Re: FOIA No. FY16-33
Response Letter

VIA EMAIL AND CERTIFIED MAIL

On February 26, 2016, you filed a request for information pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552 (2012) and the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's (FERC or Commission) FOIA regulations, 18 C.F.R. § 388.108 (2015). You requested a copy of the Commission's 2015 Critical Energy Infrastructure Information (CEII) Request Log. A search of the Commission's non-public files identified one document responsive to your request. After review of the responsive material and relevant law, the Commission has determined to grant your request in part, and deny your request in part, pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6.<sup>1</sup>

FOIA Exemption 6

FOIA Exemption 6 protects files that if disclosed would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy. Specifically, FOIA Exemption 6 protects the names, personal addresses and personal information of private citizens. However, the names, addresses, and other data of commercial entities do not implicate a privacy interest that is protected by FOIA Exemption 6 and can be released. The requested log consists of the names of all persons and entities that request CEII material from the Commission throughout 2015.

After review of the responsive material and relevant law, Commission staff has determined that the names of private citizens implicate a privacy interest and are protected from disclosure by FOIA Exemption 6, and will be redacted. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6). See, e.g., Bibles v. Oregon Natural Desert Ass'n, 519 U.S. 355 (1997); National Ass'n of Retired Fed. Employees v. Horner, 879 F.2d 873 (D.C. Cir. 1989). However, the names, addresses, and other data of commercial entities do not implicate a privacy interest that is protected by FOIA Exemption 6 and will be released to you.

As provided by FOIA and 18 C.F.R. §388.110(a)(1) of the Commission's regulations, any appeal from this determination must be filed within 45 days of the date of this letter. The appeal must be in writing, addressed to Max Minzner, General Counsel, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, and clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Please include a copy to Charles A. Beamon, Associate General Counsel, General and Administrative Law, at the same address.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Leonard M. Tao". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Leonard" being the most prominent.

Leonard M. Tao
