Hi sir,

USCYBERCOM has provided me with the attached files that are responsive to your request. I do not have the ability to burn these images to a CD, so please accept them in this form. These are the only patches/seals they could locate within the 2 free hours of search time that you are afforded as an "all others" requester. However, they do believe that these are the only ones that exist. If you believe there are others in existence, you should submit your request directly to each of the 5 commands.

I'm closing your request as completed. There are no fees associated with processing your request.

Please acknowledge that you can open each file.

Thanks,

Very Respectfully,

KENDALL COOPER
