Subj: FOIA Request DON-NAVY-2023-006607

This is the final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. The Office of Naval Research (ONR) received your FOIA request on March 07, 2023. Your request was assigned tracking number DON-NAVY-2023-006607. You requested a request for records under the provisions of the FOIA. I request a copy of the FOIA Case Log for ONR for the years 2010 to the present. The FOIA Case Log is the listing of FOIA requests.

Your request is granted in full. We have located 5 pages that is responsive to your request. Some of those pages have been redacted under Exemption 6 of the FOIA, codified at 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(6). We are releasing 5 pages in part. Since you agreed to accept “clearly releasable” records this is not considered a partial denial.

FOIA Exemption 6 protects information that would constitute an unwarranted invasion of an individual’s personal privacy. Under this exemption, we are withholding certain names of key personnel.

You have the right to an appeal. Your appeal must be received within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. Please provide the appellate authority (see below) the following in an envelope marked “FOIA appeal”:

- A letter requesting an appeal that explains what you are appealing with any supporting arguments or reasons you think may be worthy of consideration;
- A copy of your initial request;
- A copy of the letter of denial.

There are two ways to file an appeal: through FOIAOnline or by mail.

1. Through FOIAOnline

You can only file an appeal through FOIAOnline if you originally filed your request through FOIAOnline and had or created an account in FOIAOnline at the time you filed your request. If you have a FOIAOnline account, log on and enter the tracking number of your request, or a keyword, in the “Search for” field. Once you find your request, click on it then on the “Create Appeal” tab in the left hand column and follow the prompts. Be sure to click “Save” when finished. FOIAOnline will then submit your appeal.

If you filed your request through FOIAOnline but do not have an account, go to FOIAOnline.gov, click the “Create Account” link in the blue banner in the upper right corner, enter your data and click “Save” at the bottom left. Once you have created an account, you may use FOIAOnline to appeal any future requests you file through FOIAOnline.

You do not need to use FOIAOnline to file an appeal; you can always mail in your appeal. If you did not file your FOIA request originally through FOIAOnline, however, you must mail in your appeal.

2. By mail.

You can mail in your appeal even if you have a FOIAOnline account and filed your FOIA request originally through FOIAOnline. But, if you did not file your FOIA request originally through FOIAOnline, you must mail in your appeal. Date your appeal letter and place it, along with a copy of your initial request and a copy of the letter of denial, in an envelope marked “Freedom of Information Act Appeal.” There is no standard format for an appeal letter, but we encourage (but do not require) you to explain in your letter why you believe our denial or redactions were inappropriate or our search was inadequate. Affix sufficient postage and address your appeal to:

Department of the Navy
Office of the General Counsel
1000 Navy Pentagon, Room 5A532
Washington, DC 20350-1000

Please also provide a copy of your appeal letter to ONR at:

Office of Naval Research
ATTN: FOIA Officer Room 617
875 North Randolph St.
Arlington, VA 22203

I, the undersigned, have been delegated Initial Denial Authority for the purpose of this letter. If you have questions, please contact the ONR FOIA Officer at onrfoia@navy.mil or (703) 588-2968. Please reference DON-NAVY-2023-006607 in any correspondence discussing this case. You may also contact the DON FOIA Public Liaison, Christopher Julka, at christopher.a.julka@navy.mil, or (703)697-0031.

Sincerely,

Dexter C. Alexander
