DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

RE: 2017-02-186

VIA EMAIL

This is the Department of Treasury's (Treasury) final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated February 17, 2017. You sought various records pertaining to "Treasury INTRANet home page. Second, a copy of the main pages associated with these sections of the Treasury INTRANet: What's New, Councils/Working Groups, Ethics/Legal, For Managers, Forms/Directives/Policy, Records/Information Mgt, Reports/Publications, Strategic Planning/Budget, and Treasury Web Sites. Third, a copy of listing of Reports and Publications from the Treasury INTRANet."

Your request has been processed under the provisions of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552. Of the 16 pages reviewed, sections of 13 pages will be withheld pursuant to Exemption 6 of the FOIA as described below. After carefully considering these records, I am releasing a total of 3 pages in their entirety.

FOIA Exemption 6 exempts from disclosure personnel or medical files and similar files the release of which would cause a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This requires a balancing of the public's right to disclosure against the individual's right to privacy. The privacy interests of the individuals in the records you have requested outweigh any minimal public interest in disclosure of the information. Any private interest you may have in that information does not factor into the aforementioned balancing test.

Since Treasury's partial denial response constitutes an adverse action, you have the right to appeal this determination within 90 days from the date of this letter. By filing an appeal, you preserve your rights under FOIA and give the agency a chance to review and reconsider your request and the agency's decision. Your appeal must be in writing, be signed by you or your representative, contain the rationale for your appeal, and cite the FOIA reference number noted above. Please address your appeal to:

FOIA Appeal
FOIA and Transparency
Privacy, Transparency, and Records
Department of the Treasury
1500 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20220

If you submit your appeal by mail, clearly mark the letter and the envelope with the words “Freedom of Information Act Appeal.” Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days from the date of this letter.

If you would like to discuss this response before filing an appeal to attempt to resolve your dispute without going through the appeals process, you may contact Treasury DO FOIA Public Liaison, Ryan Law, at (202) 622-8098 or email FOIAPL@treasury.gov.

If you are unable to resolve your FOIA dispute through our FOIA Public Liaison, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) also mediates disputes between FOIA requesters and federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. If you wish to contact OGIS, you may write directly to:

Office of Government Information Services
National Archives and Records Administration
8601 Adelphi Road – OGIS
College Park, MD 20740-6001
ogis@nara.gov
ogis.archives.gov
(202) 741-5770
(877) 684-6448

If any questions arise concerning this action, please contact Kristen Kontinopoulos at FOIA@treasury.gov. Please reference FOIA request 2017-02-186 when inquiring.

Sincerely,

Paul

Treasury Orders and Directives Program Mission Statement

To maintain a current and comprehensive portfolio of policy and operating guidance for the Department of the Treasury, by effective process management and collaboration with internal Treasury stakeholders.

The Treasury Orders, Treasury Directives and Departmental Offices Directives contained on this website show Administrative Edits, to reflect (misspelled words, reorganizing or technical changes, updates of legal citations, new editions of forms, links to selected web sites, etc.)

If you are drafting an order or directive and would like assistance, please contact us at the number or e-mail address above. We can provide one-on-one sessions about the process or your specific document.
