nasty messages to Steve with a copy of me, I don't know him or what seems to be his concern. I'll respond as best I can if there is guidance on how to handle the physical conversations.

4. Denial or deferral of awards, grants, or funding made in response to applications seeking federal funds for research on global climate change, its causes and effects, methods of measuring changes in climate, and responses to climate change, in any scientific discipline and for any purpose;
5. Any and all documents referencing, describing, or creating: contracts for labor, consulting, or employment; purchases of capital or materiel; transfers or purchases of real property; and any other agreements entered by the funding grantee or its principal investigator in furtherance of or in conjunction with federally funded research on global climate change, its causes and effects, methods of measuring changes in climate, and responses to climate change, in any scientific discipline and for any purpose.

Response to FOIA Action 10-HQ-F-01289 on Global Climate Change Research

1) Grant applications seeking federal funds for any and all research on global climate change.

RESPONSE: We do not release information on proposals (ROSES and unsolicited) unless they are selected. This policy is captured in the Guidelines for Proposers, Section C-6. This handbook and its policies have been approved by legal and procurement.

2) Awards, grants, or funding notifications made pursuant to applications seeking federal funds for research on global climate change.

RESPONSE: We do release information on selected proposals (ROSES and unsolicited). We release the grantee name (PI and institution), title, abstract, and amount. This information is already publicly posted at the NSSC and <http://research.gov/>. We do not release the proposals themselves. That information is proprietary to the proposers and does not belong to NASA for release. See same reference in Guidebook.

ACTION: Have the NSSC (and NRESS) provide the necessary information to support requested item #2.

3) Accompanying and subsequent correspondence between your agency and grant applicants or recipients.

RESPONSE: This information should be releasable unless it is SBU or contains proprietary/procurement sensitive information. This might include negotiations between SMD and grantee as well as NSSC correspondence. (Hertz)

ACTION: Have the NSSC (and NRESS) provide the necessary information to support requested item #3.

4) Denial or deferral of awards, grants, or funding made in response to applications seeking federal funds for research on global climate change

RESPONSE: We do not release information on declined proposals. NASA does not officially own the proposal and we are prevented from distributing it to anyone else without the proposer's permission. This position is taken to comply with ITAR restrictions, prevent someone from profiting off of another persons ideas, and to preserve a proposer's financial competitiveness and technology development.

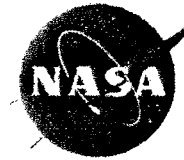

5) Any and all documents referencing, describing, or creating: contracts for labor, consulting, or employment.

RESPONSE: The FOIA requestor's inquiry is too broad. To adequately respond to this question, she needs to be much more specific about what she is seeking. Is it for global climate change research, something else, or everything?

Dear Ms. Young, Mr. McConnell, Mr. Jacobs,

It's Seth Borenstein, national science writer for the Associated Press, the worldwide wire service. Pursuant to the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, I request access to and copies of the following materials:

- All external and internal correspondence, including e-mails, to NASA political appointees (Charles Bolden, Lori Garver, et al. and NASA legislative office) and their spouses, the Assistant Administrator for Education Joyce Winterton, White House fellow Nicole Campbell from Dec. 1, 2009 to July 8, 2010 about the Summer of Innovation program. Especially information about selection of grant awardees.
- All correspondence and information sent to the NASA Office of Inspector General about the Summer of Innovation program.

And any correspondence with the State Department, National Security Council and White House about said trip.
- All correspondence, information, meeting notes, telephone notes, about meetings and telephone calls between Administrator Bolden and Marathon Oil officials since June 1, 2009. Especially about phone calls, e-mails and correspondence about project OMEGA. Also included in this request is information to and from Administrator Bolden to and from officials at the Ames Research Center.

As a news media representative I am only required to pay for the direct cost of duplication after the first 100 pages. As a news media representative, I ask you to please waive any applicable fees. In the following eight paragraphs I will underscore my reasons in response to your guidelines on fee requests. I understand that is a separate process than my FOIA request. So I ask that you initiate both processes simultaneously. In other words, please start processing the FOIA request itself as you are doing the fee-waiver request. In the event that you disallow my fee-waiver request, I pledge to pay the price of the FOIA request up to $200. Please notify me upon passing the $100 and $150 thresholds and reaching the $200 limit if this is before a decision on fee-waiver request of if my fee-waiver is denied, however unwarranted that event may be. This paragraph should serve to authorize you to begin to accrue such charges, pending a decision on the fee-waiver request.

Through this FOIA request I am gathering vital information on the activities of the taxpayer-funded EPA that is important to the public's understanding of how its space agency spends public money and whether it is doing so in compliance with federal laws.

Now, let me specifically address the six hurdles used by the FOIA for fee-waiver determination by the U.S.

Environmental Protection Agency and other federal agencies.

1. The subject matter of the requested records must specifically concern identifiable operations or activities of the government. This is a NASA program involving millions of dollars.
2. The disclosure should be "likely to contribute" to an understanding of government operations or activities. This is self-evident. It involves how taxpayer money is spent.
3. The disclosure must contribute to the understanding of the public at large, as opposed to the requester or a narrow segment of interested persons. Again this is obvious; it is about how taxpayer money is spent.
4. The disclosure must contribute "significantly" to the public understanding of government operations. This too is self-evident. It will significantly aid to the public to understand why publicly funded programs, in which millions have been spent, are operated in such ways...
5. The disclosure will not serve any commercial interest of me as an individual. My company does not sell newspapers individually. My company, The Associated Press, is a not-for-profit wire service (see the .org at the end of my e-mail) that is a consortium of members. Even the AP members will not likely sell a single newspaper more because of the disclosure. This is just a matter of a not-for-profit wire service fulfilling its public duty to ferret out the truth about the way government operates. In fact, the entire process will likely cost my company money because it involves my time.
6. The public interest in disclosure far outweighs commercial interest. First, as shown above there is massive amount of public interest. Second, as shown above, there is little if any commercial interest.

If my request is denied in whole or part, I ask that you justify all deletions by reference to specific exemptions of the Act and release all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. I reserve the right to appeal.

As I am making this information as a daily journalist and this information is of timely value, please contact me by telephone, rather than by mail if you have questions regarding this request. My phone number is 202-641-9454. My e-mail is sborenstein@ap.org. I look forward to your reply within 20 business days, as the statute requires.

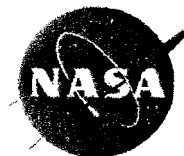

Thank you in advance for your assistance.

Sincerely,

We call your attention to President Obama's January 21, 2009 Memorandum concerning the Freedom of Information Act, in which he states:

All agencies should adopt a presumption in favor of disclosure, in order to renew their commitment to the principles embodied in FOIA... The presumption of disclosure should be applied to all decisions involving FOIA.¹

President Obama adds that "The Freedom of Information Act should be administered with a clear presumption: In the case of doubt, openness prevails." Nevertheless, if any responsive record or portion thereof is claimed to be exempt from production under FOIA, please provide sufficient identifying information with respect to each allegedly exempt record or portion thereof to allow us to assess the propriety of the claimed exemption. Vaughn v. Rosen, 484 F.2d 820 (D.C. Cir. 1973), cert. denied, 415 U.S. 977 (1974). In addition, any reasonably segregable portion of a responsive record must be provided, after redaction of any allegedly exempt material. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b).

For purpose of this request, the term "record" shall mean: (1) any written, printed, or typed material of any kind, including without limitation all correspondence, memoranda, notes, messages, letters, cards, telegrams, teletypes, facsimiles, papers, forms, records, telephone messages, diaries, schedules, calendars, chronological data, minutes, books, reports, charts, lists, ledgers, invoices, worksheets, receipts, returns, computer printouts, printed matter, prospectuses, statements, checks, statistics, surveys, affidavits, contracts, agreements, transcripts, magazine or newspaper articles, or press releases; (2) any electronically, magnetically, or mechanically stored material of any kind, including without limitation all electronic mail or e-mail, meaning any electronically transmitted text or graphic communication created upon and transmitted or received by any computer or other electronic device, and all materials stored on compact disk, computer disk, diskette, hard drive, server, or tape; (3) any audio, aural, visual, or video records, recordings, or representations of any kind, including without limitation all cassette tapes, compact disks, digital video disks, microfiche, microfilm, motion pictures, pictures, photographs, or videotapes; (4) any graphic materials and data compilations from which information can be obtained; (5) any materials using other means of preserving thought or expression; and (6) any tangible things from which data or information can be obtained, processed, recorded, or transcribed. The term "record" also shall mean any drafts, alterations, amendments, changes, or modifications of or to any of the foregoing.

Judicial Watch also hereby requests a waiver of both search and duplication fees pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II) and 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii). Judicial Watch is entitled to a waiver of search fees under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II) because it is a member of the news media. See National Security Archive v. U.S. Department of Defense, 880 F.2d 1381, 1387 (D.C. Cir. 1989). In fact, Judicial Watch has been recognized as a member of the news media in other FOIA litigation. See Judicial Watch, Inc. v. U.S. Department of Justice, 133 F. Supp.2d 52 (D.D.C. 2000); and, Judicial Watch, Inc. v. Dep't of Defense, 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 44003, *1 (D.D.C. June 28, 2006). Judicial Watch, Inc. regularly obtains information about the operations and activities of government through FOIA and other means, uses its editorial skills to turn this information into distinct works, and publishes and disseminates these works to the public. It intends to do likewise with the records it receives in response to this request.

Judicial Watch also is entitled to a complete waiver of both search fees and duplication fees pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii). Under this provision, records:

shall be furnished without any charge or at a charge reduced below the fees established under clause (ii) if disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii).

In addition, if records are not produced within twenty (20) business days, Judicial Watch is entitled to a complete waiver of search and duplication fees under the OPEN Government Act of 2007, Section 6(b).

Judicial Watch is a 501(c)(3), not-for-profit, educational organization, and, by definition, it has no commercial purpose. Judicial Watch exists to educate the public about the operations and activities of government, as well as to increase public understanding about the importance of ethics and the rule of law in government. The particular records requested herein are sought as part of Judicial Watch's ongoing efforts to document the operations and activities of the federal government and to educate the public about these operations and activities. Once Judicial Watch obtains the requested records, it intends to analyze them and disseminate the results of its analysis, as well as the records themselves, as a special written report. Judicial Watch will also educate the public via radio programs, Judicial Watch's website, and/or newsletter, among other outlets. It also will make the records available to other members of the media or researchers upon request. Judicial Watch has a proven ability to disseminate information obtained through FOIA to the public, as demonstrated by its long-standing and continuing public outreach efforts, including radio and television programs, website, newsletter, periodic published reports, public appearances, and other educational undertakings.

Given these circumstances, Judicial Watch is entitled to a public interest fee waiver of both search costs and duplication costs. Nonetheless, in the event our request for a waiver of search and/or duplication costs is denied, Judicial Watch is willing to pay up to $350.00 in search and/or duplication costs. Judicial Watch requests that it be contacted before any such costs are incurred, in order to prioritize search and duplication efforts.

In an effort to facilitate record production within the statutory time limit, Judicial Watch is willing to accept documents in electronic format (e.g. e-mail, .pdfs). When necessary, Judicial Watch will also accept the "rolling production" of documents.

If you do not understand this request or any portion thereof, or if you feel you require clarification of this request or any portion thereof, please contact us immediately at 202-646-5172 or jalthen@judicialwatch.org. We look forward to receiving the requested documents and a waiver of both search and duplication costs within twenty (20) business days. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

It's Seth Borenstein, national science writer for the Associated Press, the worldwide wire service. Pursuant to the federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, I request access to and copies of the following materials:

- All information, e-mails, transcripts, phone logs, correspondence between members of the media and the Office of Public Affairs, and the Office of the Administrator since May 23, 2009 regarding interview requests with Charles Bolden. All e-mails, transcripts, phone logs, correspondence between members of the media and David Weaver, Morrie Goodman, Bob Jacobs, Michael Cabbage, and David Steitz about interview requests for Charles Bolden since May 23, 2009.
- All correspondence between the Office of Public Affairs, the aforementioned Weaver, Goodman, Jacobs, Cabbage and Steitz and other governmental offices, including but not limited to the Department of State, about interview requests, media access and schedule planning for Administrator Charles Bolden.
- The daily schedule/calendar of Charles Bolden, NASA Administrator, from May 23, 2009 until Aug. 18, 2010. The travel calendar of Charles Bolden from May 23, 2009 to Aug. 18, 2010.
- A list of all interviews given by Charles Bolden to the media since May 23, 2009.

As a news media representative I am only required to pay for the direct cost of duplication after the first 100 pages. As a news media representative, I ask you to please waive any applicable fees. In the following eight paragraphs I will underscore my reasons in response to your guidelines on fee requests. I understand that is a separate process than my FOIA request. So I ask that you initiate both processes simultaneously. In other words, please start processing the FOIA request itself as you are doing the fee-waiver request. In the event that you disallow my fee-waiver request, I pledge to pay the price of the FOIA request up to $200. Please notify me upon passing the $100 and $150 thresholds and reaching the $200 limit if this is before a decision on fee-waiver request of if my fee-waiver is denied, however unwarranted that event may be. This paragraph should serve to authorize you to begin to accrue such charges, pending a decision on the fee-waiver request.

Through this FOIA request I am gathering vital information on the activities of the taxpayer-funded EPA that is important to the public's understanding of how its space agency spends public money and whether it is doing so in compliance with federal laws.

Now, let me specifically address the six hurdles used by the FOIA for fee-waiver determination by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and other federal agencies.

1. The subject matter of the requested records must specifically concern identifiable operations or activities of the government. This is a NASA program involving the highest-ranking public official of the agency and his interaction with the public.

2. The disclosure should be "likely to contribute" to an understanding of government operations or activities. This is self-evident. It involves how taxpayer money is spent and how government messages are conveyed to the taxpaying public.
3. The disclosure must contribute to the understanding of the public at large, as opposed to the requester or a narrow segment of interested persons. Again this is obvious; it is about how taxpayer money is spent and how messages are crafted to the taxpaying public.
4. The disclosure must contribute "significantly" to the public understanding of government operations. This too is self-evident. It will significantly aid to the public to understand what the agency's top official does and why and how the agency's message is crafted.
5. The disclosure will not serve any commercial interest of me as an individual. My company does not sell newspapers individually. My company, The Associated Press, is a not-for-profit wire service (see the .org at the end of my e-mail) that is a consortium of members. Even the AP members will not likely sell a single newspaper more because of the disclosure. This is just a matter of a not-for-profit wire service fulfilling its public duty to ferret out the truth about the way government operates. In fact, the entire process will likely cost my company money because it involves my time.
6. The public interest in disclosure far outweighs commercial interest. First, as shown above there is massive amount of public interest. Second, as shown above, there is little if any commercial interest.

If my request is denied in whole or part, I ask that you justify all deletions by reference to specific exemptions of the Act and release all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. I reserve the right to appeal.

As I am making this information as a daily journalist and this information is of timely value, please contact me by telephone, rather than by mail if you have questions regarding this request. My phone number is 202-641-9454. My e-mail is sborenstein@ap.org. I look forward to your reply within 20 business days, as the statute requires.

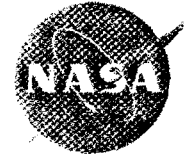

Thank you in advance for your assistance.

This is a request for records under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, (5 U.S.C. subsection 552) as amended.

I request that I be sent

- 1) A copy of the administrative tracking folder contents for FOIA Request 09-HQ-F-00271.
- 2) A copy of the transmittal letter to the USAF for FOIA Request 09-HQ-F-00271.

If my request is denied in whole or part, I ask that you explain all deletions by reference to specific categories of exempted information but, as required by law, release any segregable portions that are left after the exempted material has been redacted. I also request that redactions be made using blackout not white-out.

I agree to pay reasonable costs associated with search and reproduction of the requested records up to a maximum of $20.00 without requesting my further permission in writing. I note the '2 hours search time and first 100 pages free' provisions of the FOIA.

In order to assist you in properly classifying this non-commercial FOIA request, I assert that I am a private US citizen seeking information for use in personal research.

I ask that The NASA FOIA staff bear in mind The Obama Administration's openness initiatives, specifically President Barack Obama's January 21, 2009 memorandum on the Freedom of Information Act (the "Obama Memo") which calls on all government agencies to adopt a "presumption of disclosure" when administering the FOIA. And also Attorney General Holder issued FOIA guidelines on March 19, 2009, (the "Holder Memo"), in which Holder stated the Department of Justice would defend withholdings only if the law prohibits release of the information or if the release would result in foreseeable harm to a government interest protected by one of the statutory exemptions in the FOIA.

Thank you for your assistance.

Dear Lynne Skelley:

This is an acknowledgement response to your request received in the NASA Headquarters Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) office. Your request was dated and received September 29, 2010. Your request was for:

... a copy of policy or procedural documentation outlining key procurement milestones to support your agency's acquisition planning efforts. FedSources would like to know the lead times for the various purchasing methods, such as new contracts, task orders on existing contracts, GSA Schedule orders, and open market purchases. Many agencies refer to their standard lead times as "PALT", which stands for "Procurement Administrative Lead Time" or "Procurement Action Lead Time" or "Procurement Administrative Lead Time". Other terms used include "cut-off" or "acquisition deadline". Your agency's lead time information might be named differently. The lead times are used throughout the year to help plan for timely execution of an acquisition. It is in the best interest of the government and industry to work to the same timelines and to help mitigate the workload burdens on both as the year-end approaches.

Your request has been assigned FOIA Case Number: 11-HQ-F-00002. All requests are processed in chronological order based upon the date it was received. NASA processes all FOIA requests in a multi-track processing system, based upon the date of receipt and the amount of work and time involved in processing the request. Issues concerning expedited processing, fees, fee waiver requests, fee status, clarification of request, etc., will be addressed under separate letter when your request comes up in the queue.

Please contact me at (202) 358-0718 if you require further assistance.

Sincerely,

Re: Request under the FOIA, in reply refer to Archive# 20100995NAS001

Dear Mr. McConnell :

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), I hereby request the following:

All documents related to "the several specific steps" that White House Chief of Staff Rahm Emanuel and White House Counsel to the President Bob Bauer instructed your agency to take in a 16 March 2010 memo to all agency and department heads. The memo is available at http://www.whitehouse.gov/sites/default/files/rss_viewer/foia_memo_3-16-10.pdf

The "specific steps" that the memo instructed your office to implement include:

- 1) "update[ing] all FOIA guidance and training materials to include the principles articulated in the President's memorandum" and*
- 2) "assess[ing] whether you are devoting adequate resources to responding to FOIA requests promptly and cooperatively."*

If you regard any of these documents as potentially exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements, I request that you nonetheless exercise your discretion to disclose them. As the FOIA requires, please release all reasonably segregable non exempt portions of documents. To permit me to reach an intelligent and informed decision whether or not to file an administrative appeal of any denied material, please describe any withheld records (or portions thereof) and explain the basis for your exemption claims.

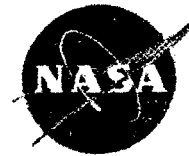

As a representative of the news media, the National Security Archive qualifies for "representative of the news media" status under 5 U.S.C. Sec. 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II) and, therefore, may not be charged search and review fees. (See National Security Archive v. U.S. Department of Defense, 880 F.2d 1381 (D.C. Cir. 1989), cert denied, 110 S.Ct. 1478 (1990)). This request is made as part of a scholarly and news research project that is intended for publication and is not for commercial use. For details on the Archive's research and extensive publication activities please see our website at www.nsarchive.org.

To expedite the release of the requested documents, please disclose them on an interim basis as they become available to you, without waiting until all the documents have been processed. Please notify me before incurring any photocopying costs over $100. If you have any questions regarding the identity of the records, their location, the scope of the request or any other matters, please call me at (202) 994-7000 or email me at foiamail@gwu.edu. I look forward to receiving your response within the twenty day statutory time period.

REF: FOIA 11-HQ-F-00024

Dear Mr. Gittell:

Thank you for your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated October 8, 2010 and received in our office on October 9, 2010. Your request was for:

Period: August 1st, 2010 to present

Scope:

- 1) All communications between employees of NASA and Steve Binkley and William Brinkman of the Department of Energy Office of Science regarding proposed radiation research involving live non-human primates.

For the purposes of this FOIA request, "communications" includes, without limitation, e-mail messages and other electronic communications, letters, faxes, meeting agendas, minutes, notes, summaries of conversations, and any other form of hand-written, typed or recorded communication.

In accordance with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's (NASA) FOIA regulations (14CFR § 1206.601), a requester is required to describe the record sought so that a knowledgeable official can locate the record with a reasonable amount of effort. Descriptive information about a record may be divided into two broad categories:

- (i) Category I is file-related and includes information such as type of record, title, index citation, subject area, date the record was created, or its originator.
- (ii) Category II is event-related and includes the circumstances that resulted in the record being created or the date and circumstances surrounding the event the record covers.

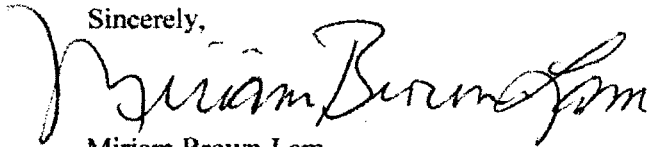

Generally, a record is not reasonably described unless the description contains sufficient Category I information to permit the conduct of an organized, non-random search based on the existing filing arrangements and retrieval systems, or unless the record contains sufficient Category II information to permit inference of the Category I elements needed to conduct such a search.

NASA is not equipped to conduct a text search for a terms such as "Steve Binkley and William Brinkman of the Department of Energy Office of Science regarding proposed radiation research involving live non-human primates" throughout all files in the Agency that will produce a list of responsive records. Agencies are not required to conduct an unreasonably burdensome search for records. Your request, not identifying a specific timeframe of possible responsive documents and a limited group of people, is unreasonable and burdensome. Therefore, we ask that you provide a reasonable timeframe of possible responsive records, i.e., 2009 to present, along with a specific group of people or an office in which to search for responsive records rather than 'employees of NASA.'

In accordance with 14 CFR 1206.704, we will not proceed further with your request until we receive additional clarification from you. If we do not hear from you within 20 workdays of the date of this letter, we will assume you are no longer interested in this matter and will close the file on your request.

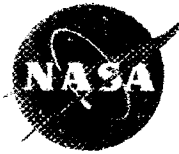

Please feel free to contact Ms. Grace Reardon at (202) 358-0884 if you require further assistance.

Sincerely,

Reply to Attn of:

Mr. Dennis R. Jenkins
(b) (6)

REF: FOIA 11-HQ-F-00049

Dear Mr. Jenkins:

This is an acknowledgement response to your request received in the NASA Headquarters Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) office. Your request was dated October 6, 2010 and received October 7, 2010. You stated:

Currently, I am in the process of preparing a new edition of my book, aimed largely as a reference for historians and future programs that need to remember what Shuttle did. The current outline for the book shows it to be a two-volume boxed set of approximately 1,200 pages and 500,000 words that covers the concept of lifting reentry from the days of Eugen Sänger to when we safely tuck the Orbiters into their museums. It will be heavily illustrated.

After that somewhat lengthy preamble, to the point of this letter: I am searching for data, and believe a Freedom of Information Act request is the only way to obtain it.

You requested:

... Space Shuttle Program expenditures from the beginning (1969) through fly-out (2011). This data is not Center-specific, hence my writing HQ.

Although I will take this data in any form that it is (hopefully) readily available in, at a minimum I would like total expenditures (not appropriations or authorizations) per fiscal year. I would like the data in then-year dollars (although if somebody can easily convert it into FY10 dollars in addition, that is appreciated) [sic].

More ideally, I would like to have expenditures per project per year, with the projects being the normal SSP breakdown: Orbiter Project, External Tank Project, SRM, SRB, SSME, Launch & Landing Project, and whatever JSC called themselves (Mission Operations?), plus the "special" projects such as Shuttle Upgrades, Advanced Solid Rocket Motor, etc.

Any data on readily identifiable support functions (TDRSS, research support from Ames, Dryden, Langley, or Glenn, etc). would also be ideal.

I would also like to get employment numbers per year per project (or per center, or better yet, per project per center). Contractor and civil servant.

I know that for a long time this data, on a yearly basis, was readily available in the form of a huge wall-size chart that we used to keep in our budget office. Hopefully the comptroller or somebody has easy access to this?? [sic].

The book is intended to be an in-depth academic history, and over the years I have sorted through most of the technical and much of the political material. But budgets are a black hole other than what has been publicly reported, and I do not trust that data. I would prefer to have data with a good pedigree, hence this request.

Your request has been assigned FOIA Case Number: 11-HQ-F-00049. All requests are processed in chronological order based upon the date it was received. NASA processes all FOIA requests in a multi-track processing system, based upon the date of receipt and the amount of work and time involved in processing the request. G'Day Ms. Young,

I am a researcher and author who writes about Space Shuttle. The current edition (the third) of my book may be found at:

http://www.amazon.com/Space-Shuttle-National-Transportation-Missions/dp/0963397451/ref=sr_1_1?s=gateway&ie=UTF8&qid=1284836570&sr=8-1

I believe my career lets me cover the program from a unique perspective. In addition to working at KSC, during my 30 year career on the program I spent six years building the Vandenberg Launch Site, and have been detailed to JSC on several occasions (but never MSFC or SSC). An unexpected turn in my career came when ADM Gehman asked me to be join his staff at the Columbia Accident Investigation Board, where I was largely responsible for preparing the final report. Afterward, I served as technical staff on the President's Commission on Implementation of U.S. Space Exploration Policy and then as the Verville Fellow at the Smithsonian's National Air and Space Museum before returning to KSC. As an author, I have done numerous commercial books, several academic-press books, and have also done the official history of the X-15 research airplane and aviation pressure suits for the NASA Aeronautics Research Mission Directorate.

Currently, I am in the process of preparing a new edition of my book, aimed largely as a reference for historians and future programs that need to remember what Shuttle did. The current outline for the book shows it to be a two-volume boxed set of approximately 1,200 pages and 500,000 words that covers the concept of lifting reentry from the days of Eugen Sänger to when we safely tuck the Orbiters into their museums. It will be heavily illustrated.

After that somewhat lengthy preamble, to the point of this letter: I am searching for data, and believe a Freedom of Information Act request is the only way to obtain it.

Specifically, I need Space Shuttle Program expenditures from the beginning (1969) through fly-out (2011). This data is not Center-specific, hence my writing HQ.

Although I will take this data in any form that it is (hopefully) readily available in, at a minimum I would like total expenditures (not appropriations or authorizations) per fiscal year. I would like the data in then-year dollars (although if somebody can easily convert it into FY10 dollars in addition, that is appreciated).

More ideally, I would like to have expenditures per project per year, with the projects being the normal SSP breakdown: Orbiter Project, External Tank Project, SRM, SRB, SSME, Launch & Landing Project, and whatever JSC called themselves (Mission Operations?), plus the "special" projects such as Shuttle Upgrades, Advanced Solid Rocket Motor, etc.

Any data on readily identifiable support functions (TDRSS, research support from Ames, Dryden, Langley, or Glenn, etc). would also be ideal.

I would also like to get employment numbers per year per project (or per center, or better yet, per project per center). Contractor and civil servant.

I know that for a long time this data, on a yearly basis, was readily available in the form of a huge wall-size chart that we used to keep in our budget office. Hopefully the comptroller or somebody has easy access to this??

The book is intended to be an in-depth academic history, and over the years I have sorted through most of the technical and much of the political material. But budgets are a black hole other than what has been publicly reported, and I do not trust that data. I would prefer to have data with a good pedigree, hence this request.

I am willing to pay up to $200 for initial research; if you believe acquiring the data will cost more than this, please contact me beforehand.

Thank you in advance for your assistance. Please contact me if there are any questions.

Best Regards,

-dj

Your request has been assigned FOIA Case Number: 11-HQ-F-00131. All requests are processed in chronological order based upon the date it was received. REF: 11-HQ-F-00146

Dear Mr. David C. Fowler:

Thank you for your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated and received October 20, 2010 and assigned Case File Number 11-HQ-F-00146. Your request was for:

I would appreciate personnel counts for certain NASA investigative occupations (which the OPM does not parse by specific NASA office) in the Central Personnel Data File), as follows: Annual, end-of-fiscal year (30 Sept) counts for FY10 for these occupations: 0080, 1801, 1805, 1802, 1810, 1811.

And, please indicate which office each count belongs to, such as: Office of Inspector General and Office of Security and Program Protection Etc.

The NASA Headquarters program office (s) conducted a search for agency records using the above listing as its search criteria. We have provided an attached spreadsheet to respond the Annual, end-of-fiscal year (30 Sep) counts for FY10 for the above occupations, however, portions of the document that relate to the specific offices of the career fields are exempt from release under 5 U.S.C. 552 (b) (2).

Exemption 2 exempts from mandatory disclosure records that are "related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency." Courts have interpreted the exemption to encompass two categories of information, internal matters of a relatively trivial nature ("low 2" information) and more substantial internal matters, the disclosure of which would risk circumvention of a legal requirement ("high 2" information).

Under 14 CFR §1206.605, you may appeal this response by writing to:

Administrator
NASA Headquarters
Mail Stop: FOIA, Room 9R17
300 E Street, SW
Washington, DC 20546
ATTN: FOIA Appeals

Your appeal must be received within thirty calendar days from the date of this letter. A copy of your initial request and this denial letter must accompany the appeal. The appeal should be marked "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION APPEAL" both on the envelope and the face of the letter. In order to expedite the appellate process and ensure full consideration of your appeal, your appeal should contain a brief statement of the reasons you believe this initial decision to be in error.

Fees for processing this request are less than $15.00 and are not being charged in accordance with 14 CFR § 1206.700(i)(2).

Please contact Ms. Josephine Sibley at 202-358-2462, if you require further assistance.
