Re: FOIA-2025-00043

On March 17, 2025, we received your request under the Freedom of Information Act for access to:

A copy of each email in the email account of the head of the office of Congressional Relations/Congressional Affairs at FMCS, relating to the downsizing or elimination of the agency, limited to records during the timeframe March 1, 2025 to the date this request is processed. I also request a copy of each email in the Office of Congressional Relations to or from Congressional Office or Offices during that time period. I also request a copy of each memo regarding the potential downsizing, gutting or elimination of the FMCS, since March 1, 2025.

In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records. This is a partial grant of your request. FMCS has considered the foreseeable harm standard when reviewing records and applying FOIA exemptions. Portions of the records are redacted under the exemptions as explained below.

Some of the records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 4, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4). The mediation privilege is well recognized under Exemption 4. “The exemption would assure the confidentiality of information obtained by the government through material submitted and disclosure made in procedures such as the mediation of labor-management controversies.” H.R. Rep. No. 1497, 89th Cong., 2d Sess., 10 (1966); Accord: American Airlines, Inc. v. National Mediation Board, 588 F.2d 863, 869 n.14 (2nd Cir. 1978); Cf., Harowe Servo Controls, Inc., 250 NLRB 958 n.2 (1989).

Some responsive records contain staff analyses, opinions and recommendations. Those portions are deliberative and pre-decisional and are an integral part of the agency’s decision-making process. They are exempt from the FOIA’s disclosure requirements by FOIA Exemption 5, 5 U.S.C. §(b)(5). See NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S.C 132 (1975).

January 29, 2026

Some records contain personally identifiable information. This information is exempt from release under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. §(b)(6), because individuals' right to privacy outweighs the general public's interest in seeing personal identifying information. See The Lakin Law Firm v. FTC, 352 F.3d 1122 (7th Cir. 2003).

There are ten (10) pages fully withheld under FOIA Exemptions 4, 5, and 6.

Please be advised that due to the system error by the system owner, records and portions of records were inadvertently released. Please destroy the previously released documents on November 21, 2025. We are re-releasing to you records that are responsive to your request.

Your request did indicate an agreement to pay any fees associated with the processing of your request. However, the Agency's fee regulations specify that fees less than $25 will be waived. See 29 C.F.R. § 1401.36. Because the fees associated with the processing of your request did not exceed $25, we have processed your request free of charge.

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal within 90 days by emailing the FOIA Appeals inbox at FOIAAppeals@fmcs.gov or writing to:

Freedom of Information Act Appeal
Office of the Director
Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service

Good morning Greg,

This is Tim Ryan with Law360, I hope you're doing well!

I wanted to check in to see if FMCs planned on sharing a copy of or details of the report that was supposed to be sent on Friday concerning agency operations under President Trump's Continuing the Reduction of the Federal Bureaucracy order. I have submitted a FOIA for the document as well, but wanted to see if there is a better way to go about it.

Feel free to give me a call at (b)(6) or to send me a statement here. Thanks for your time, I appreciate your help!

Inquiry: As mentioned in my phone conversation just now with Greg Raelson, I'm looking to fact check several things for a pair of short news items in our issue that goes to press March 18:

- 1) a number of probationary FMCS employees were let go in mid-February under the orders of Trump's Department of Government Efficiency.
- 2) as of March 6, about a dozen of the FMCS terminations were rescinded
- 3) as reported by Bloomberg, FMCS will no longer be providing free "card check" services. (Following an executive order by President Biden, the agency announced in 2022 that its staff would be available at no cost to verify cards when employers agree to recognize a union based on verification of signed union authorization cards. Now, unions and employers will need to use paid third-party services to count the cards.)

Beyond confirming or correcting the above, if you can share additional information about the DOGE cuts' impact on FMCS, that would be a great help, including:

- 1) How many probationary employees were let go, and when?
- 2) How many probationary employees have been brought back, and when?
- 3) What was the total staff at FMCS at the beginning of the year, and what's the total headcount now?
- 4) What impacts on staff have other DOGE-related initiatives had, including the hiring freeze and offers of extended pay for voluntary resignations (how many if any took up that offer?)

Inquiry: Hello,

This is Jonathan Lehrfeld, a reporter with the outlet CoStar News covering commercial real estate.

My team and I are working on a story about the potential reduction of federally leased space following this White House release:
<https://www.whitehouse.gov/presidential-actions/2025/03/continuing-the-reduction-of-the-federal-bureaucracy/>

I imagine this is a busy time for your team as it appears your group is also included on the list.

Briefly wanted to reach out though to see if you would be interested and available in providing any further comment specifically about the status of any office space your team occupies. Have or will any leases be canceled as a result of this? Anything else important to know for a story of this nature?

Apologies for the quick turnaround, but if you're able to share more with me before the end of the day today it would be much appreciated.

Please let me know if you have any questions. I can be reached via my email jlehrfeld@costar.com or my cell [(b)(6)]

Thanks in advance.

Hi Garner,

Thanks for reaching out.

I can confirm that FMCS received a General Services Administration (GSA) memorandum (dated Feb. 4, 2025) instructing us to examine our inventory of federal offices and identify unneeded or underutilized leased spaces with contract provisions making them available for termination by the federal government. As part of this effort, our Collierville office was identified for lease termination.

It is important to note that there is no direct correlation between the termination of this lease and our personnel roster. Specifically, the loss of physical space in Collierville has not impacted our staffing or operations. Any further questions regarding office closures should be directed to GSA.

Date: Thursday, March 13, 2025 1:02:47 PM

Hi Greg,

Hope you're doing well. I'm with Congresswoman Ann Wagner's office, and we've had some local media reports regarding the potential closure of a Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service in our district in St. Louis MO. Because we've had incorrect reports of closures recently, we wanted to double check with you all to confirm accuracy.

We believe the location of the office is 1034 S. Brentwood Blvd, Richmond Heights, MO 63117. We were hoping you might be able to let us know:

1. If this office is indeed closing
2. How many employees work at this office, and what are they responsible for
3. If it is closing, was the closure part of a previous longer-term plan or was it recently directed
4. If it is closing, where the employees will be moved to or what other actions will be taken with regard to the employees
5. Any other information you may be able to share

Thanks in advance for the help!

FMCS Statement on the Executive Order “Continuing the Reduction of The Federal Bureaucracy”

WASHINGTON, D.C. (March 19, 2025) – The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) acknowledges the March 14 Executive Order, “Continuing the Reduction of The Federal Bureaucracy,” and is actively reviewing its alignment with the Administration’s previous directives, including the February 11 Workforce Optimization Initiative and February 26 Cost Efficiency Initiative. FMCS is examining how these Executive Orders and guidance work together to ensure a coordinated approach to efficiency, optimization, and mission focus across the federal government.

In response to multiple inquiries from both media and clients, FMCS wishes to assure all stakeholders that we remain operational and are continuing to provide our statutorily mandated services, including tracking and servicing approximately 15,000 private sector collective bargaining agreements negotiated annually nationwide. With an annual budget of $55 million (less than 0.0014% of the federal budget), FMCS’s work delivers extraordinarily outsized economic benefits. Using conservative estimates, FMCS’s work saves the American economy well over $500 million annually.

Established under Title II of the Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947 (Taft-Hartley Act), FMCS was created as an independent agency to prevent and minimize labor-management disputes that could disrupt the free flow of commerce. FMCS is statutorily mandated to:

- Minimize labor disputes in the private sector through mediation and conciliation services.
- Support labor-management cooperation under the Labor-Management Cooperation Act, which directs FMCS to encourage joint labor-management initiatives to improve workplace relations.
- Manage dispute resolution in the health care industry as required by the Health Care Amendments of 1974, ensuring labor disputes do not disrupt health care delivery.
- Provide mediation services in federal sector labor disputes under the Civil Service Reform Act of 1978.
- Assist in disputes in the U.S. Postal Service under the Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act of 2006 and provide fact-finding panels for supervisory pay disputes under the Postal Reorganization Act of 1980.
- Provide arbitration panels for labor disputes.

To be clear, FMCS is still operational and performing our statutory functions of collective bargaining mediation work in the private and federal Sectors, USPS dispute cases, labor-management committee work, and providing arbitration panels. Mediation remains the most cost-effective approach, requiring fewer resources and delivering faster resolutions compared to labor disruptions, litigation, or administrative hearings. FMCS will continue working with the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) to secure approval of its efficiency-focused plans, ensuring alignment with administration priorities.

For reference, FMCS remains statutorily required to provide mediation, conciliation, and voluntary arbitration under Title II of the Labor-Management Relations Act (Taft-Hartley). While other statutes have authorized additional activities, FMCS has refocused solely on its mandated functions, consistent with the Executive Orders.

The U.S. Federal Mediation & Conciliation Service (FMCS) is the nation's premier public agency for dispute resolution and conflict management. FMCS was created by Congress as a neutral and independent government agency upon enactment of the Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947 (Taft-Hartley Act) and mandated to resolve industrial conflict and promote labor-management peace and cooperation, minimizing the impact of these disputes on the free flow of commerce. With headquarters in Washington, D.C. and offices across the country, the agency has a proud track record of decades of effective dispute resolution and conflict management services for employers and unions across industries and work activities in the private, public, and federal sectors. For more on FMCS or to request services, visit www.fmcs.gov

Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service

A Strategic Investment and Vital Part of America's Economic Future

A Strategic Investment in America's Workforce

FMCS is a strategic investment in the future of America and its workforce. Our proactive conflict resolution preserves the stability and efficiency of workplaces across the country, directly contributing to economic resilience and growth. With such a high return on investment, FMCS stands out as an indispensable asset that underwrites both the competitive strength of American industries and the well-being of its citizens.

FMCS Mediators Keep America Working

For almost 80 years, FMCS has been a neutral, trusted guardian of workplace stability, ensuring that labor disputes are resolved quickly and efficiently to keep American businesses running smoothly. With an annual budget of $55 million—less than 0.0014% of the federal budget—FMCS delivers outsized economic benefits that are critical to our nation's productivity and prosperity.

In today's fast-paced economy, even brief workplace disruptions can have far-reaching consequences. That's why FMCS's work is so critical. In FY24, FMCS conducted over 5,400 mediated negotiations, over 1,500 workplace relationship services, and provided over 10,000 arbitration panels,—helping to avert or resolve work stoppages and maintain smooth operations in key industries such as healthcare, transportation, manufacturing, and public services.

Exceptional Return on Investment

Using conservative estimates, for every $1 invested in FMCS, the economy recovers more than $9 in benefits, an over 900% return.

These benefits arise from:

- ✓ Safeguarding company profits
- ✓ Protecting household earnings
- ✓ Ensuring the continuity of operations that underpin national prosperity

Fiscal Efficiency

FMCS services are provided at no cost to the customer and save the economy over $500 million dollars annually. These substantial returns come from safeguarding company profits, protecting family earnings, and ensuring the continuity of operations that underpin our nation's prosperity.

Protecting American Prosperity

The continued support of FMCS is more than a line item in the budget—it's a strategic investment in America's future. The Agency has a proven track record of success and a profound impact on economic stability. FMCS is essential to a strong, secure, and prosperous America.

Good morning,

FMCS will be hosting two virtual meetings on Wednesday, March 19, to discuss Friday's Executive Order on Continuing the Reduction of the Federal Bureaucracy and our RIF plan. We are inviting select staff members from the following committees:

- Senate Committee on Appropriations
- Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions
- Senate Subcommittee on Department of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education
- House Committee on Appropriations
- House Committee on Education and the Workforce
- House Subcommittee on Labor, Health and Human Services, Education

Please note the meeting times:

- MINORITY Staff: 2:30 p.m.
- MAJORITY Staff: 3:30 p.m.

To ensure I send invitations to the appropriate individuals, kindly confirm your attendance, and indicate if there are any additional colleagues you'd like to include. Also, please let me know whether you represent Majority or Minority staff.

Calendar invitations will follow.

Best regards,

Greg Raelson

Deadline?: Yes

Deadline: 03/17/2025

Inquiry: As mentioned in my phone conversation just now with Greg Raelson, I'm looking to fact check several things for a pair of short news items in our issue that goes to press March 18:

- 1) a number of probationary FMCS employees were let go in mid-February under the orders of Trump's Department of Government Efficiency.
- 2) as of March 6, about a dozen of the FMCS terminations were rescinded
- 3) as reported by Bloomberg, FMCS will no longer be providing free "card check" services. (Following an executive order by President Biden, the agency announced in 2022 that its staff would be available at no cost to verify cards when employers agree to recognize a union based on verification of signed union authorization cards. Now, unions and employers will need to use paid third-party services to count the cards.)

Beyond confirming or correcting the above, if you can share additional information about the DOGE cuts' impact on FMCS, that would be a great help, including:

- 1) How many probationary employees were let go, and when?
- 2) How many probationary employees have been brought back, and when?
- 3) What was the total staff at FMCS at the beginning of the year, and what's the total headcount now?
- 4) What impacts on staff have other DOGE-related initiatives had, including the hiring freeze and offers of extended pay for voluntary resignations (how many if any took up that offer?)

FMCS Statement on the Executive Order "Continuing the Reduction of The Federal Bureaucracy"

WASHINGTON, D.C. (March 19, 2025) – Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) acknowledges the March 14 Executive Order, "Continuing the Reduction of The Federal Bureaucracy," and is actively reviewing its alignment with the Administration's previous directives, including the February 11 Workforce Optimization Initiative and February 26 Cost Efficiency Initiative. FMCS is examining how these Executive Orders and guidance work together to ensure a coordinated approach to efficiency, optimization, and mission focus across the federal government.

In response to multiple inquiries from both media and clients, FMCS wishes to assure all stakeholders that we remain operational and are continuing to provide our statutorily mandated services, including tracking and servicing approximately 15,000 private sector collective bargaining agreements negotiated annually nationwide. With an annual budget of $55 million (less than 0.0014% of the federal budget), FMCS's work delivers extraordinarily outsized economic benefits. Using conservative estimates, FMCS's work saves the American economy well over $500 million annually.

Established under Title II of the Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947 (Taft-Hartley Act), FMCS was created as an independent agency to prevent and minimize labor-management disputes that could disrupt the free flow of commerce. FMCS is statutorily mandated to:

- Minimize labor disputes in the private sector through mediation and conciliation services.
- Support labor-management cooperation under the Labor-Management Cooperation Act, which directs FMCS to encourage joint labor-management initiatives to improve workplace relations.
- Manage dispute resolution in the health care industry as required by the Health Care Amendments of 1974, ensuring labor disputes do not disrupt health care delivery.
- Provide mediation services in federal sector labor disputes under the Civil Service Reform Act of 1978.
- Assist in disputes in the U.S. Postal Service under the Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act of 2006 and provide fact-finding panels for supervisory pay disputes under the Postal Reorganization Act of 1980.

To be clear, FMCS is still operational and performing our statutory functions of collective bargaining mediation work in the private and federal Sectors, USPS dispute cases, labor-management committee work, and providing arbitration panels. Mediation remains the most cost-effective approach, requiring fewer resources and delivering faster resolutions compared to labor disruptions, litigation, or administrative hearings. FMCS will continue working with the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) to secure approval of its efficiency-focused plans, ensuring alignment with administration priorities.

For reference, FMCS remains statutorily required to provide mediation, conciliation, and voluntary arbitration under Title II of the Labor-Management Relations Act (Taft-Hartley). While other statutes have authorized additional activities, FMCS has refocused solely on its mandated functions, consistent with the Executive Orders.

The U.S. Federal Mediation & Conciliation Service (FMCS) is the nation's premier public agency for dispute resolution and conflict management. FMCS was created by Congress as a neutral and independent government agency upon enactment of the Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947 (Taft-Hartley Act) and mandated to resolve industrial conflict and promote labor-management peace and cooperation, minimizing the impact of these disputes on the free flow of commerce. With headquarters in Washington, D.C. and offices across the country, the agency has a proud track record of decades of effective dispute resolution and conflict management services for employers and unions across industries and work activities in the private, public, and federal sectors. Hi Dan,

I'm taking Barbara Washington off the CC. You don't need to include her on emails to me (different departments).

Yes, we did receive the OMB Lapse Update memo on 3/7. Our most recent lapse plan from 9/12/24 is posted on our website <https://www.fmcs.gov/fmcs-contingency-plan-for-agency-operations-in-the-absence-of-appropriations/>. However, we should be posting an updated version Weds or Thurs this week to reflect updated head counts, etc.

Good morning Greg,

This is Tim Ryan with Law360, I hope you're doing well!

I wanted to check in to see if FMCs planned on sharing a copy of or details of the report that was supposed to be sent on Friday concerning agency operations under President Trump's Continuing the Reduction of the Federal Bureaucracy order. I have submitted a FOIA for the document as well, but wanted to see if there is a better way to go about it.

Feel free to give me a call at (b)(6) or to send me a statement here. Thanks for your time, I appreciate your help!

Hi Garner,

Thanks for the inquiry.

I can confirm that FMCS received a General Services Administration (GSA) memorandum (dated Feb. 4, 2025) instructing us to examine our inventory of federal offices and identify unneeded or underutilized leased spaces with contract provisions making them available for termination by the federal government. As part of this effort, our Collierville office was identified for lease termination.

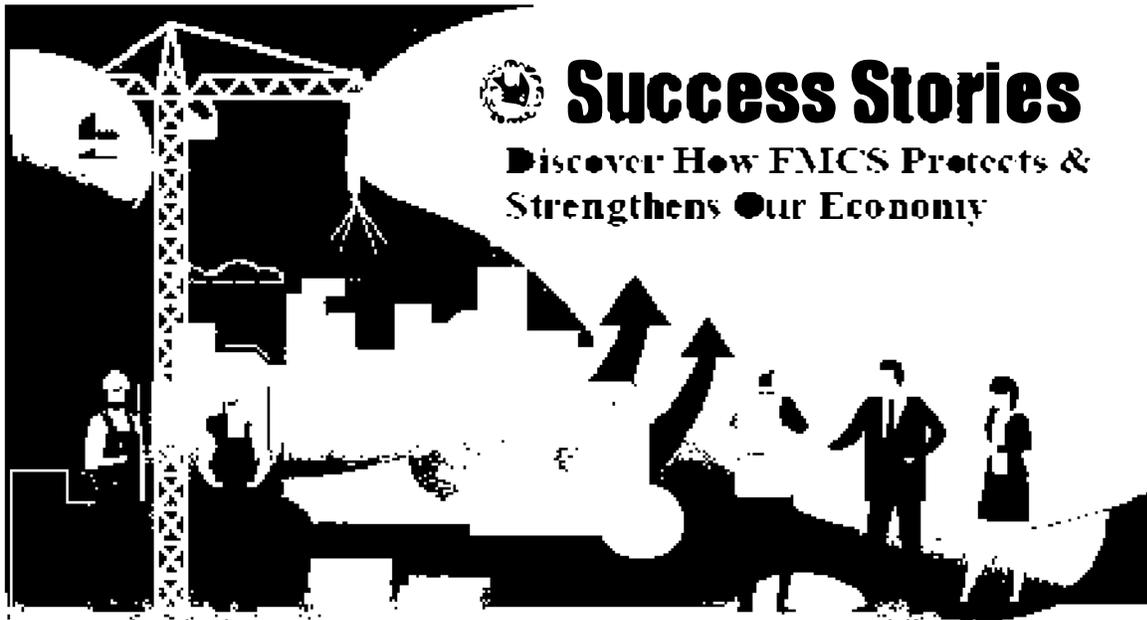

It is important to note that there is no direct correlation between the termination of this lease and our personnel roster. Specifically, the loss of physical space in Collierville has not impacted our staffing or operations. Any further questions regarding office closures should be directed to GSA.

Deadline: 03/17/2025

Inquiry: As mentioned in my phone conversation just now with Greg Raelson, I'm looking to fact check several things for a pair of short news items in our issue that goes to press March 18:

- 1) a number of probationary FMCS employees were let go in mid-February under the orders of Trump's Department of Government Efficiency.
- 2) as of March 6, about a dozen of the FMCS terminations were rescinded
- 3) as reported by Bloomberg, FMCS will no longer be providing free "card check" services. (Following an executive order by President Biden, the agency announced in 2022 that its staff would be available at no cost to verify cards when employers agree to recognize a union based on verification of signed union authorization cards. Now, unions and employers will need to use paid third-party services to count the cards.)

Beyond confirming or correcting the above, if you can share additional information about the DOGE cuts' impact on FMCS, that would be a great help, including:

- 1) How many probationary employees were let go, and when?
- 2) How many probationary employees have been brought back, and when?
- 3) What was the total staff at FMCS at the beginning of the year, and what's the total headcount now?
- 4) What impacts on staff have other DOGE-related initiatives had, including the hiring freeze and offers of extended pay for voluntary resignations (how many if any took up that offer?)

Dear Mr. Kim,

I write to inform your legislative office of a recent successful delivery of Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) services that will be of particular interest to the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

As you know, mediation of complex collective bargaining matters is part of the FMCS statutory mission.

Attached please find a letter regarding this positive development, as well as a one-pager containing additional detail.

We welcome your further inquiry at any time using my contact information, below. Please don't hesitate to contact me if FMCS can be of further service.

With best wishes,

Greg Raelson

Hi Dan,

Thank you for your email and for the engaging discussion yesterday. We appreciated the opportunity to cover these topics with you and the HELP team.

Since many of these points were addressed during our meeting, could you please clarify what additional substantive details you'd like us to address? Are you asking these to be addressed formally in writing? Additionally, it would be helpful to know if there is a specific deadline or timeframe for your follow-up request. This information will greatly assist us in prioritizing our response amid our current high volume of critical tasks.

Thank you for your guidance. We look forward to your clarification.

Greg,

Many thanks for the briefing yesterday from you and Javier. It was helpful and very timely. We are looking closely at the process to arrive at first bargaining agreement and would appreciate some follow up on the following areas we discussed yesterday:

- FMCS' ability to provide in-person services were the PRO Act language to pass.
- FMCS' needed rulemaking authority in light of new requirements within the language.
- The feasibility of arriving at a first contract within a 30-day mediation window.
- The estimated impact on other services FMCS provides, particularly mediations toward CBA requested on a voluntary basis.
- Number of personnel needed and cost to A) simply comply with the language and B) comply with the language while also providing current services.

Thank you, and please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any questions!

Dan

Hi Garner,

Thanks for reaching out.

I can confirm that FMCS received a General Services Administration (GSA) memorandum (dated Feb. 4, 2025) instructing us to examine our inventory of federal offices and identify unneeded or underutilized leased spaces with contract provisions making them available for termination by the federal government. As part of this effort, our Collierville office was identified for lease termination.

It is important to note that there is no direct correlation between the termination of this lease and our personnel roster. Specifically, the loss of physical space in Collierville has not impacted our staffing or operations. Any further questions regarding office closures should be directed to GSA.

Importance: High

Good morning,

Invitations will be sent out this morning to those who have already responded to my earlier email. If you haven't yet replied, please email me ASAP to confirm your attendance for today's conversation with FMCS senior leadership, Greg Goldstein (COO/Acting Director) and Javier Ramirez (Deputy Director for Field Operations).

Confirmed so far:

2:30 p.m. – Yeongsik Kim (HELP), Janie Dulaney (Sen. Approps), and Mike Gentile (LHHS)

3:30 p.m. – Dan Chasen (HELP)

Please review the details below and reply as soon as possible:

FMCS will be hosting two virtual meetings TODAY Wednesday, March 19, to discuss Friday's Executive Order on Continuing the Reduction of the Federal Bureaucracy and our RIF plan. We are inviting select staff members from the following committees:

- Senate Committee on Appropriations
- Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions
- Senate Subcommittee on Department of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education
- House Committee on Appropriations
- House Committee on Education and the Workforce
- House Subcommittee on Labor, Health and Human Services, Education

Please note the meeting times:

- MINORITY Staff: 2:30 p.m.
- MAJORITY Staff: 3:30 p.m.

To ensure I send invitations to the appropriate individuals, kindly confirm your attendance, and indicate if there are any additional colleagues you'd like to include. Also, please let me know whether you represent Majority or Minority staff.

Calendar invitations will follow.

Hi Josh,

Thank you for reaching out regarding FMCS's recent operational adjustments.

FMCS continually assesses its role in labor-management relations ensuring consistency with our core mission of mediation and dispute resolution. In alignment with the current Administration's priorities and guidance, we have made strategic adjustments designed to better focus our resources. As part of these changes, we will no longer be providing new card-check services. However, to ensure a smooth transition, existing card checks scheduled through March 14 will proceed as planned.

We remain fully committed to fostering constructive labor relations and supporting both workers and employers to help prevent or minimize disruptions to commerce. Should you have any further questions, please let me know.

Hi Greg,

So sorry to email you during the weekend, and understanding we have a request out there already — wanted to touch base on the ramifications on FMCS of the executive order to diminish the agency to “the minimum presence and function required by law.” (<https://www.whitehouse.gov/presidential-actions/2025/03/continuing-the-reduction-of-the-federal-bureaucracy/>)

Do you have a few minutes next week to discuss?

Thanks,

Dan

Hi Greg,

Hope you're doing well. I'm with Congresswoman Ann Wagner's office, and we've had some local media reports regarding the potential closure of a Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service in our district in St. Louis MO. Because we've had incorrect reports of closures recently, we wanted to double check with you all to confirm accuracy.

We believe the location of the office is 1034 S. Brentwood Blvd, Richmond Heights, MO 63117. We were hoping you might be able to let us know:

1. If this office is indeed closing
2. How many employees work at this office, and what are they responsible for
3. If it is closing, was the closure part of a previous longer-term plan or was it recently directed
4. If it is closing, where the employees will be moved to or what other actions will be taken with regard to the employees
5. Any other information you may be able to share

Thanks in advance for the help!
David

Hi David,

Thanks for the inquiry.

I can confirm that FMCS received a General Services Administration (GSA) memorandum (dated Feb. 4, 2025) instructing us to examine our inventory of federal offices and identify unneeded or underutilized leased spaces with contract provisions making them available for termination by the federal government. As part of this effort, our St. Louis office was identified for lease termination as it was determined not essential to fulfilling our mission.

It is important to note that there is no direct correlation between the termination of this lease and our personnel roster. Specifically, the loss of physical space in St. Louis has not impacted our staffing or operations.

Subject: [EXTERNAL] US Rep Wagner - FMCS Closure in St. Louis

Hi Greg,

Hope you're doing well. I'm with Congresswoman Ann Wagner's office, and we've had some local media reports regarding the potential closure of a Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service in our district in St. Louis MO. Because we've had incorrect reports of closures recently, we wanted to double check with you all to confirm accuracy.

We believe the location of the office is 1034 S. Brentwood Blvd, Richmond Heights, MO 63117. We were hoping you might be able to let us know:

1. If this office is indeed closing
2. How many employees work at this office, and what are they responsible for

3. If it is closing, was the closure part of a previous longer-term plan or was it recently directed
4. If it is closing, where the employees will be moved to or what other actions will be taken with regard to the employees
5. Any other information you may be able to share

Thanks in advance for the help!

David

Hi David,

Thanks for the inquiry.

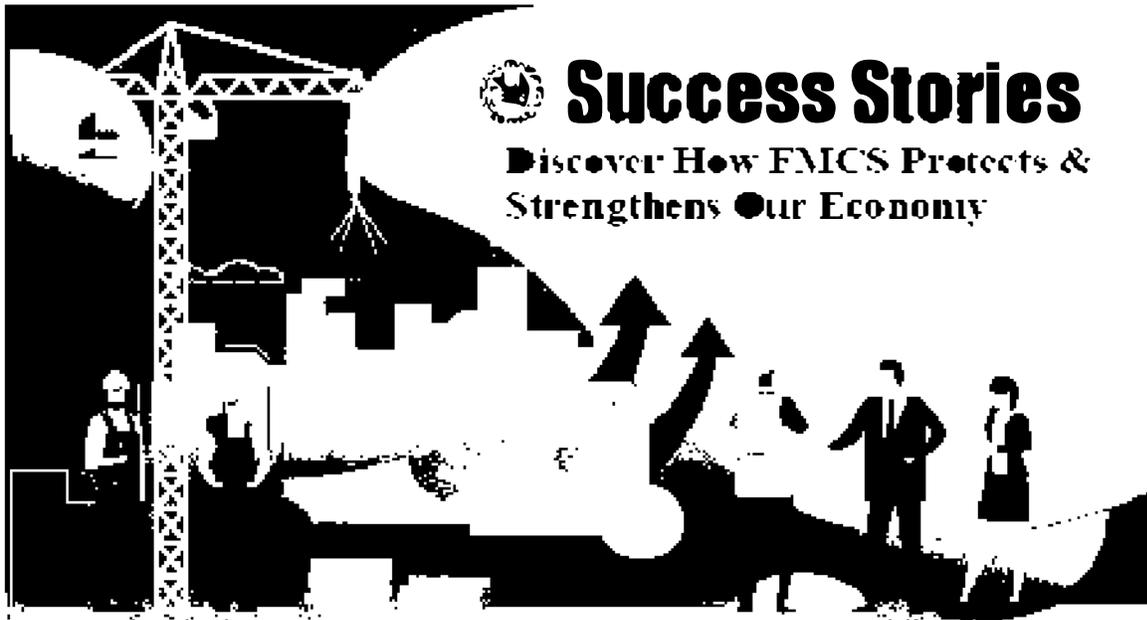

I can confirm that FMCS received a General Services Administration (GSA) memorandum (dated Feb. 4, 2025) instructing us to examine our inventory of federal offices and identify unneeded or underutilized leased spaces with contract provisions making them available for termination by the federal government. As part of this effort, our St. Louis office was identified for lease termination as it was determined not essential to fulfilling our mission.

It is important to note that there is no direct correlation between the termination of this lease and our personnel roster. Specifically, the loss of physical space in St. Louis has not impacted our staffing or operations.

Hi Dan,

Thank you for your email and for the engaging discussion yesterday. We appreciated the opportunity to cover these topics with you and the HELP team.

Since many of these points were addressed during our meeting, could you please clarify what additional substantive details you'd like us to address? Are you asking these to be addressed formally in writing? Additionally, it would be helpful to know if there is a specific deadline or time frame for your follow-up request. This information will greatly assist us in prioritizing our response amid our current high volume of critical tasks.

Thank you for your guidance. We look forward to your clarification.

Best regards,

Greg,

Many thanks for the briefing yesterday from you and Javier. It was helpful and very timely. We are looking closely at the process to arrive at first bargaining agreement and would appreciate some follow up on the following areas we discussed yesterday:

- FMCS' ability to provide in-person services were the PRO Act language to pass.
- Und
- FMCS' needed rulemaking authority in light of new requirements within the language.
 - The feasibility of arriving at a first contract within a 30-day mediation window.
 - The estimated impact on other services FMCS provides, particularly mediations toward CBA requested on a voluntary basis.
 - Number of personnel needed and cost to A) simply comply with the language and B) comply with the language while also providing current services.

Thank you, and please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any questions!

Dan

Dear Mr. Chasen,

I write to inform your legislative office of a recent successful delivery of Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) services that will be of particular interest to the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

As you know, mediation of complex collective bargaining matters is part of the FMCS statutory mission.

(b)(4); (b)(5)

Attached please find a letter regarding this positive development, as well as a one-pager containing additional detail.

We welcome your further inquiry at any time using my contact information, below. Please don't hesitate to contact me if FMCS can be of further service.

With best wishes,

Interview Request?: No

Deadline?: Yes

Deadline: 03/17/2025

Inquiry: As mentioned in my phone conversation just now with Greg Raelson, I'm looking to fact check several things for a pair of short news items in our issue that goes to press March 18:

- 1) a number of probationary FMCS employees were let go in mid-February under the orders of Trump's Department of Government Efficiency.
- 2) as of March 6, about a dozen of the FMCS terminations were rescinded
- 3) as reported by Bloomberg, FMCS will no longer be providing free "card check" services. (Following an executive order by President Biden, the agency announced in 2022 that its staff would be available at no cost to verify cards when employers agree to recognize a union based on verification of signed union authorization cards. Now, unions and employers will need to use paid third-party services to count the cards.)

Beyond confirming or correcting the above, if you can share additional information about the DOGE cuts' impact on FMCS, that would be a great help, including:

- 1) How many probationary employees were let go, and when?
- 2) How many probationary employees have been brought back, and when?
- 3) What was the total staff at FMCS at the beginning of the year, and what's the total headcount now?
- 4) What impacts on staff have other DOGE-related initiatives had, including the hiring freeze and offers of extended pay for voluntary resignations (how many if any took up that offer?)

3:30 p.m. – Dan Chasen (HELP)

Please review the details below and reply as soon as possible:

FMCS will be hosting two virtual meetings TODAY Wednesday, March 19, to discuss Friday's Executive Order on Continuing the Reduction of the Federal Bureaucracy and our RIF plan. We are inviting select staff members from the following committees:

- Senate Committee on Appropriations
- Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions
- Senate Subcommittee on Department of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education
- House Committee on Appropriations
- House Committee on Education and the Workforce
- House Subcommittee on Labor, Health and Human Services, Education

Please note the meeting times:

- MINORITY Staff: 2:30 p.m.
- MAJORITY Staff: 3:30 p.m.

To ensure I send invitations to the appropriate individuals, kindly confirm your attendance, and indicate if there are any additional colleagues you'd like to include. Also, please let me know whether you represent Majority or Minority staff.

Calendar invitations will follow.

Greg,

Many thanks for the briefing yesterday from you and Javier. It was helpful and very timely. We are looking closely at the process to arrive at first bargaining agreement and would appreciate some follow up on the following areas we discussed yesterday:

- FMCS' ability to provide in-person services were the PRO Act language to pass.
- FMCS' needed rulemaking authority in light of new requirements within the language.
- The feasibility of arriving at a first contract within a 30-day mediation window.
- The estimated impact on other services FMCS provides, particularly mediations toward CBA requested on a voluntary basis.
- Number of personnel needed and cost to A) simply comply with the language and B) comply with the language while also providing current services.

Thank you, and please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any questions!

Dear Mr. Chasen,

I write to inform your legislative office of a recent successful delivery of Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) services that will be of particular interest to the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

As you know, mediation of complex collective bargaining matters is part of the FMCS statutory mission.

The Director

UNITED STATES OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT
Washington, DC 20415

MEMORANDUM

TO: Heads and Acting Heads of Departments and Agencies

FROM: Charles Ezell, Acting Director, U.S. Office of Personnel Management

DATE: March 12, 2025

RE: Guidance on Collective Bargaining in Connection with RIFs

On February 26, 2025, the U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) issued guidance for agencies on Agency Reduction-in-Force (RIF) and Reorganization Plans (ARRPs).¹ This memorandum provides collective bargaining guidance to agencies engaged in RIFs.

I. Collective Bargaining

Under the Federal Service Labor-Management Relation Statute (FSLMRS), each agency has the right to determine whether to conduct a RIF and exercise its discretion in determining which positions will be abolished or retained.²

Because government-wide regulations prescribe a detailed, comprehensive process for agencies to follow when conducting a RIF,³ the scope of collective bargaining should be limited to procedures and appropriate arrangement that do not run afoul of these regulations.⁴ Additionally, federal sector collective bargaining agreements (CBAs) often contain comprehensive RIF articles that may obviate an agency's obligation to further collective bargaining.

Thus, each agency should conduct a comprehensive review of their CBAs to determine how to fulfill their labor obligations and incorporate those activities into their planning processes. In addition, they should review all CBAs to determine whether and to what extent RIFs are covered by their CBAs. To the extent that such matters are contained in or covered by an existing CBA

² 5 U.S.C. 7106(a)(2)(A); AFGE Local 1827, 58 FLRA 344, 345 (2003).

³ 5 C.F.R. Part 351. OPM notes that some federal agencies retain separate statutory authority for conducting RIF-like processes, and these differences might impact collective bargaining.

⁴ 5 U.S.C. 7117(a); Am. Fed'n of Gov't Emps., Local 32, v. FLRA, 110 F.3d 810, 816 (D.C. Cir. 1997) (Local 32) (the combination of 5 U.S.C. 7117(a)(1) and OPM's RIF regulations narrow the scope of bargaining).

between the parties, an agency may not be obligated to bargain on such matters again.⁵

Any CBA provisions that are inconsistent with OPM regulations⁶ or that excessively interfere with management's rights to "determine the organization" and the "number of employees" of the agency, as well as "layoff, and retain employees in the agency" are unenforceable.⁷ To the extent any union proposals concern certain aspects of a RIF that are not covered by a government-wide regulation or a CBA and on which the agency has discretion on implementation, agencies may have a duty to bargain over these proposals. For example, negotiable proposals may include such matters as:

- Requiring an agency to provide impacted bargaining unit employees advance notice before implementing a RIF.⁸
- Giving hiring preferences to qualified employees.⁹
- Providing training to help impacted employees meet requirements of a new position.¹⁰
- Granting preference for a return to specific locations or positions.¹¹

II. Information Requests Regarding RIFs

The FSLMRS permits a labor union to request and management to provide information concerning a RIF, so long as the union articulates a particularized need for the requested information. 5 U.S.C. 7114(b)(4).¹² To establish a particularized need, a union must articulate with specificity why it needs the requested information, including the uses to which the union will put the information and the connection between those uses and the union's representational responsibilities under the FSLMRS.¹³ Satisfying this burden requires more than conclusory or bare assertions. It is not satisfied merely by showing that the requested information would be relevant or useful. Rather, the union must articulate its need for all information requested. General efforts to "ensur[e] compliance with Merit System Principles," "monitor contract compliance," "address bargaining unit . . . concerns," represent employees in "further legal actions," and otherwise audit management are insufficient to meet particularized need requirements.¹⁴

Additionally, agencies should ensure that they do not disclose information that constitutes guidance, advice, and counsel for management officials relating to collective bargaining.¹⁵ Examples of such information prohibited from disclosure include:

- courses of action agency management should take in negotiations with the union;
- how a provision of the collective bargaining agreement should be interpreted and applied;
- how a grievance or unfair labor practice charge should be handled; and
- other labor-management interactions which have an impact on the union's status as the exclusive representative.¹⁶

Agency labor relations staff should work with agency legal counsel on these issues. For additional information, agency-headquarters-level human resources offices may contact OPM at awr@opm.gov. Component-level human resources offices must contact their agency headquarters for assistance.

OPM Reduction in Force (RIF) Policy Advisory Team and New RIF Templates

Dear CHCOs and Deputy CHCOs,

OPM has established an action team to respond promptly to inquiries and waiver requests related to RIF. All RIF-related inquiries and waiver requests should now be directed to the OPM RIF Policy Advisory Team (RPAT) at WPIntake@opm.gov. The RPAT will acknowledge receipt and work to process agencies' requests within 24-48 hours. The RPAT is coordinating OPM responses to:

- Requests for Exception to 90-Day Requirement on Changing Competitive Area Definitions;
- Requests for Exception to the Minimum 60-Day RIF Notice Period; and
- Agency headquarters' RIF-related inquiries. Agency components should continue to submit their questions to their agency headquarters.

As a reminder, Agency RIF and Reorganization Plans (ARRP) should be emailed to tracking@opm.gov and workforce@omb.eop.gov. Also, please continue to send requests for Voluntary Early Retirement Authority (VERA)/Voluntary Separation Incentive Payments (VSIP) to employ@opm.gov with a copy to the WPIntake@opm.gov for tracking purposes.

Below are links to helpful request templates and resources to help streamline and expediate agency requests. Please contact the RPAT at WPIntake@opm.gov if you have any questions regarding this process.

UNITED STATES OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

Washington, DC 20415

March 20, 2025

Ms. Adrienne Adger
Director of Human Resources
Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service
250 E Street, SW
Washington, D.C. 20427

Dear Ms. Adger:

The U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) approves the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) March 18, 2025, request for approval of a competitive area which will be in effect less than 90 days prior to the proposed effective date of a reduction in force (RIF). Your request indicates that a RIF is necessary in the FMCS due to the impact of an Executive Order titled, "Continuing the Reduction of the Federal Bureaucracy" (March 14, 2025). Section 2 of the EO states:

- (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the non-statutory components and functions of the following government entities shall be eliminated to the maximum extent consistent with applicable law, and such entities shall reduce the performance of their statutory functions and associated personnel to the minimum presence and function required by law:
- (i) the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service

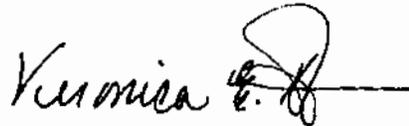

OPM approves your request in accordance with 5 CFR 351.402(c). This provision requires OPM approval when a competitive area will be in effect less than 90 days prior to the effective date of a RIF. The competitive areas proposed in your request were not previously established. They comprise the groups mentioned in your request including their various divisions, offices, and units. FMCS must confirm and document that any competitive area established meets the definition for separate administration:

- The organizational unit or subdivision is separately organized;
- It is clearly distinguished from other units with regard to operation, work function, staff, and personnel management; and
- It has the authority to take or direct personnel actions (e.g., establish or abolish positions).

Also, please note, a RIF cannot be effectuated until 60 days from the date an employee receives their notice. FMCS should also review all applicable collective bargaining agreements for any additional requirements necessary to effectuate a RIF.

Please contact Katika Floyd by email at [(b)(6) _____] or phone at [(b)(6) _____] should you or staff have any questions with this response.

Sincerely,
