United States Government
NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD
OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL
Washington, DC 20570-0001

June 9, 2014

This letter is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), dated May 24, 2014, requesting “the list of investigations closed during calendar year 2013.” The request further states to “please be sure to include for each closed investigation the case number, the case title or subject and/or description, the closing date and opening date, and any other releasable fields.” You also requested to receive a response in an electronic format and provided an e-mail address of mikerav@verizon.net. The request was assigned FOIA tracking number OIG-2014-006.

As you requested, I am providing a “list of investigations closed during calendar year 2013,” as an enclosure to this correspondence. For each entry, the list provides the case number, allegation, type of violation, date opened and date closed. The records do not contain a “title” field. For the reason stated below, entries for the subject’s name have been omitted from the response pursuant to the policies embodied in FOIA Exemptions 6 and 7(C).

Information about individuals referred to in the OIG’s completed/closed investigations are exempt from disclosure pursuant to Exemptions 6 and 7(C). See 5 U.S.C. §§ 552(b)(6) and (7)(C). Release of information about individuals referred to in such documents would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of their personal privacy, and you have made no showing of public interest in the disclosure of such information that would outweigh those privacy interests. See, e.g., Department of Justice v. Reporters Committee, 489 U.S. 749 (1989); Department of the Air Force v. Rose, 425 U.S. 352 (1976).

Because of the limited amount of chargeable time that it took to respond to your request, the applicable fees are waived.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(C). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

I am responsible for the above determinations. You may obtain a review thereof under the provisions of § 102.117(c)(2)(v) of the NLRB's Rules and Regulations by filing an appeal with the Chairman, National Labor Relations Board, Washington, DC 20570, within 28 calendar days from the date of this letter, such period beginning to run on the calendar day after the date of this letter. Thus, an appeal must be received by the close of business (5:00 p.m.) on July 7, 2014. Any appeal should contain a complete statement of the reasons upon which it is based.

Sincerely,

David Berry
Inspector General
