FOIA No. 2010-411

This letter responds to your recent Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, which was assigned to the Consumer & Governmental Affairs (“CGB”) and Enforcement (“EB”) Bureau on May 6, 2010. You are seeking copies of all informal complaints received at the FCC regarding the television series “LOST” between January 2003 and the present.

CGB conducted a search of the databases in which we maintain records of informal complaints filed by, or on behalf of, consumers. Our search identified approximately three complaints responsive to your request, which are enclosed. EB informed CGB that a search of its records identified 12 documents responsive to your request, copies which are also enclosed.

Mike Hennigan of CGB redacted all personal identifying information relating to the individuals who submitted or are named in the enclosed complaints based on Exemption 6 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose information that would clearly invade personal privacy.<sup>1</sup> Mr. Hennigan also redacted some FCC employee names based on Exemption 2 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose internal personnel rules and practices.<sup>2</sup>

The FCC receives many complaints and comments that do not involve violations of the Communications Act or any FCC rule or order. Thus, a complaint or comment does not necessarily indicate any wrongdoing by any individuals or entities named in the complaint or comment.

FOIA and FCC rules require the FCC to charge requesters for time spent searching for and reviewing responsive documents, and for copying them.<sup>3</sup> Based on your classification as an “all other” requester, the FCC does not charge you for the first two hours of search time and the first 100 pages of copying.<sup>4</sup> Because preparing the response to your request falls within these limits, the FCC is not charging you for processing it.

If you think this response denies your FOIA request, you may file an application for review of this decision with the FCC's Office of the General Counsel within 30 days. Both the application and envelope containing it must be marked "Review of Freedom of Information Action" and the application should refer to FOIA Control No. 2010-411.

Problem Description

I would like to report something I have found alarming in a "sneak-peak" of the new series of Lost, which I have found on <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4bTvAUVPyLI>. If that link does not work, the title is "New Lost Season 4 Sneak Peak!!! New Hatch!, The Orchid".

The following are scenes that are flashed at lightning speed-subliminally-so you have to play at very slow speeds to find them... At 0:39 there is a scene of a man watching you, at 0:49, is a scene of a building that looks a lot like building 7 of the World Trade Center just before it went down, however, Lost fans say it is some building owned by "the Dharma Initiative" which is supposedly in Narvik, Norway. Then, at 01:09 is a message saying, "God loves you as He loved Jacob", at 01:42 is an upside-down image of someone riding a bicycle. These are four subliminal images in just two minutes! How many do they put in an hour-long episode? I don't like that. Isn't that illegal?

I know these are just silly things, but I don't like what they could be doing. For example, well into season 2, I decided that I didn't like Lost anymore because the plot had gone stupid and it was getting worse with each episode. Yet I feel an urge to keep watching anyway. Why? Am I getting fed some mind-controlling subliminal messages saying something like, "Watch Lost! Watch every episode! Don't leave us!" or could it be worse? One of the messages in this very clip is, "God loves you..." I am sure that non-Christians would not like hearing that, that they may have been brainwashed by watching Lost. I am a Christian and I don't like it, because this is NOT the proper method in which to spread Christianity!

If I have not sent this to the proper department, please forward it to them. Please investigate.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

P.S. I am an American citizen, but I am currently living in Norway. That is why I thought of filing a complaint with you.

Complaint Summary:

There was a commercial on before the Rolling Stones performed at the halftime show of the Super Bowl. It was a commercial for the TV show "Lost". Near the end they show the TV screen they are looking at in the commercial and you can clearly see a naked woman with both breasts openly exposed. I would think after the Janet Jackson wardrobe malfunction incident of years past they would have put an end to this. Thank you.

Complaint Summary:

I'm disturbed by the graphic violence, physical and psychological torture displayed on LOST to humans and animals in the 10/18 and 10/25/06 episodes. Beating "Sawyer" to a bloody pulp, killing a rabbit, using lasers on people (10/18), beating them with sticks. I loved this show and am angry that I have to stop watching it now.

Complaint Summary:

I was trying to watch the Country Music Awards last night with my two children (8 and 10) when ABC kept running the commercial for LOST that comes on Wednesday night. The commercial showed a man and a woman in a steamy sex scene. They were standing up, kissing and pressed against each other while the man pulled the woman's shirt off. They did not show nudity but you could see the sides of her breast. This is unacceptable for a commercial. They do this all the time. Desperate Housewives, Sex and the City, and any other show. The commercials are entirely too racy for children. It doesn't matter what children are watching. I try to make sure that my children are not exposed to sexual material as much as possible. It makes me sick that I cannot even let my children watch a regular, clean TV show because I have to be careful of the commercials.

Complaint Summary:

Dear FCC,; In all my 25+ years of TV watching, I've never been inspired to complain to you until tonight. ABC's season finale of Lost employed a plot device that has become too common on today's Television: the feel-good murder. It's time you put a stop to it.; When Sawyer killed one of the others tonight with righteous indignation, justifying himself by saying "this is for when you took the boy off the boat" - he succeeded in befriendng the entire viewing audience. No doubt, all of America agreed with him. The just sentence for so bizarre a kidnapping as we witnessed on the high seas during season one was the death penalty. -Regardless of the fact that this particular "other" was so merciful that he choose to disobey orders and NOT kill the three good guys who carried out the anti-"other" operation with dynamite explosions.; What I'm arriving at is the following conclusion: it's one thing when the TV airwaves ALLUDE to killing, for the sake of plot development. But it's quite another when the airwaves are used to teach the masses how and when to kill in order to gain a pleasurable sense of justice. It is likely, unfortunately, that tonight's television entertainment will encourage unnecessary violence in our society. ; Please enact and enforce regulations that will prevent such misuse of the public airwaves.

KISSIMMEE, FLORIDA 34746

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sirs,

I wish to register a complaint to you against the ABC Television network. While I am aware the "so-called" adult language on network television has become more crude (and sadly accepted, even by your commission) an incident has occurred that I must bring to your attention. I was highly offended by it and I hope that your organization will see fit to look into it.

On the September 29th episode of the new series "LOST" at about 45 minutes into the show, the Iraqi character, Shahid, very clearly says the word f..k! I played it back several times and it is unmistakable. My family and I were mortified. This, of course, is a new low in television.

After hiking up a cliff to try to get better reception for an airplane transponder, this character is shocked and amazed when the radio suddenly comes to life. It is at this time when he utters "f..k!" I am certain that there are a hundred words or phrases that would have been appropriate other than that vulgarity. I have personally erased the ABC network from all of my TV sets.

I hope that you will look into this matter and show some fortitude. The network should be held accountable and be fined to the fullest extent. If your Commission allows this to slip by, then you are nothing but a pawn to the entertainment industry. The majority of the public does not want to hear F..k on it's airwaves! It is unacceptable!!!

Sincerely,

B6

Complaint Summary:

[REDACTED] wrote on 1/13/2005 4:04:39 PM : Dear FCC Commissioner; I wish to file a complaint against the ABC Network for indecency; On January 12, 2005 at 8pm ET, ABC (via affiliate WCVB channel 5 Boston); aired the show "LOST." During The broadcast a male character and his legal sister were shown French kissing and it was implied that they had sex. My wife, myself and my 8 year old daughter were (up until last night) Fans of this show and watched it weekly. We were disgusted That ABC would air such immoral filth during a family viewing Time, knowing full well that many children are fans of "LOST."; I demand that ABC be fined and be reprimanded for this outrage.; I am confident that you will come down on ABC and punish Them with a hefty fine. Please let us know if you have Any questions.; Sincerely; [REDACTED], Norfolk, MA 02056;
