O I G

Office of the Inspector General

United States Government Accountability Office

---

March 14, 2013

This letter is in response to your recent request for a copy of “a printout/list/digital file of OIG investigations closed during calendar year 2012.”

We have processed your request under the procedures set forth in 4 C.F.R. Part 81, Public Availability of Government Accountability Office Records.

Your letter clearly states that “This is NOT a FOIA request.” However, we know of no basis to provide you the requested information other than the regulations established by GAO in consideration of the Freedom of Information Act, 4 C.F.R. Part 81.

Attached is a list of the investigations our Office closed in calendar year 2012.

Further consideration of your request may be obtained by an appeal letter to the Inspector General, Adam R. Trzeciak, setting forth the basis for your appeal.

Sincerely yours,

Michael R. Volpe
Counsel to the Inspector General
