Control No.: 17-0058-FOIA

This letter is in response to your May 19, 2017 request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552. You requested the following information:

A digital/electronic copy of the database maintained at MARAD of current vessel operation waivers granted to the Coastwise Trade Laws, including such fields such as the name of the vessel, identity of the operator/owner, date of the waiver, basis or reason for the waiver, geographic area of operation, etc.

MARAD can waive the U.S.-build requirement for the smallest of passenger vessels (12 passengers or less) if the issuance of a waiver would not cause an existing U.S. operator or shipyard an "undue adverse effect."

MARAD does not maintain a coastwise trade waiver database. However, attached is a listing, by year, of small vessel waivers that have been granted. The list shows the vessel name and a docket number for the years 2005-2017 (to date). With this information you can go to www.regulations.gov and search the docket for each vessel utilizing the docket number. In the search box, type in "MARAD-year-docket number" (for example, MARAD-2017-0002). For each vessel seeking a waiver, the docket will contain such documents as the application, the Federal Register notice, and the waiver letter if one was issued.

The Maritime Administration is not the final decision maker regarding waivers of cargo related coastwise laws and therefore does not keep waiver letters in this area. For information in this regard, we recommend you contact (via telephone):

U.S. Customs and Border Protection
Border Security and Trade Compliance Division
Office of International Trade
202-325-0030

This release correspondence represents the agency's final response to include all records located and determined to be responsive to your request. Please find enclosed the small vessel waiver list, totaling 30 pages, released in its entirety and provided to you free of charge.

You have a right to appeal. Should you wish to do so, you must send your appeal and a copy of this letter, within 90 days of the date of this letter. The appeal should be sent to foia.marad@dot.gov or mailed to the following address:
