Completed the transfer of 49 objects that were outside the park's scope of collection to Ft. Larned. The park has been funded for a new movie and it is anticipated that the use of the collection along with the research for items in the collection will increase during FY2007. The park has also started all the descriptions for books in the collection to conform to the Chicago Manual of Style.

This year the park received a large collection of pictures, diaries, letters, ribbons, and other items belonging to Andrew J. Birdsall, a Civil War veteran and early superintendent of the Fredericksburg National Cemetery. Of particular interest were the 18 diaries, several of which cover Birdsall's Civil War service, his superintendency at Fredericksburg, and time in Louisiana at the Baton Rouge

Per the GRKO Museum Corrective Action Plan, ANCS+ backlog numbers are being cross-referenced with accession book and folder information. This resulted in an adjustment to backlog numbers. Approximately 385 accession records still need to be reviewed. This may require further adjustments to the backlog in FY07.

Catalogued and Accessioned new material belonging to Revueltosaurus callenderi. Revueltosaurus is not an ornithischian dinosaur as previously supposed. Features such as the presence of a postfrontal, crocodile-normal ankle and paramedian osteoderms with anterior bars place R. callenderi within the Pseudosuchia, closer to crocodylomorphs than to dinosaurs. This considerably changes

Two (2) deaccessions of repatriated NAGPRA eligible items were processed during FY06. This resulted the loss of 3,710 items from the overall item count for the park. In addition, nearly 12,000 duplicate records were eliminated, further reducing the overall catalog item count. The parks backlog was reduced by 3,728 newly cataloged items.

After completing a 100% inventory of objects and specimens stored in the park, several items missing for decades were deaccessions, including a statue of early cave explorer Alvin McDonald missing since the 1950s. (It was rumored to have been buried in the park due to its deteriorated condition.)
