Thanks for this Catherine -

I tried to pitch for a visual story yesterday but with all the hype around Mr Trump's speech and the build up and now post analysis it's been difficult.

I will however try again! It's always nice to see a thoughtful feel good story like this!

Subject: Media question: Trump to Mexico City?

Hi there -- Will the U.S. Secret Service be able to adapt to this last-minute decision by Mr. Trump to visit Mexico?

Which day was the U.S. Secret Service informed of Mr. Trump's decision to travel there?

Has the USSS committed additional resources to Mexico in order to deal with the security situation?

Best,

Hi (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

The Secret Service has always relied heavily upon the assistance received from our law enforcement partners during protective visits. The necessary level of security could not be provided without that support.

While we understand this support often results in costs to the communities that host protective visits, the Secret Service is not equipped or funded to reimburse communities for these costs.

Very best,

Earlier I called about campaign security and you referred me to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) He is out of the office for the day since we have a Trump visit.

Broadly I'm asking:

--does the secret service dictate how many local police/how much security is needed for visits from campaigns for president?

--if not, who does?

--does the secret service/federal government ever reimburse cities like Cleveland?

Thanks

Hi there -

Do you have a comment on Donald Trump's comments tonight? They are, when riffing that Hillary Clinton's agents should be stripped of their guns:

"I think that her bodyguards should drop all weapons. They should disarm, right? Take their guns away, she doesn't want guns. Take their - and let's see what happens to her. Take their guns away. Ok. It would be very dangerous."

Will Service investigate these comments or talk to Mr Trump? Thanks.

Hi there -

Do you have a comment on Donald Trump's comments tonight? They are, when riffing that Hillary Clinton's agents should be stripped of their guns:

"I think that her bodyguards should drop all weapons. They should disarm, right? Take their guns away, she doesn't want guns. Take their - and let's see what happens to her. Take their guns away. Ok. It would be very dangerous."

Will Service investigate these comments or talk to Mr Trump? Thanks.

And is the secret service protecting any other of Trump's children or any other members of his family? If Ivanka is the only one, why is she the only of Trump's children currently under protection?

Thanks for any answers you can offer me!

Hi Cathy—

I hope all is well. I know you've dealt with my colleague (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) in the past and she passed along your info.

We've been digging through the latest round of campaign finance disclosures and came across reimbursements from USSS to both campaigns. I know this is fairly traditional, but I was hoping you might help unpack how the reimbursements are determined. (Is it pro-rata seat cost? A fixed reimbursement rate for the length of the flight?) Separately, we are also looking into Mr. Trump's trip to Mexico last month and wanted to check whether his flight by a Mexican Air Force helicopter to Los Pinos was paid for by USSS or picked up by the Mexican government.

Happy to chat on the phone if that's easier. My desk line is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Thanks,

Cathy,

We follow the guidelines that are set forth by CFO/FMD for all candidates and all campaigns. I have attached the documentation. Please contact CFO/LRC for further information.

With regard to the helicopter support in Mexico, we were a guest of the Mexican government and have not been asked to reimburse them at this time. I'm not sure that we need to comment on that particular question.

Hi Cathy—

I hope all is well. I know you've dealt with my colleague (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) in the past and she passed along your info. We've been digging through the latest round of campaign finance disclosures and came across reimbursements from USSS to both campaigns. I know this is fairly traditional, but I was hoping you might help unpack how the reimbursements are determined. (Is it pro-rata seat cost? A fixed reimbursement rate for the length of the flight?) Separately, we are also looking into Mr. Trump's trip to Mexico last month and wanted to check whether his flight by a Mexican Air Force helicopter to Los Pinos was paid for by USSS or picked up by the Mexican government. Happy to chat on the phone if that's easier. My desk line is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Thanks,

All,

Alfred "Al" Baldasaro, who is a New Hampshire State Legislator and Trump supporter, did a radio interview recently (today or yesterday). During, he stated, "Hillary Clinton should be put in the firing line & shot for treason."

PIOC and Region 1 currently has no info regarding this. The information has been passed.

We have received 2 inquiries; WAP0 and Politico.

Per SOP, I plan to respond and advise that we will not provide a comment regarding this unless anyone has any objections.

Hello (b)(6);(b)(7) and Catherine, We are reporting out Trump's fairly alarming comments just now seeming to intimate a "second amendment" solution to Hillary Clinton. Full quote below. How can I reach you? Many thanks, Jim

15:05:02 "Hillary wants to abolish essentially the second amendment. By the way, if she gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the second amendment people, maybe there is, I donno. But I tell you what, that will be a horrible day, if Hillary gets to put her judges in, right now we're tied. You see what's going on. We're tied cuz Scalia, this was not supposed to happen. Justice Scalia was going to be around for 10 more years at least and this is what happened. That was a horrible thing. So Hillary essentially, now speaking to the NRA folks, who are great. What you, I tell you, so they endorsed me very early. My sons are members. Subject: Question regarding Trump comment from N.C. rally today

I'm curious if the Secret Service has a comment on Donald Trump's comment at his North Carolina rally today. We already have a story up on it here, but the line I'm asking about is:

"If [Hillary Clinton] gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I don't know."

Does the secret service read this as a threat against Hillary Clinton, or Trump inciting others to violence against her (or maybe against judicial nominees)? Will there be an investigation into these comments?

Thanks very much! I'm looking forward to hearing back from you guys as soon as you get a chance!

RTQ:

On August 2, 2016 at approximately 10:11 p.m., outside of Trump Towers in New York City, an individual was arrested just prior to the arrival of Republican Presidential Nominee Trump's motorcade. The subject refused to comply with repeated verbal commands from Secret Service agents and attempted to walk through a secured area along the sidewalk. The subject was immediately detained and arrested. A subsequent search revealed the subject was in possession of a concealed handgun. Later it was determined that the subject is a retired law enforcement officer, with a lawful permit to carry a concealed weapon. The subject expressed no direction of interest towards any Secret Service Protectees. The subject will be federally charged with violating 18 USC 3056 (D), Knowingly and Willfully Obstructing a Federal Agent. The subject will have an initial appearance before a magistrate judge today. Mr. Trump entered Trump Towers without incident.

Hey Cathy,

Attached is a spreadsheet with how the RNC/DNC tweets did. I'm happy to go over it with you this afternoon (or whenever).

Given that it's a small sample size, I think that it would be kind of tough to draw too many hard conclusions, but it certainly is useful to think about how different types of post as well as posts at different times of day perform. I've broken those out in another couple of tabs, but again we face the small sample size challenge so far.

Would love to catch up on a couple of other things if you have some time later as well.

Hi (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Does the U.S. Secret Service have a reaction to Donald Trump's comments this afternoon regarding the use of firearms as recourse for the potential selection of Supreme Court justices by Hillary Clinton?

Here's the quotation in full:

"And by the way, and if she gets to pick, if she gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I dunno."

Would the USSS consider this a threat to Clinton, or to hypothetical Supreme Court justices?

Thanks so much in advance for your help on this.

Hi (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

I'm curious if the Secret Service has a comment on Donald Trump's comment at his North Carolina rally today. We already have a story up on it here, but the line I'm asking about is:

"If [Hillary Clinton] gets to pick her judges, nothing you can do, folks. Although the Second Amendment people, maybe there is, I don't know."

Does the secret service read this as a threat against Hillary Clinton, or Trump inciting others to violence against her (or maybe against judicial nominees)? Will there be an investigation into these comments?

Thanks very much! I'm looking forward to hearing back from you guys as soon as you get a chance!

Hello-

Is the Secret Service aware of a remark that Trump made in North Carolina regarding the second amendment and the Supreme Court?

Will there be an investigation into Trump's remark?

Thanks very much,

Hi (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) – any guidance or comment on this? Is Secret Service investigating? Thanks – (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

<http://www.cnn.com/2016/08/23/politics/russia-hack-new-york-times-fbi/index.html?adkey=bn>

(CNN) Hackers thought to be working for Russian intelligence have carried out a series of cyber breaches targeting reporters at the New York Times and other US news organizations, according to US officials briefed on the matter.

The intrusions, detected in recent months, are under investigation by the FBI and other US security agencies. Investigators so far believe that Russian intelligence is likely behind the attacks and that Russian hackers are targeting news organizations as part of a broader series of hacks that also have focused on Democratic Party organizations, the officials said.

The FBI declined to comment and a spokesperson for The New York Times would not confirm the attacks or the investigation.

"Like most news organizations we are vigilant about guarding against attempts to hack into our systems," said New York Times Co. spokeswoman Eileen Murphy. "There are a variety of approaches we take up to and including working with outside investigators and law enforcement. We won't comment on any specific attempt to gain unauthorized access to The Times."

The breaches targeting reporters and news organizations are part of an apparent surge in cyber attacks in the past year against entities beyond US government agencies.

US intelligence officials believe the picture emerging from the series of recent intrusions is that Russian spy agencies are using a wave of cyber attacks, including against think-tanks in Washington, to gather intelligence from a broad array of non-governmental organizations with windows into the US political system.

News organizations are considered top targets because they can yield valuable intelligence on reporter contacts in the government, as well as communications and unpublished works with sensitive information, US government officials believe.

The Times has brought in private sector security investigators who are working with US national security officials to assess the damage and determine how the hackers got in, according to the US officials.

Attention has grown on the hacks thought to be carried out by Russians since Wikileaks released a trove of emails stolen from the DNC in the weekend before the Democratic Party's convention to nominate Hillary Clinton for president. US intelligence officials say there is strong evidence showing Russian intelligence behind the DNC hack. The Clinton campaign has claimed the hack as proof that the Russians are trying to aid the election of Donald Trump.

<http://www.cnn.com/2016/08/23/politics/russia-hack-new-york-times-fbi/index.html?adkey=bn>

(CNN) Hackers thought to be working for Russian intelligence have carried out a series of cyber breaches targeting reporters at the New York Times and other US news organizations, according to US officials briefed on the matter.

The intrusions, detected in recent months, are under investigation by the FBI and other US security agencies. Investigators so far believe that Russian intelligence is likely behind the attacks and that Russian hackers are targeting news organizations as part of a broader series of hacks that also have focused on Democratic Party organizations, the officials said.

The FBI declined to comment and a spokesperson for The New York Times would not confirm the attacks or the investigation.

"Like most news organizations we are vigilant about guarding against attempts to hack into our systems," said New York Times Co. spokeswoman Eileen Murphy. "There are a variety of approaches we take up to and including working with outside investigators and law enforcement. We won't comment on any specific attempt to gain unauthorized access to The Times."

The breaches targeting reporters and news organizations are part of an apparent surge in cyber attacks in the past year against entities beyond US government agencies.

US intelligence officials believe the picture emerging from the series of recent intrusions is that Russian spy agencies are using a wave of cyber attacks, including against think-tanks in Washington, to gather intelligence from a broad array of non-governmental organizations with windows into the US political system.

News organizations are considered top targets because they can yield valuable intelligence on reporter contacts in the government, as well as communications and unpublished works with sensitive information, US government officials believe.

The Times has brought in private sector security investigators who are working with US national security officials to assess the damage and determine how the hackers got in, according to the US officials.

Attention has grown on the hacks thought to be carried out by Russians since Wikileaks released a trove of emails stolen from the DNC in the weekend before the Democratic Party's convention to nominate Hillary Clinton for president. US intelligence officials say there is strong evidence showing Russian intelligence behind the DNC hack. The Clinton campaign has claimed the hack as proof that the Russians are trying to aid the election of Donald Trump.

Dear (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Catherine & (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Just returned home & wanted to thank you for the time and insight yesterday. We're all very excited about the project on this end to be sure.

We're now working on a very basic narrative outline for six suggested hours and will forward your way ASAP. This will serve as an initial road map & give us a clearer idea of the starting point for requesting access to various USSS assets / operations / events.

On a parallel track, we will also start working access to the Clinton and Trump campaigns, as well as to the Obama White House, where National Geographic connections may provide us some inside traction.

As mentioned, we have significant experience in law enforcement / DOD projects. Telling your story will be an honor and responsibility we do not take lightly.

What we didn't mention is that in every instance: whether Navy SEALs, US Army Special Forces, Air Combat Rescue Teams or DOS (including significant collaboration with Grace Moe at DSS!), we've always been asked back for follow-on projects! Proof positive, perhaps, that enabling us to responsibly peek behind the curtain & humanize personnel has been a win-win for all involved.

Looking forward to next steps. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I will be point on the project for now.

Please feel free to call or email with any questions of concerns. In the meantime, we'll get you the clips promised as soon as possible.

I won't get into any advice we or anyone else may or may not have offered any protectee of the USSS and won't qualify one way or the other if any was even offered in this case.

But, it's worth noting that perceived 'last minute' trips are routine in political campaigns and the USSS is not only more than capable of handling such missions, they execute them as a matter of routine course. They are the best protective force in the world for a reason.

Cheers,

I won't get into any advice we or anyone else may or may not have offered any protectee of the USSS and won't qualify one way or the other if any was even offered in this case.

But, it's worth noting that perceived 'last minute' trips are routine in political campaigns and the USSS is not only more than capable of handling such missions, they execute them as a matter of routine course. They are the best protective force in the world for a reason.

Cheers,

Presidential and vice presidential nominees can request protection for their children through the President who can issue an Executive Order.

Candidate's children have received Secret Service protection in the past.

Chelsea Clinton received Secret Service protection for 34 days in 2008 while her mother was a candidate

Hi (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) -

I wanted to reach out to see if you guys could confirm for me that the Secret Service is now protecting Ivanka Trump? If so, when did her protection begin? And is the secret service protecting any other of Trump's children or any other members of his family? If Ivanka is the only one, why is she the only of Trump's children currently under protection?

Thanks for any answers you can offer me!

Subject: FW: CPD News: 2016 Application of Criteria

FYI.....

Criteria for the first debate was met by only two Candidates according to the criteria pushed forward by the CPD.

CPD Invites Hillary Clinton and Donald J. Trump to Debate

Washington, D.C. (September 16, 2016) - The nonpartisan, non-profit Commission on Presidential Debates ("CPD") announced today that it has applied its Nonpartisan Candidate Selection Criteria for 2016 General Election Debate participation to determine eligibility to participate in the presidential debate to take place at Hofstra University in Hempstead, New York on September 26 and the vice-presidential debate to take place on October 4 at Longwood University in Farmville, Virginia.

Pursuant to the criteria, which were publicly announced on October 29, 2015, those candidates qualify for debate participation who: (1) are constitutionally eligible to hold the office of President of the United States; (2) have achieved ballot access in a sufficient number of states to win a theoretical Electoral College majority in the general election; and (3) have demonstrated a level of support of at least 15 percent of the national electorate, as determined by five selected national public opinion polling organizations, using the average of those organizations' most recent publicly-reported results.

The Board of Directors of the CPD convened today to apply the criteria. Of the many declared candidates, four candidates presently satisfy the first two criteria: Hillary Clinton, Donald Trump, Gary Johnson and Jill Stein.

With respect to the third criterion, on August 15, 2016, CPD announced the five polls it would rely upon, which were selected with the professional advice of Dr. Frank Newport, Editor-in-Chief of Gallup. The polls were selected based on: the reliable frequency of polling and sample size used by the polling organization; the soundness of the survey methodology employed by the polling organization; and the longevity and reputation of the polling organization. The five selected polls are: ABC-Washington Post; CBS-New York Times; CNN-Opinion Research Corporation; Fox News; and NBC-Wall Street Journal.

With the assistance of Dr. Newport, the Board determined that the polling averages called for in the third criterion are as follows: Hillary Clinton (43%), Donald Trump (40.4%), Gary Johnson (8.4%) and Jill Stein (3.2%). Accordingly, Hillary Clinton and her running mate, Tim Kaine, and Donald Trump and his running mate, Mike Pence, qualify to participate in the September 26 presidential debate and the October 4 vice-presidential debate, respectively. No other candidates satisfied the criteria for inclusion in the September 26 and October 4 debates. The criteria will be reapplied to all candidates in advance of the second and third presidential debates.

The CPD has successfully sponsored the presidential and vice presidential general election debates since 1988. The CPD's planning for the 2016 debates has extended over a period of years and has drawn upon the CPD's now-extensive experience in sponsoring general election debates. CPD announced the five journalists who will moderate those debates: Lester Holt, Elaine Quijano, Martha Raddatz, Anderson Cooper, and Chris Wallace.

The candidates who have qualified to participate today previously have committed to participate in the debates sponsored by the CPD. For more information, see www.debates.org.

Hope you've been well and had a good end of the summer. Belated congratulations on finishing up the conventions.

I had a question about the Trump campaign. Yesterday the campaign started including Trump's traveling press pool in their motorcade. But today, they said it is no longer possible and the reason they gave was that USSS said their resources are being stretched too thin amid a "heightened state of security" to keep the chase/press plane clean.

Does USSS have any comment on this?

Cathy,

We follow the guidelines that are set forth by CFO/FMD for all candidates and all campaigns. I have attached the documentation. Please contact CFO/LRC for further information.

With regard to the helicopter support in Mexico, we were a guest of the Mexican government and have not been asked to reimburse them at this time. I'm not sure that we need to comment on that particular question.

Hi Cathy—

I hope all is well. I know you've dealt with my colleague (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) in the past and she passed along your info.

We've been digging through the latest round of campaign finance disclosures and came across reimbursements from USSS to both campaigns. I know this is fairly traditional, but I was hoping you might help unpack how the reimbursements are determined. (Is it pro-rata seat cost? A fixed reimbursement rate for the length of the flight?) Separately, we are also looking into Mr. Trump's trip to Mexico last month and wanted to check whether his flight by a Mexican Air Force helicopter to Los Pinos was paid for by USSS or picked up by the Mexican government.

Happy to chat on the phone if that's easier. My desk line is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Cathy,

We follow the guidelines that are set forth by CFO/FMD for all candidates and all campaigns. I have attached the documentation. Please contact CFO/LRC for further information.

With regard to the helicopter support in Mexico, we were a guest of the Mexican government and have not been asked to reimburse them at this time. I'm not sure that we need to comment on that particular question.

Hi Cathy—

I hope all is well. I know you've dealt with my colleague (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) in the past and she passed along your info.

We've been digging through the latest round of campaign finance disclosures and came across reimbursements from USSS to both campaigns. I know this is fairly traditional, but I was hoping you might help unpack how the reimbursements are determined. (Is it pro-rata seat cost? A fixed reimbursement rate for the length of the flight?) Separately, we are also looking into Mr. Trump's trip to Mexico last month and wanted to check whether his flight by a Mexican Air Force helicopter to Los Pinos was paid for by USSS or picked up by the Mexican government.

Happy to chat on the phone if that's easier. My desk line is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Thanks,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and Cathy,

The authority for the Service to reimburse campaigns is the FEC regulations, 11 CFR part 100. For commercial travel, which includes commercial flights, charter aircraft, taxis, and rental automobiles, the specific cite is 11 CFR section 100.52; for non-commercial aircraft, trains, boats, or automobiles, the specific cite is 11 CFR.93.

The section on noncommercial travel specifically requires security personnel such as the Secret Service to reimburse campaigns for seats. The section on commercial travel is silent as to security personnel; however, I believe the requirement is read into the regulation to avoid contributions based on traditional practice dating to when we originally began protecting major candidates, which was recognized by the Comptroller General.

The method of reimbursement under noncommercial travel is specifically pro rate share. For commercial travel, we would reimburse the actual cost or pro rata share.

Good evening Sir,
Operations in the JIC went well today. The majority of our partners had JIC manning.

City officials had a 1000 press conference. Chief Williams mentioned ASAIC Rowe in a positive comment but no media questions were directed toward our operations. The city will continue to update the media daily at 1000 and 1900. USSS participation not required.

USSS social media featured our employees at work throughout Cleveland. We also had a post remembering baton rouge and another reminding people that weapons were prohibited at RNC welcome event. All posts were successful in both reach and engagement.

CNN and NBC have both requested that you appear live on their morning shows. I have respectfully declined citing operations. My assumption is that world events would enter too much into their questioning and would not allow our NSSE talking points to get out.

INCIDENT OF INTEREST:

On 04/19/16, at approximately 1618 hours (EDT), SA (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (USSS/ HOU) contacted the PIOC to report the following:

On 04/19/16, the Houston field office received a call from concerned citizen (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) SA (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) stated he read an article on www.drudgereport.com entitled www.infowars.com/rap-song-threatens-riots-trump-assassination-media-celebrates/.

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) was upset that the article mentions a "rap song that encourages the assassination of Donald Trump." The article states a track entitled "F*ck Trump Anthem" which contains a number of violent threats towards the presidential candidate, including a vow to cave Trump's head in with a shovel, and a promise that if he visits Baltimore, Trump will "die". One of the lines in the rap also talks about filling Trump with hollow point bullets." The artists are listed as "YG" (NRID) and "Nipsey Hussle" (NRID).

On same date, at 1612 hours during routine Candidate Monitoring, IA (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) advised the PIOC of a news article from www.INFOWARS.com. "Rap Song Threatens Riots, Trump Assassination; Media Celebrates" posted on April 19, 2016. The article reports that on April 18, 2016, YG & Nipsey Hussle uploaded their song to Youtube <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WkZ5e94QnWk> titled "FDT (Fuck Donald Trump)"; with approximately 217,578 views. Further information obtained from INFOWARS news article states: "Entitled 'F**k Donald Trump' states the track was originally performed live in front of 20,000 people at the Coachella music festival this past weekend by hip-hop artists YG and Nipsey Hussle. Another post via Twitter, posted by 'The Patriot', also reflected the link on their page as well at <https://twitter.com/ThePatriot143/status/722464153995243522/photo/1>.

All,

I spoke with PID about this issue yesterday due to media calls received by the LAX office. Joe is correct with his statement. YG's "artistic expressions" were examined but no one was sent out on it.

LAX was advised to inform the media that the Secret Service is aware of this issue but will not comment on matters of protective intelligence.

Cathy,

Typically in these situations, if lyrics etc come to the attention of USSS/PID we will look into them but it is very rare that we will even send someone out to interview. We will usually categorize it BUT we understand that the "artist" is afforded certain "artistic liberties." This clown would have to be calling for violence and inciting action and even then I've never once seen an incident where the USSS is involved in censoring. It's probably a bad song and he's looking for controversy to sell it.

Hi, Cathy.

Spotted this, this AM.

Can you provide details, if true? How the process works, how USSS came to know about it, etc?
Thanks in advance.

Rapper Claims Secret Service Interest In Album Resulted In Censored Lyrics. VIBE reports that rapper YG's "album was forced to be revamped after it got in the hands of the secret service." Vibe says, "His opposition to [Donald] Trump...resulted in the Secret Service listening to [the album]," and YG "was forced to censor some of his lyrics about his political views on Trump, after they called up his label in regards to the song." In an interview, YG claims, "The Secret Service called in on Universal and was like, 'Send me the lyrics to YG's album because we gotta see what he's talking about' ... They did the whole album. That's why on 'FDT' on the album, it's parts of the song that I had to blank out." YG adds, "Ever since John F. Kennedy got assassinated, they can't have no people promoting kill Trump, shoot Trump, pop Trump, all that. And we had those types of lines up in the song."

I don't know that it takes 'official confirmation' to assign the detail though, does it? ABC is reporting Pence is the pick, citing sources with direct knowledge. We also have video of Pence arriving at Teterboro, NJ private airport and climbing into a black SUV, getting a police escort into NYC. We did a Network-wide Special Report interrupt more than 90 minutes ago. CNN, NBC and others have all confirmed he's been picked as well.

It's my understanding – please correct me if I'm wrong – that as soon as the invitation is accepted, a detail is assigned. Not that it has to wait for a public appearance (11am/Friday) or for the VP's name to be entered into nomination at the convention.

Rapper Claims Secret Service Interest In Album Resulted In Censored Lyrics. VIBE reports that rapper YG's "album was forced to be revamped after it got in the hands of the secret service." Vibe says, "His opposition to [Donald] Trump...resulted in the Secret Service listening to [the album]," and YG "was forced to censor some of his lyrics about his political views on Trump, after they called up his label in regards to the song." In an interview, YG claims, "The Secret Service called in on Universal and was like, 'Send me the lyrics to YG's album because we gotta see what he's talking about' ... They did the whole album. That's why on 'FDT' on the album, it's parts of the song that I had to blank out." YG adds, "Ever since John F. Kennedy got assassinated, they can't have no people promoting kill Trump, shoot Trump, pop Trump, all that. And we had those types of lines up in the song."

On August 2, 2016 at approximately 10:11 p.m., outside of Trump Towers in New York City, an individual was arrested just prior to the arrival of Republican Presidential Nominee Trump's motorcade. The subject refused to comply with repeated verbal commands from Secret Service agents and attempted to walk through a secured area along the sidewalk. The subject was immediately detained and arrested. A subsequent search revealed the subject was in possession of a concealed handgun. Later it was determined that the subject is a retired law enforcement officer, with a lawful permit to carry a concealed weapon. The subject expressed no direction of interest towards any Secret Service Protectees. The subject will be federally charged with violating 18 USC 3056 (D), Knowingly and Willfully Obstructing a Federal Agent. The subject will have an initial appearance before a magistrate judge today. On August 2, 2016 at approximately 10:11 p.m., outside of Trump Towers in New York City, an individual was arrested just prior to the arrival of Republican Presidential Nominee (b)(7)(E)

(b)(7)(E) The subject refused to comply with repeated verbal commands from Secret Service agents and attempted to walk through a secured area along the sidewalk. The subject was immediately detained and arrested. A subsequent search revealed the subject was in possession of a concealed handgun. Later it was determined that the subject is a retired law enforcement officer, with a lawful permit to carry a concealed weapon. The subject expressed no direction of interest towards any Secret Service Protectees. The subject will be federally charged with violating 18 USC 3056 (D), Knowingly and Willfully Obstructing a Federal Agent. The subject will have an initial appearance before a magistrate judge today. Mr. Trump entered Trump Towers without incident.

Hi Cathy—

I hope all is well. I know you've dealt with my colleague (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) in the past and she passed along your info.

We've been digging through the latest round of campaign finance disclosures and came across reimbursements from USSS to both campaigns. I know this is fairly traditional, but I was hoping you might help unpack how the reimbursements are determined. (Is it pro-rata seat cost? A fixed reimbursement rate for the length of the flight?)

Separately, we are also looking into Mr. Trump's trip to Mexico last month and wanted to check whether his flight by a Mexican Air Force helicopter to Los Pinos was paid for by USSS or picked up by the Mexican government.

Happy to chat on the phone if that's easier. My desk line is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Hi Cathy—

I hope all is well. I know you've dealt with my colleague (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) in the past and she passed along your info.

We've been digging through the latest round of campaign finance disclosures and came across reimbursements from USSS to both campaigns. I know this is fairly traditional, but I was hoping you might help unpack how the reimbursements are determined. (Is it pro-rata seat cost? A fixed reimbursement rate for the length of the flight?) Separately, we are also looking into Mr. Trump's trip to Mexico last month and wanted to check whether his flight by a Mexican Air Force helicopter to Los Pinos was paid for by USSS or picked up by the Mexican government.

Happy to chat on the phone if that's easier. My desk line is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Thanks

Thanks for this.

One question to clarify: you mean 11 CFR 100.93, right?

And then two follow-ups:

- 1) A Politico story yesterday mentioned $724,000 in refunds from the campaign back to USSS.
Here:

The agency paid the Trump campaign an additional $724,000 for air travel that was refunded, according to the FEC reports, which do not offer an explanation for the refund.

Follow us: @politico on Twitter | Politico on Facebook

Do you know where that is listed? I'm having trouble finding that?

- 2) In the case of Donald Trump, his plane is significantly more expensive to operate than another plane that can seat 43, which is the maximum capacity for his 757 as configured. Is the USSS paying a pro-rata rate for the costs of that plane? Or the lower cost for a smaller plane the same seating capacity?

Many thanks,

Hello Catherine --

Reaching out to you tonight after Donald Trump suggested Secret Service agents are alleging that Hillary Clinton is "essentially crazy."

"Secret service agents said she's essentially crazy- these guys know her pretty well," Trump said tonight in Fairfield.

Does the Secret Service have a comment on these remarks?
Is it possible that Mr. Trump is referring to agents on his detail?

Thanks,

Dear

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Catherine &

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Just returned home & wanted to thank you for the time and insight yesterday. We're all very excited about the project on this end to be sure.

We're now working on a very basic narrative outline for six suggested hours and will forward your way ASAP. This will serve as an initial road map & give us a clearer idea of the starting point for requesting access to various USSS assets / operations / events.

On a parallel track, we will also start working access to the Clinton and Trump campaigns, as well as to the Obama White House, where National Geographic connections may provide us some inside traction.

As mentioned, we have significant experience in law enforcement / DOD projects. Telling your story will be an honor and responsibility we do not take lightly.

What we didn't mention is that in every instance: whether Navy SEALs, US Army Special Forces, Air Combat Rescue Teams or DOS (including significant collaboration with (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) at DSS!), we've always been asked back for follow-on projects! Proof positive, perhaps, that enabling us to responsibly peek behind the curtain & humanize personnel has been a win-win for all involved.

Looking forward to next steps. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and I will be point on the project for now.

Please feel free to call or email with any questions of concerns. In the meantime, we'll get you the clips promised as soon as possible.

The word highlighted below should be possessive plural. So, Candidates' v Candidate's.
Also, are lines 3 & 4 necessary, if you're already saying in line 2 that such protection has been provided in the past?

The word highlighted below should be possessive plural. So, Candidates' v Candidate's.

Also, are lines 3 & 4 necessary, if you're already saying in line 2 that such protection has been provided in the past?

Presidential and vice presidential nominees can request protection for their children through the President.

Candidate's children have received Secret Service protection in the past.

Chelsea Clinton received Secret Service protection for 34 days in 2008 while her mother was a candidate

Trump said "her bodyguards should drop all their weapons. Disarm immediately....take their guns away, let's see why a happens to her."

"Take their guns away, OK? It'll be very dangerous," he added.

Response?

Hi there -

Do you have a comment on Donald Trump's comments tonight? They are, when riffing that Hillary Clinton's agents should be stripped of their guns:

"I think that her bodyguards should drop all weapons. They should disarm, right? Take their guns away, she doesn't want guns. Take their - and let's see what happens to her. Take their guns away. Ok. It would be very dangerous."

Will Service investigate these comments or talk to Mr Trump? Thanks.

RE: Trump comments

Just FYI: I got hammered by CNN, NYT, and Wash Post queries until late last night and NBC & CNN again today.

Not for release but so I know: Is there any outreach to Trump or do we just take it. It seems wildly inappropriate and I'm not convinced that a statement that relays the apparent unprecedented nature of the comments (while not getting into the protective apparatus around any protectee) isn't called for.

The question I got most: "if a non-candidate advocated for the same thing - as often, publicly, and consistently - as Mr Trump, would the USSS's 'no comment' still be deployed?"

Y'all still getting queries?

Hello Catherine -

I'm reaching out to see if the Secret Service has a response to Donald Trump's comments tonight about Clinton and her USSS detail.

Trump said "her bodyguards should drop all their weapons. Disarm immediately....take their guns away, let's see why a happens to her."

"Take their guns away, OK? It'll be very dangerous," he added.

Response?

Thank you,

Cool.

Thank you.

Imagine some of the Qs might attempt to thread the latest threat in NY/NJ to this.

We should consider something like "based on a request from the campaign early last week, the President has granted..." or words to that effect.

The timing is bad.

He called in this morning. All we provided was the confirmation that we were providing protection for Ivanka Trump.

Our office is not aware of any other requests by the campaign to the WH for protection for the other Trump children but we assumed you all would know definitively.

Hi, have you guys already given (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) the cleared comments on Ivanka? I will check on the q about the others but not sure we will get into that. If you could send over what you've already given him, that would be helpful. Thanks.

Thanks for any answers you can give me!

My colleague (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) s point on this for us, though I suspect USSS is probably best suited to answer your questions.

Hi (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

I'm wondering if you could tell me if the Trump campaign has requested secret service protection for any of Donald Trump's kids beyond Ivanka Trump, who the secret service confirmed for me this morning is under their protection. The Secret Service spokeswoman referred me to you guys on the question of if Trump's campaign had requested protection for any of this other kids. If the Trump campaign has made other requests for protection, has the white house confirmed or denied those requests?

Thanks for any answers you can send my way. If there's someone else at the White House better suited to answer these questions, please feel free to loop them in or send me their contact info so I can reach out to them.

Have a great day!
