A. Important Notice

The law and implementing OGE regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below.

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the Implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

A. Important Notice

The law and implementing OGE regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below.

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

A. Important Notice

The law and implementing OGE regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below.

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

A. Important Notice

The law and implementing OGE regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below:

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

A. Important Notice

The law and implementing OGE regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below.

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

A. Important Notice

The law and implementing OGE regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below.

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the Implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

A. Important Notice

The law and implementing OGE regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below.

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual, or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

A. Important Notice

The law and implementing regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person, stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below.

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

U.S. Office of Government Ethics, Suite 500
1201 New York Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Mr. Cusick,

As we discussed, I am sending by fax the attached request for disclosure records concerning officials of the U.S. Department of Education.

Your office yesterday delivered to me the most recent records for Margaret Spellings and Sara Martinez Tucker. I am grateful to your office for your cooperation and speed fulfilling that request.

With this letter and accompanying Form 201, I'd like to expand my request to cover all available records for Secretary Spellings and Undersecretary Tucker, as well as all available records for any other Senate-confirmed individuals serving within the Education Department.

I'd also like to include two former department officials, former Secretary Rod Paige and former Deputy Secretary William D. Hansen.

In the attached Form 201, there was space for me only to include some of the names. In Box F of Item 5, I refer to this letter to give a fuller explanation of the records I am seeking.

My full list for Item 5 of Form 201 consists of:

ne, 02, 03, 04, 05, ne, 06 Dup	✓ -Margaret Spellings	✓ -Michell Clark (ne)

The law and implementing OGE regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below.

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

A. Important Notice

The law and implementing OGE regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below.

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual, or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

A. Important Notice

The law and implementing OGE regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below.

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

A. Important Notice

The law and implementing OGE regulations require that a report or other covered record not be available to any person except upon written application by such person stating his or her name, occupation and address, and that the person be aware of the prohibitions on improper use, set forth below.

Section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 C.F.R. § 2634.603(f) of the implementing OGE regulations provide that it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $11,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

I am aware that pursuant to section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and the implementing OGE regulations, it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $100. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.

I am aware that pursuant to section 105(c) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended and 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(7)(D) of the implementing OGE regulations, it is unlawful for any person to obtain or use a report:

- (1) for any unlawful purpose;
- (2) for any commercial purpose, other than by news and communications media for dissemination to the general public;
- (3) for determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual, or
- (4) for use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The Attorney General may bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a report for any such prohibited purpose as set forth above. The court may assess against such a person a penalty in any amount not to exceed $5,000. Such remedy shall be in addition to any other remedy available under statutory or common law.
