Re: Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") request 2011-015

Thank you for your FOIA request to the U.S. Trade and Development Agency ("USTDA") dated 4/15/2011 which we received on 4/19/2011, in which you asked for "a copy of the USTDA employees only INTRAnet website home page, and the pages connected to it with one click (one click down) and with two clicks (two clicks down)."

In accordance with FOIA, USTDA has conducted a reasonable search for the records. All responsive records are being released in their entirety and are enclosed. No other responsive records were found.

Thank you for your inquiry. There is no charge for this search.

Sincerely,

Constitution Day

To promote a better understanding the U. S. Constitution, September 17th of each year was declared Constitution Day to commemorate the signing of the U. S. Constitution on September 17, 1787. Section 111 of Title I, Division J, of the Fiscal Year 2005 Consolidated Appropriations Act (Public Law 108-447) was enacted on Dec. 8, 2004, and requires the head of each Federal agency to provide each new employee of the agency with educational and training materials concerning the U.S. Constitution as part of the orientation materials provided to the new employee; and to provide educational and training materials concerning the U.S. Constitution to each employee of the agency each year.
