Dear Requester:

This is the final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, originally received by the United States Secret Service (Secret Service) on February 7, 2019, for information pertaining to each Semi-Annual Report on Presidential Protection Costs from 2010 to the present, those reports being required by the Presidential Protection Act (PPA) of 1976, Pub. L. No. 94-524, § 9.

After a detailed review of all potentially responsive records, 24 pages were released and 63 pages were withheld in their entirety. Exemptions under the FOIA Statute, Title 5 U.S.C. § 552 have been applied as follows:

PPA reports dated 10/2015 to 3/2018 are all in draft form (7 reports, 63 pages) and were withheld in entirety under Exemption (b)(5). PPA reports dated 4/2018 to 9/2019 were released in entirety (3 reports, 24 pages). All reports prior to October 2015 are classified and withheld in full under Executive Order 13526, Sect. 3.2.

Enclosed are the documents responsive to your request, as well as a document that explains the exemptions in more detail. Withheld information is pursuant to the exemptions marked below.

U.S. Secret Service

FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

Message from the Director

I am pleased to submit this report, Expenditures Pursuant to the Presidential Protection Assistance Act of 1976, which has been prepared by the U.S. Secret Service (Secret Service). This document has been compiled pursuant to section 9 the Presidential Protection Assistance Act of 1974, P.L. 94-524, as amended (18 U.S.C. 3056 note) (the Act).

The Secret Service relies on its federal partners to provide valuable support for protective operations in a wide range of contexts, and this report reflects reimbursements to those agencies made under the Act. The Secret Service appreciates the cooperation of these agencies as we leverage the expertise of their personnel and assets to provide world class protective services for our nation's leaders, their families, and visiting foreign heads of state/heads of government.

Protection does not end with the close of the work day, and the Act authorizes the Secret Service to secure the non-governmental properties of its protectees as part of the agency's comprehensive operational security plans. Costs for personnel, equipment, and services continue to rise with necessary updates, to include updating technical security measures and replacing outdated equipment. The Secret Service strives to minimize these costs while maintaining an effective security footprint at these properties.

Pursuant to congressional requirements, this report is being provided to the following Members of Congress:

The Honorable Richard Shelby
Chairman, Senate Committee on Appropriations

The Honorable Patrick Leahy
Ranking Member, Senate Committee on Appropriations

The Honorable Nita Lowey
Chairman, House Committee on Appropriations

The Honorable Kay Granger

Executive Summary

The Presidential Protection Assistance Act of 1976, P.L. 94-524 as amended (18 U.S.C. 3056 note) (the Act) requires the Secret Service to report semi-annually on expenditures made pursuant to the Act.

In order to carry out its protective mission, the Secret Service relies on the support of other federal agencies to provide personnel, assets, facilities, and services that either do not exist within this agency or are temporarily unavailable due to heightened mission needs. The Presidential Protection Assistance Act of 1976, P.L. 94-524 as amended (18 U.S.C. 3056 note) recognizes that reliance and directs other agencies to provide their assistance. Specifically, section 6 provides:

Executive department and Executive agencies shall assist the Secret Service in the performance of its duties by providing services, equipment, and facilities on a temporary and reimbursable basis when requested by the Director and on a permanent and reimbursable basis upon advance written request of the Director; except that the Department of Defense and the Coast Guard shall provide such assistance on a temporary basis without reimbursement when assisting the Secret Service in its duties directly related to the protection of the President or the Vice President or other officer immediately next in order of succession to the office of the President.

This report provides FY 2018 Q3/Q4 expenditure data related to Secret Service reimbursements of other Federal agencies, as envisioned by section 6.

The Act also recognizes the need for the Secret Service umbrella of protection to extend to a protectee's designated, non-governmental properties, to include residences. Pursuant to sections 3 and 4 of the Act, the Secret Service is authorized to fully secure one property and to secure other designated properties subject to a cumulative cap on expenditures. When expenditures in excess of the cap are required, the Secret Service provides notification to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate respectively.

This report provides expenditure data associated with each designated, non-governmental property for FY 2018 Q3/Q4.

Finally, the Act envisions that the Secret Service could reimburse State and local governments for assistance in protecting the President's one fully secured non-governmental property or local airports that the President uses while in transit to that property, provided that the property and the airport are located in a municipality or political subdivision where the permanent resident population is 7,000 or less and other conditions are met. Section 12 of the Act stipulates two caps on expenditures related to State and local reimbursement. This report provides expenditure data for FY 2018 Q3/Q4 associated with State and local reimbursements as envisioned in Section 12 of the Act.

Director

Executive Summary

The Presidential Protection Assistance Act of 1976, P.L. 94-524 as amended (18 U.S.C. 3056 note) (the Act) requires the Secret Service to report semi-annually on expenditures made pursuant to the Act.

In order to carry out its protective mission, the Secret Service relies on the support of other federal agencies to provide personnel, assets, facilities, and services that either do not exist within this agency or are temporarily unavailable due to heightened mission needs. The Presidential Protection Assistance Act of 1976, P.L. 94-524 as amended (18 U.S.C. 3056 note) recognizes that reliance and directs other agencies to provide their assistance. Specifically, section 6 provides:

Executive department and Executive agencies shall assist the Secret Service in the performance of its duties by providing services, equipment, and facilities on a temporary and reimbursable basis when requested by the Director and on a permanent and reimbursable basis upon advance written request of the Director; except that the Department of Defense and the Coast Guard shall provide such assistance on a temporary basis without reimbursement when assisting the Secret Service in its duties directly related to the protection of the President or the Vice President or other officer immediately next in order of succession to the office of the President.

This report provides FY 2019 Q3/Q4 expenditure data related to Secret Service reimbursements of other Federal agencies, as envisioned by section 6 of the Act.

The Act also recognizes the need for the Secret Service umbrella of protection to extend to a protectee's designated, non-governmental properties, to include residences. Pursuant to sections 3 and 4 of the Act, the Secret Service is authorized to fully secure one property and to secure other designated properties subject to a cumulative cap on expenditures. When expenditures in excess of the cap are required, the Secret Service provides notification to the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate.

This report provides expenditure data associated with each designated, non-governmental property for FY 2019 Q3/Q4, as envisioned by sections 3 and 4 of the Act.

Finally, the Act envisions that the Secret Service could reimburse State and local governments for assistance in protecting the President's one fully secured non-governmental property or local airports that the President uses while in transit to that property, provided that the property and the airport are located in a municipality or political subdivision where the permanent resident population is 7,000 or less and other conditions are met. Section 12 of the Act stipulates two caps on expenditures related to State and local reimbursement.

This report provides expenditure data for FY 2019 Q3/Q4 associated with State and local reimbursements, as envisioned in section 12 of the Act.
