Re: FOIA Request R17-020

This letter is a final response from the Chemical Safety and Hazard Investigation Board (CSB) to your e-mail of March 13, 2017, in which you made a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for:

...a copy of the index or listing page that identifies the titles of these CSB Orders:

CSB Orders 011, 012, 020, 034, 036, 040, and 041

Alternatively, I request a copy of the title page for each of these orders. I limit my request to the uppermost portion of the title page that identifies the titles of the orders.

Your request was received by this office on March 13, 2017, and assigned file number R17-020.

Please find the documents you requested attached to the e-mail containing this letter.

If you believe that this FOIA determination has been made in error, you may contact our FOIA Public Liaison, Kara Wenzel, Acting General Counsel, at 202-261-7625, for any further assistance and to discuss any aspect of your request. Ms. Wenzel is also the CSB's current Chief FOIA Officer.

Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of

Hazard Investigation Board

Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001, e-mail at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at 202-741-5770; toll free at 1-877-684-6448; or facsimile at 202-741-5769.

If you are not satisfied with the response to this request, you may submit an administrative appeal. Such an appeal must be made in writing and must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days of the date of this response letter (March 10, 2017). An appeal should include a copy of your initial request; a copy of this letter; and a statement of the circumstances, reasons, or arguments supporting your position. To ensure proper handling, you should mark an appeal letter and its envelope as a "FOIA Appeal." FOIA appeals should be submitted to:
