FOIA 2008-095

This letter responds to your Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") request received by the Federal Communications Commission (the "FCC" or "Commission") and assigned to the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau ("CGB") and the Enforcement Bureau (EB) by the Commission's FOIA Office on November 29, 2007. Your request seeks any and all records identifiable as complaints regarding the television program "The Oprah Winfrey Show" contained in one CGB and one EB data base named in your request.

Sharon Jenkins contacted you on December 6, 2007, to discuss your request. She informed you that we could provide only informal complaints received at the Commission from January 2003 to the present and that the fee to process your FOIA request could exceed the $30.00 maximum fee indicated in your request. As a result of this discussion, you agreed to increase your maximum fee amount from $30.00 to $60.00 for the legitimate search and duplication costs associated with the processing of the FOIA request. Ms. Jenkins further informed you that consultation about your request was underway among divisions of the Commission and that the FCC would extend the time period for responding for an additional 10 working days as permitted by the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(6)(B)(iii)(III), and Section 0.461(g)(3) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 0.461(g)(3).

Sharon Jenkins subsequently contacted you on December 27, 2007, to inform you that fees for EB's search time to identify complaints could exceed the $60.00 maximum fee limit, and might not produce any complaints that would be substantially different from CGB's complaints. In response, you narrowed the scope of your request by eliminating EB from the request as of December 27, 2007. Specifically, you requested that EB stop its search and provide any documents already identified. You agreed to receive and review the documents that we are enclosing with this response and submit a separate FOIA request at a later date if there is any additional information you wish to obtain from EB.

Sharon Jenkins contacted you again on January 9, 2008, to inform you that, due to what appeared to be an unusually large volume of responsive complaints, the fee for CGB's search time to respond to your request would exceed the $60.00 maximum fee limit. In response, you agreed to accept as responsive to your request complaints provided by CGB in response to recent FOIA request also seeking complaints about the TV program "The Oprah Winfrey Show." These complaints are enclosed. EB has informed CGB that a search of its records conducted up to December 27, 2007, revealed no responsive complaints.

All personal, identifying information relating to the individuals who submitted or are named in the complaints has been redacted pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), and Section 0.457(f) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 0.457(f). A release of this information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy under the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b). In addition, certain FCC employee names have been redacted pursuant to FOIA Exemption 2, 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(2), and Section 0.457(b) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 0.457(b).

Please be advised that the Commission receives many complaints and comments that do not involve violations of the Communications Act or any FCC rule or order. Thus, the existence of a complaint filed against a particular company does not necessarily indicate wrongdoing by the company.

We are required by the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(i), and Section 0.470 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 0.470, to charge FOIA requesters certain fees, depending on the classification of requesters into one of three categories as defined in Section 0.466 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 0.466. The categories are: (1) commercial use requesters; (2) educational and noncommercial scientific institution requesters and requesters who are representatives of the news media; and (3) all other requesters. Your request was categorized as "all other requester" by the FCC's FOIA Office. Section 0.470(a)(3) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 0.470(a)(3), provides that all other requesters are not charged for the first two hours of search time and the first 100 pages of reproduction. Because your request falls within these guidelines, there are no charges associated with processing it.

If you consider this response to be a denial of your FOIA request, you may file an application for review with the Commission's Office of General Counsel within 30 days, in accordance with Section 0.461(j) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 0.461(j).

Sincerely,

Complaint Summary:

Oprah & Howard Transcripts: Oral, Anal & Balloon Knots; Recently on the Howard Stern Radio Show, millions of listeners witnessed firsthand the hypocrisy of the FCC's fuzzy definition of indecency. It all started on Thursday when a repeat of the Oprah Winfrey Show aired with some pretty graphic descriptions of various sex acts (without a single bleep). Jimmy Kimmel pointed out the hypocrisy of the FCC witch hunt against Howard by playing the offending Oprah clip on his show, also without any bleeps. Here's where things get interesting and more than a little scary. Howard played the same exact clips that aired on the Oprah Winfrey Show (a show that airs at 9am in some markets!) and almost the entire clip was bleeped! Now what's the likelihood that the FCC will be fining Oprah Winfrey for indecency? You can't even make the argument that the Oprah show was doing an education segment. It was clearly played for laughs and shock. Something that apparently is off limits to Howard but perfectly acceptable for the Oprah Winfrey Show. Take a moment to read the transcript below as it originally aired and then feel free to register a complaint with the FCC at the address below. Just copy and paste the transcript and include it with your letter. To get yourself riled up even more, make sure you read the transcript from the Howard Stern Show that landed him his most recent fine. ; The Oprah Winfrey Show Transcript ; Thursday, March 18, 2004 ; Clip One ; Oprah: Lets talk about that secret language Michelle.; Michelle: Yes; Oprah: I didn't know any of this; Michelle: I have yea, I have gotten a whole new vocabulary let me tell ya; Oprah: I did not know any of this; Michelle: Salad tossing, cucumbers, lettuce tomatoes ok; Oprah: ok so so what is a salad toss?; Michelle: ok a tossed salad is, get ready hold on to your underwear for this one, oral anal sex, So oral sex with the anus is what that would be. ; Clip Two ; Michelle: a rainbow party is an oral sex party it's a gathering where oral sex is performed and; rainbow comes from all of the girls put on lipstick and each one puts her mouth around; the penis of the gentleman or gentlemen who are there to receive favors and makes; a mark um in a different place on the penis hence the term rainbow; ; "The Howard Stern Show Transcript Thursday, July 26, 2001 ; HS: Howard Stern; RQ: Robin Quivers; MV: Male Cast Member ; HS: I said to Mark Wahlberg yesterday, had he ever gotten a blumpkin from a girl and everyone around here is acting like they don't know what it is. ; RQ: You're the only nutcase who does. ; MV: I said "blumpkin" on the "Norm Show" and the network censor, we told him we just made the word up. Complaint Summary:

I recently learned of a sexually explicit Oprah Winfrey Show that aired in the early evening. Sexually explicit material (which included definitions and descriptions of sexual events and positions) should not be seen in the early evening when children can readily view them. If Howard Stern is going to be fined for similar offenses, I think it only fair that Oprah Winfrey and her production company Harpo also be fined. There should be no exemptions to these violations.

Complaint Summary:

On Thursday, March 18 the Oprah Winfrey Show aired a program on oral and anal sex. This was broadcast in the early afternoon. By FCC regulations such controversial content is to only be played between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m. Some of the quotes from the show are the following:

Oprah: ok so so what is a salad toss?

Michelle: ok a tossed salad is, get ready hold on to your underwear for this one, oral anal sex, So oral sex with the anus is what that would be

Michelle: a rainbow party is an oral sex party it's a gathering where oral sex is performed and rainbow comes from all of the girls put on lipstick and each one puts her mouth around the penis of the gentleman or gentlemen who are there to receive favors and makes a mark um in a different place on the penis hence the term rainbow

Why does the FCC overlook such blatant violations of decency when it involves Oprah Winfrey? Is she above the law because she is a black woman? Does the FCC selectively persecute only Jewish men such as Howard Stern? I found the Oprah Show highly offensive and the content unsuitable for children. It should have aired only after 10 p.m. with a clear warning of it's content.

The selective persecution of some by the FCC while others are excused shows blatant hypocrisy within the FCC.

I demand as a citizen of the United States that the FCC issue a fine to Oprah Winfrey for airing obscene material during daytime hours. We are all equal under the eyes of the law. Howard Stern is being unfairly targeted by the FCC while Oprah Winfrey is untouchable. This is a sexist, racist double standard. The FCC is a government commission and as such has a duty and an obligation to be impartial with respect to its regulations. I demand that Oprah Winfrey be fined and censored for airing obscene content.

Complaint Summary:

To whom it may concern,; I am outraged at the selective persecution, on part of the FCC, that is happening under the present admin. I needn't prove this to be fact in any other way than allowing cited examples, which have received no true discourse, to speak for themselves. Being a concerned tax paying citizen, I would like to see the beloved pillars of the entertainment community such as Oprah Winfrey et al., being held accountable for not only their actions but those of their guests and all material contained therein of their programs and products. It is partisan, unethical, and a down right dangerous course of action to be imposing exorbitant fines on people to the likes of Howard Stern, who is by no means indecent by any standard, then levy no penalties or give reprieve to icons like Oprah Winfrey, whom aired similar dialogue and material. The fact that no action was taken to penalize Oprah Winfrey for the explicit sex talk that transpired on her program, clearly illustrates not only your collective failure of administering penalties and equal treatment of all parties using the airwaves, but it clearly defines the corruption of the FCC and the administration to whom it answers to.; What concerns me much more than the content of any show, is the entity commissioned to oversee the standards of broadcasting failing to administer equal treatment to broadcasters under the truly undefined and unintelligible "decency standards"; Along with other concerns about the current state of the nation, this issue not only vexes me to the point of frustration, but chills me to the bone from a constitutional perspective. I am not alone in my concerns or views, so I would expect action to be taken to level the playing field in broadcasting, or will look forward to a roster change in the FCC on up ladder this fall. ; I thank you for taking the time to review my comments and will list all incidents witnessed, aforementioned and not, ; ; Sincerely, ; [REDACTED] Oprah Winfrey Show Syndicated Harpo; A guest said ôitsô on May 20th, 2004; Oprah Winfrey Show, Syndicated; Harpo; Sex talk (graphic); Mary J. Complaint Summary:

I was appalled at what took place on the Oprah Winfrey Show when her guests discussed "tossing the salad" and other sexually explicit terms/ phrases. Four o'clock in the afternoon is hardly the time to describe graphic sex acts. ; Below is a quote from the NY Post that sums it up: "On Thursday's Winfrey show, a writer for her magazine O explained in meticulous detail what she described as popular sexual pastimes for America's teenagers, including oral and anal sex practices.; The writer, Michelle Burford, also described in detail a variety of other slang sex terms.;" I believe this was highly inappropriate and demands action.; Thank you for your time.; [REDACTED]

Complaint Summary:

she was talking about sex and I was offended.

March 20, 2004 -- Howard Stern accused Oprah Winfrey of being a fellow potty-mouth yesterday, saying the afternoon TV queen has aired the same kind of kinky sexual material for which he was being pilloried.

"If they fine me for this, then they got to fine Oprah - the darling of the world," Stern told listeners after trying to play a shocking excerpt of an Oprah show on teen sex.

"And if they fine Oprah, all hell is gonna break loose."

The shock jock pleaded on the air with his station's general manager to let him play a tape of Winfrey and her guests discussing an erotic activity known as "tossing the salad."

"This is Oprah Winfrey at 4 in the afternoon saying this - Oprah graphically discusses it," Stern told his K-Rock boss, Tom Chiusano.

On Thursday's Winfrey show, a writer for her magazine O explained in meticulous detail what she described as popular sexual pastimes for America's teenagers, including oral and anal sex practices.

The writer, Michelle Burford, also described in detail a variety of other slang sex terms.

"Don't bleep it," Stern pleaded with his producer. "This is what's going to expose the hypocrisy. This is our Battle of the Bulge."

"If they fine me, they have to fine her," he added. "Can you imagine the headline 'Oprah Winfrey fined for indecency?'"

Chiusano put Stern's rant on hold for 10 minutes and sought counsel from Infinity Broadcasting lawyers after Stern threatened to call Mel Karmazin, president of Infinity-parent Viacom.

The lawyers turned down his request, and Stern's wary producers kept the sexual references off the air.

"Under the standards as they now exist, our answer is, do we believe that that's indecent? No, we don't," Chiusano said. "Do we believe that they [the FCC] believe it is? Yes."

A spokeswoman for the FCC's Enforcement Bureau told The Post she hadn't seen any complaints about Oprah's show. Typically, the FCC doesn't act or comment on controversial broadcasts until a complaint is received.

FCC guidelines also weigh in factors such as context and material that "appears to pander or is used to titillate or shock."

A Winfrey spokesperson said her show was on production hiatus and that Oprah was unavailable for comment.

Complaint Summary:

On Thursday, March 18, 2004, I was disgusted at what I heard on the Oprah Winfrey Program. Her descriptions of Oral and Anal sex were inappropriate to say the very least. Oprah MUST be held responsible for her actions. It's a shame that the government believes they can pick and choose what is indecent. I listen to the howard stern show every morning. His radio program is not heard by children who are getting ready for and attending school while it is aired. I have never heard anything this inappropriate on the Stern Show. Oprah has brought indecency to a new level. When I was kid my parents always watched day time talk shows like that with me. I never listened to the howard stern show until I was in college. I'm sure much of the country is the same. Please stop Oprah before she ruins the impressionable minds of Americas youth!

Complaint Summary:

I think that Oprah Winfrey and her graphic description of sex was uncalled for, explicit, and tasteless. It occurred at a time where many children could have possibly been within earshot, and it corrupts the very ideas and principles of decency, class, and moral just. People like Oprah are allowing these items, laughing at these items, supporting these items. What happens as a result of these actions are small slaps on the hand saying, "That was bad." Oprah is a show more-so watched by women, who often have young children in the room. You wouldn't expect this from one of the most richest and tasteful?? women on TV. She should be fined, and do not go easy.; It's about choice, it's about the 1st ammendment, but enough it enough. If you are going to start administering higher fines, I'd expect you to not target few and do it equally, and justly to all members of our broadcasting community.; ; Overall, I think the FCC is really to blame. They play favorites and have gone too far. Mr. Powell, you are not doing the job that was handed to you on a silver platter.

Complaint Summary:

log my complaints on these other obscene shows (as defined by the FCC):
 Ryan Seacrest KIIS FM Los Angeles, initial broadcast, use of "F" and "S" words. (Fuck and Shit)
 Oprah Winfrey recent show defining and revealing the "tossed salad", a.k.a. "anal-oral sex" in children.
 American Idol judge Simon Cowell obscene gesture to co-host Paula Abdul for extened period of time on 3/30 broadcast.
 Do what's right, make this country - if not open minded - consistent and logical.
 Please think long and hard about your decisions.

Complaint Summary:

[REDACTED] wrote on 7/30/2004 10:40:04 AM : ; To Whom It May Concern;; My name is . Recently, I learned that the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has levied a $27,500 fine on radio talk-show host Howard Stern, for a supposed violation of the Communications Act of 1934. A conversation that aired on the Howard Stern Show on July 26, 2001 is the piece of media questionably deemed an "infraction." Enclosed with my letter are two transcripts. The first is from the Howard Stern Show episode (7/26/01) that is, in my opinion, the subject of biased scrutiny by the FCC. The second transcript is from the talk show of media giant Oprah Winfrey which originally aired on October 23, 2003 and was re-run on March 18, 2004. I think a reading of both transcripts more than sufficiently justifies my conclusion that the Communications Act of 1934 is being enforced in a biased manner.; Howard Stern and the guests on his July 26, 2001 radio show use several euphemisms and slang terms for sex acts and sexual organs over the course of their intentionally funny conversation. Some of the terms and phrases used are: "blumpkin," "oral sex," "while you're evacuating, you receive your oral," "balloon knot," "wazoo," "goin' like a dog," and "finish." In general speech, many of these words do not have a sexual connotation at all. The most graphic term used is probably "oral sex" but, of course, as is obvious from the transcript of the Oprah Winfrey Show, this is a perfectly acceptable concept for a public audience. Upon comparison of the transcripts, in fact, it is obvious that the terminology is used in exactly the same context in at least one bit of dialogue from the Oprah Show as it is on the Howard Stern Show. ; The transcript of the Oprah Show reveals a potentially more offensive subject matter in its discussion of sex acts involving underage children. Over the course of this program terms and phrases such as "salad tossing," "oral anal sex," "oral sex with the anus," "rainbow party," "oral sex party," and "puts her mouth around the penis" are all used. More significant than the graphic nature of this language (aired at an hour when most children return home from school) are the giggles of both the host and guest which damage any claim that this topic is purely "educational." How can this content possibly be considered any less obscene, indecent, or profane than that which aired on the Howard Stern show? ; My conclusion is that the FCC has opted to fine Howard Stern out of malice for his character or identity as a public figure rather than merely the content of his program. Clearly, personal biases and partisan politics are not the proper business of this government agency. This is the reason for my complaint. I request that the FCC compare these transcripts and begin enforcing this law in a fair, nonpartisan, manner. If the FCC continues to ignore the obvious injustice of selective policy enforcement, I will not be the only careful media consumer voting for change in the next election.; I think this is awful to have any show talk about this let alone a daytime talk show that millions of people watch everyday!; sincerely,

Complaint Summary:

This particular episode of The Oprah Winfrey Show featured one of her XM radio hosts, Dr. Oz who was on the program to answer embarrassing health questions. The first 20 minutes were dedicated to feces and Bowel Movements. Topics included, "Is your poop trying to tell you something?", "Why is poop brown?", "Why does poop smell?", "Why do I get diarrhea?", "Front-to-back or Back-to-front, what's the best way to wipe?", "the largest natural gas leak in history: what causes burping and farting?", "can I get a STD from a toilet seat or hot tub," and various detailed menstrual and vaginal discharge questions, not to mention the benefits of coffee enemas and diareaha issues. By the time this episode ended I was cringing and yelling at my tv set. I do not understand how something this offensive to most normal, church going, Americans, would be broadcast at 4 in the afternoon. This is prime viewing for kids as they are just getting home from school. I get the impression that Ms. Winfrey thinks she is exempt from the FCC rules in this country. I would like to include Rosie O'Donnell on The View as well as thinking she is exempt from the FCC rules. If Ms. Winfrey and her staff, including Gayle King, can think they can just broadcast this filth across the country on over 100 channels she is clearly mistaken. As you can see by this link, it is clearly in bad taste, and in my opinion, obscene and indecent. If she wants to broadcast a Oprah special at 10pm on subjects such as these I would have no issues. Thank you.

Complaint Summary:

[REDACTED] will like to open a complain with the FCC on the following case;; ; On September 1st 2006 American Broadcasting Corp in Puerto Rico (ABC) discontinued the Oprah Winfrey (OW) program. The next week I called several satellite service companies to find out if they offer the program of (OW). All of the satellite and cable companies in Puerto Rico (PR) told me that they don't have it except for Sattel Digital Group (SDG).; ; On sept. 22, 2006 Mr. Ivan Colon the sales representative of SDG called me and told me that, the manager of SDG Mr. Jose Marin informed him that the antenna that they will install in my house will be able to communicate with the New York satalite distant network and the ABC network from NY has the OW talk show that I wanted to see.; ; On sept. 26, 2006 SDG installed the Dish Network antenna in my house. I ask the installer to see the program guide before signing the 1 year contract, but he explain to me that it was cloudy and the guide could not be downloaded and that later on during the day when the clouds go away I wuld be able to down loaded. ; At nigh when a got back from work I downloaded the guide and found out that the OW talk show was not in the ABC programing and that the ABC network was not the New York one like they old me, it was the ABC Puerto Rico.; ; On sept. 27, 2006 I called the salesman and notify him of the programing, he ask me to call the manager of SDG Mr. Jose Marin, because he was the one that informed him that OW could be seen from my antenna. So I did. The manager told me to call Dish Network directly at 1-888-233-3474. So I did. I spoke with several operators # 1BU, # MM4, # M80, Supervisor Erica # LLD, they told me that what SDG was incorect and that the FCC has a regulaion that Puerto Rico residents could no longer conect to New York satalite.; Now that I know the correct information I realize that SDG gave me a false representation of the service they provide and I ak Dish Network I wanted to cancel. The Supervisor Erica # LLD informed me that I will be penalized and have to pay $240. Since I don't belive I shoud be penalized I decided to call SDG.; ; The SDG staff called Dish Network once more and told the they where not informed of the new FCC regulation and that they hould not chsrge me the $240 penalty.; ; I will like the FCC to look into my complaint and let me know if there is anything I can do to cancel the Dish Network contract whithout paying the $240 penalty and to get reimburse by $49.99 for the instalation. Or to have elegibility to see distant networks (New York)from Puerto Rico.; ; [REDACTED]

Oprah responded to her guest stating "That would make me Pissed!", regarding a designer and others using his designs. This is bad language, especially on a non-cable station, where children are home with moms and dads and grandparents and can hear this on a station that so many view. Please advise them "NO Foul Language"--This is not CABLE!!!!

Complaint Summary:

Oprah has aired this same show now 3 times and even the prom's during early morning and evening news are very revealing. The show is about an extremely overweight woman losing weight and having plastic surgery. It shows her completely bare breasted more than once and standing in her panties while a surgeon marks her for removal of extra skin. She then has implants and again is bare breasted. All of this is during news broadcasts and airs at 4:00 PM when children are home from school or still on summer vacation. This makes the Janet Jackson deal look very tame. Where does she come off with putting this on our airways and getting by with it 3 times that I know of. Oprah is not so big that she can't or shouldn't have to follow the same regulations as the rest of the nation. She needs to be censored if she doesn't have enough sense not to put such insulting and degrading pictures on tv. I am blown away that she continues to get by with this. I for one will never watch her show again and I also expect the FCC to take a serious look at her shows. She should pay a penalty for such disgusting shows. This was pretty close to Jerry Springer in my opinion.

My young daughter was flipping through the TV when she came across the Oprah Winfrey show. It was only on for a moment before I turned it off, but Oprah Winfrey asked her guest, "so you have had men ejaculate in your face, without ever really knowing who they are?" - Why is this allowed on daytime television? This is the filthy kind of smut you expect from cable, but not in the middle of the day when kids are just coming home from school!!!

Complaint Summary:

I believe if we are going to place shows on during hours that children may be able to watch we need to "tone" down the indecent language that is on. I've watch the Oprah Winfrey show from time to time but on yesterday's program it should of been on after 8:00 p.m. Ms. Winfrey had on guest who are obsessed with sex, and discussed with one guest the fact that she had over 90 men and used words such as "penis" and the difference between each man. I turned my TV off after hearing this for fear my young children may walk into the room.

Complaint Summary:

To whom this may concern ...; I was watching the Oprah Winfrey episode aired in Dallas - Fort Worth on channel 8 the ABC affiliate at 4pm. My children we watching, also, as they had just gotten home from school. The guests were Tim McGraw and Faith Hill. They were demonstrating how they cooked their favorite foods. Tim McGraw said that his "chicken and dumplings got him laid the first time."; I found this very offensive, especially at a time of day when children are home from school. I hope you take appropriate action and take this filth from our daytime airwaves. This Oprah show is consistently talking about sex at 4pm in the afternoon.

March 3, 2006

Mr. Kevin J. Martin, Chairman
FCC
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Mr. Martin:

As an advocate of family values and decency in television programming, I am appalled at the recent gross negligence on the part of the FCC in allowing Oprah Winfrey to pour such vulgarities into the primetime airwaves. It is a disgrace and an abomination.

To begin with, why is Oprah Winfrey allowed to do what no one else is allowed to do? Is she above the guidelines that all others are expected to follow? Furthermore, regardless of what others are or are not allowed to do, why should anyone be allowed the freedom to irresponsibly offend both children and adults with obscene, indecent language and discourse, and use public programming to do so?

I would like to know that despite my own attempts to filter unwanted filth from entering my home and impacting my family, that our government agencies would have some semblance of decency and propriety in protecting its citizens from the irresponsible and self-serving opportunism that is evidenced by Miss Winfrey's gutter tongue.

After the fact, I do not know what punitive action can be taken against such people who purvey this indecent outpouring. However, if such action is conceivable, I would appreciate it being pursued. In any case, I would ask that you oversee the future discussion that takes place on Miss Winfrey's show and see to it that she is required to subscribe to the same guidelines as all others who use the public airwaves.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

MAR - 6 2006

FCC - MAILROOM

Dear FCC,

With the most recent cancellation of the Howard Stern show it has upset me that this has occurred. The show was groundbreaking and that's what made it interesting to listen to the show. But when Howard was fined money for talking about lude conducts it was a bit understanding. When Oprah Winfrey talked about the same topic she wasn't fined at all. This impacted me in a couple of different ways. Once, I never watched Oprah and plan to ever and advise people on my campus not to watch the show. After the cancellation of the Howard Stern due to you guys fining him all of the time, I stopped listening to radio. I spend my time doing other things, and don't go out buying items which were promoted during his show. The show was heard by thousands and impacted the radio business in many ways. Now that Howard has moved to commercial free radio he is gaining more and more of his audience in each month. I'm about to switch over just to hear him. The radio business is going to have to look at how to advertise it's self to the nation now that there is commercial free radio.

My only possible solution to this situation would be to have someone on radio that is controversial and not fine him as much or at all. This will bring back people to radio. Other then that, I don't know what you can do to bring back the radio business with all of the mp3 players being made and sold and Itunes and people just moving away from the radio.

If you can respond back about what other options that you are taking to improve radio now that Howard Stern is no longer on the airwaves it would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Oprah Winfrey had sex addict sluts and whores on her show who were bragging about how they have sexual intercourse with dozens and dozens of strange men. Complaint Summary:

The show was titled "Women who use sex to find love", which is not objectionable if it is handled in a sensitive manner. However, Oprah Winfrey used vulgar terms and asked inappropriate questions that really had no relevance whatsoever. Ex: Winfrey asking a guest if men she did not know "ejaculated" on her face. This was an extremely graphic conversation taking place when many children are arriving home from school, and I consider it to be highly inappropriate.

I was watching the Oprah show with two little kids and Uma Thurman was on the show. They showed a clip of Uma's new movie where she was in bed on top of a guy and moving in a way that was making the bed move back and forth on the floor and hitting the wall. The next clip showed the man walking funny. One of the children ask me why that lady was mad at the man and hurting him. This is totally unexceptable for daytime TV.

Complaint Summary:

I tuned in to the Oprah Winfrey show today because it was dealing with teen and meth addiction. The final guest of the day was a young man not a teen, giving his testimony on meth abuse and also being gay. During his interview with Oprah the man was talking about being high on meth, and going to "bath houses" / "sweat rooms" where it was dark and would have many sexual encounters at times as many as 15 to 20 other men at a visit, but while he was telling the story, the Oprah show was showing nude pictures with just a blur over private parts of the men in these "Bath Houses" or whatever they were called, engaging in gay activities. He was talking explicitly about the events and a couple times mentioned the phrase of "barebacking" when Oprah asked, "ok, what is barebacking?" which he replied "annal sex with other men and no condoms", Oprah's reply was, "well, ...O K..." looked at the camera and audience, and that was it, I don't think the public needed the graphic scenes of nudity of this mans lifestyle on a daytime show, one I used to watch, not often, but I did today, because of the subject including teens/ and meth use. My husbands former wife, and mother of the two children he & I have full parental custody of now due to her meth addiction and lifestyle!! I did not watch the show expecting to see a gay man promote his sexual activity with other men on the Oprah show. I know he was talking about what the meth would do to him and the high he would get from it, etc. Tho it was not actually the man himself *(I'm guessing) in the portrayal of the group of naked men in the "bath house" were shown and just the blur covering private parts, it was way too much for a channel I would not expect to see such vulgar on. I did write to the Opray Winfrey program immedieately about this, but I don't expect a reply. I did not see any warning prior to the scenes that it would be graphic and not suited for young children, or anyone of any decency, it just was there, and a couple times at that, as if once wasn't enough to see men with other naked men etc. I'm outraged and very disappointed in Oprah, let alone CBS / channel 12. Seems like those who choose to live the gay /lesb. lifestyle are forcing it upon those who choose to live as God intended. I basically have the channels I do because of the weather stations, and it's the minimal package, I'm hoping someday we can pay for those channels we want but, all seem to be pushing for the gay & lesb. whether we want it or not.; yvonne link; great bend, ks; mother of 4 teens in the house.

I found it unacceptable the language that was used by Oprah during this show. I have two children in the house and this is not the time to show stories like this. I expected action to be taken so that this does not happen again. This is not the first time that Oprah has done something like this, and it will not be the last unless the FCC does something about this. There are much more tasteful things that she can talk about and with less vulgour. I believe that the topic was about women that had sex addictions and have slept with as many as 89 men.

I was very upset that my children and I had to listen to such graphic language as she was discussing on her show with regards to a sex addict. I thought that the FCC was attempting to clean up TV. It is so foolish and makes you look silly that you treat everyone different. And I don't want to hear that it depends on the Context or program as to what can be said. That is just a way to cover for the people you like. It really is so obvious as too what your agenda is. All I would ask is that you be fair across the board !!!!Consistency does not seem to be a strong point with the FCC. Thank you

Complaint Summary:

I always watch the Oprah Show, but lately it has been offensive. I hope I have the date right, but Monday I think it was, she had a homosexual guest on who described his addiction to crystal meth and how he would visit bathhouses and have sex with 25 men in one night. He described barebacking as having anal sex without a condom. He talked about groping men and it was all very vulgar and disgusting. I'm sick of Oprah glorifying the homosexual community. She seems to be obsessed with having them on the show and talking about them. This isn't the first time her show has been very graphic in sexual descriptions and it certainly doesn't seem appropriate for a local network show coming on at 9:00 in the morning. It's one thing to have homosexuals as guests, that's not what's offensive. It's the vulgarity and the graphic descriptions of sex acts. She has also had several shows about child prostitutes and sex trafficking and while this is important to be educated on, the language and content need to be cleaned up for this ABC show.

Complaint Summary:

On February 23, 2006 during her nationally broadcast 4 PM show, aired on WJLA in Washington D.C., Oprah interviewed three female sex addicts (http://www.oprah.com/tows/pastshows/200602/tows_past_20060223.jhtml). During the interview, Oprah stooped to the level of Howard Stern and asked one guest if she had "let men ejaculate in her face." This reference to excretion clearly violates community standards and should be investigated by the FCC. ; In fact, in the FCC's Indecent Broadcast Restrictions, the agency states that it "has defined broadcast indecency as 'language or material that, in context, depicts or describes, in terms patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium, sexual or excretory organs or activities.' Indecent programming contains patently offensive sexual or excretory material that does not rise to the level of obscenity." ; The FCC also warns that indecent speech "is prohibited on broadcast radio and television between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m." Oprah's indecent comment was aired during the prohibited hours, reaching the ears of thousands of young children. ; Oprah's question might not meet the Supreme Court's definition of obscenity - 1. appealing to the prurient interest, 2. patently offensive, and 3. lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value -, but the broadcast of her gratuitous question was harmful to our national culture and insensitive to viewers with young children in the room. Like Superbowl viewers, parents had no way to know that Oprah's performance would get so graphic, and her producers offered no content warning at any time during the show. The battle for ratings has fewer and fewer limits at an hour when many children have just come home from school.

Complaint Summary:

at approx 3:50 PM Oprah was going on and on about these Child prostitutes having sex, she must have said Sex dozen's of time all while showing pictures of what appeared to be girls from 12 to 15 years of age, clearly each time my kids heard the word sex and forced sex with the video being broadcast, there is no question that the reference was to physical sex with kids. In less that 1 minute my 11 and 8 year old kids were exposed to this disgraceful programming. I have the child protection features activated on my Satellite system and this show should have been protected by this for the content or at least it should be broadcast when kids are likely to be in school or sleeping. To broadcast something like that when kids come home from school is flat stupid. Oprah should be fined for pedophilia, is it not illegal to display child pornography or to so clearly refer to children having sex. I demand that the FCC hold accountable consistent rules, if an evening sitcom or show is unable to refer to sexual acts with children with such a direct and obvious reference, neither should Oprah be able to do this, just because she thinks its some sort of news or topic to discuss, does not mean I think that or that my kids need to see young girls and Oprah repeat over and over that these girls are forced to have sex.; Since this topic and the way she presented sex with children, she should be fined for indecency and for child pornography Oprah is worst than Howard Stern because at least I expect this from Stern and he is not on the TV at 3:53 PM either, and Oprah should receive a fine that is considerable or at least at the same level as Stern. This shocked me even more than Janet Jackson's wardrobe malfunction, I also demand that this show have the same technology that tells my satellite to put up a password so it is not viewable by my kids. I could recommend also, that similar shows have the same requirement.; This garbage of a show appeared on my DishNetwork Satellite at 3:50 PM Pacific. I believe the channel was 7 or ABC, I immediately turned the channel before I could confirm the station. Though even with my quick action, my kids still saw a full minute of the show and were still exposed to the trash that woman had on the air.; Thank You; [REDACTED]

Complaint Summary:

Oprah's program on Thursday was very explicit in its description of sexual acts. Please impose the same fine that ; your agency imposed on Howard Stern, Bubba the Love Sponge, and other personalities.;
<http://www.drudgereport.com/flash4.htm>; Hold on to your condoms! ; Oprah interviewed a woman on Thursday who had engaged in sex with more than 90 men during her life and who ; was keeping an ongoing list and a video diary about these encounters!; Not to be confused with Howard Stern, Oprah asked: "So you've had men ejaculate in your face?"; MORE; The February Sweeps sex special from the nation's top talkshow host, titled "Guests discuss their sex addictions, " ; raised eyebrows with industry watchers.; "You've had, you know, men ejaculating in your face who you don't even know who they are, " asked daytime ; Winfrey.; WINFREY: OK. So tell me, what's going on when you're actually having the sex?...Coming up, Jennifer just admitted ; that she's had sex with almost 90 men. ; JENNIFER: I had a one night stand last night in this room. And now I'm obsessing about it. I was at a cafe, and there ; was a guy there that I just decided that I wanted to have. Kind of like you walk into a bakery shop and you see an ; éclair, and that's the one you want. You know, I just went up to him and introduced myself and started chatting with ; him, gave him my number, basically all the while thinking, 'I need to have sex with this person.' And it doesn't ; matter who he is or what he is, that's the one that I want to want me. And he slept over and I had sex with him and I ; had unprotected sex with him.; (Excerpt from videotape); (Graphic on screen); Jennifer, 25 Sex Addict Video Diary; JENNIFER: There's, like, a few reasons I feel like I have unprotected sex. One, I-it's so much about the guy feeling ; pleasure and pleasing him and I want it to be good for him. And the other one is I just don't care...; WINFREY: Eighty-nine guys, unprotected sex....; MORE; AMY (Says She Has Had Sex With More Than 70 Men): It's not about sex with me. It's about the intimacy or being ; close to someone or feeling needed. Even though I'm totally out of control, I still feel that I am in control for that ; moment. I'm trying to think about men that I've slept with, and I honestly can't remember, just 70 to 75, probably ; somewhere around there. Currently, I probably have four or five different guys I could call if I wanted to. I am tired of ; being alone. I don't want to be this way. I want to feel good enough within myself to not feel like I need to do this. I ; want to change. I want things to be better. ; (End of excerpt) ; WINFREY: So you told our producers you're disgusted with yourself. Yeah.

Dear [REDACTED]:

This letter responds to your complaint in which you allege that unlawful programming was broadcast over Station KYTV(TV), Springfield, Montana, during its airing of the "Oprah Winfrey Show" on an unidentified date, at an unidentified time. Although we appreciate your concern, the information that you have submitted to us concerning this broadcast does not allow us to determine whether the material about which you complain is actionable.

As you may know, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) is responsible for enforcing its rules and applicable statutory provisions restricting obscene, indecent or profane broadcasts. Because the standard for proving that programming is indecent or profane is less rigorous than that for proving obscenity, when considering broadcast complaints, the FCC generally focuses its analysis on indecency and profanity.

We are unable to make a determination that the material about which you complain is actionably indecent or profane because: (1) you have not provided the date of the broadcast; and (2) you have not alleged that the station broadcast the material between 6 a.m. to 10 p.m., the only time period within which the FCC prohibits the airing of indecent or profane material. As a result, we dismiss your complaint.

Please note that you may refile your complaint with additional information if you so choose. You may provide such information in the form of a significant excerpt of the broadcast or a full or partial tape or transcript of the broadcast, but these are not required. Please note that any material you send to the FCC becomes part of the record of the case and cannot be returned. In whatever form the information is provided, it is important that it is sufficiently detailed to allow us to ascertain the actual words and language used during the broadcast. Please also provide the date and time of the broadcast. You should send your complaint to the Federal Communications Commission, Enforcement Bureau, Investigations and Hearings Division, 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20554. If you include electronic media, such as video or audio tape or a CD or DVD, with your complaint, please send the complaint and such media to Federal Communications Commission, Enforcement Bureau, Investigations and Hearings Division, 9300 East Hampton Drive, Capitol Heights, Maryland 20743.

While we dismiss your complaint, we appreciate and recognize your concern. To assist you further, we include an information sheet that discusses the law with respect to indecent, profane and obscene broadcasts and our enforcement procedures. If you have not done so already, we encourage you to convey your concerns directly to station management, because this can be an effective method to influence a station's programming decisions.

Thank you for your interest.

Dear [REDACTED]:

This letter responds to your complaint in which you allege that unlawful programming was broadcast over an ABC station during its airing of the "Oprah Winfrey" show at approximately 3:00 p.m. Although we appreciate your concern, the information that you have submitted to us concerning this broadcast does not allow us to determine whether the material about which you complain is actionable.

As you may know, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) is responsible for enforcing its rules and applicable statutory provisions restricting obscene, indecent or profane broadcasts. Because the standard for proving that programming is indecent or profane is less rigorous than that for proving obscenity, when considering broadcast complaints, the FCC generally focuses its analysis on indecency and profanity.

We are unable to make a determination that the material about which you complain is actionably indecent or profane because: (1) you have not specified the call sign of the station over which the material aired; (2) you have not provided the date of the broadcast; and (3) you have not provided us with sufficient information regarding the details of what the station broadcast and its context. As a result, we dismiss your complaint.

You may provide such information in the form of a significant excerpt of the broadcast or a full or partial tape or transcript of the broadcast, but these are not required. In whatever form the information is provided, it is important that it is sufficiently detailed to allow us to ascertain the actual words and language used during the broadcast. Please also provide (1) information that allows us to identify the station that broadcast the material in question, such as the station's call sign, channel number or network affiliation, (2) the location where you viewed or heard the material in question, and (3) the date and time of the broadcast. You should send your complaint to the Federal Communications Commission, Enforcement Bureau, Investigations and Hearings Division, 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20554. Dear Consumer:

Thank you for contacting the Federal Communications Commission.

The Commission received numerous complaints about the discussion of teenage sexual practices contained in the March 18, 2004 episode of the syndicated television program "The Oprah Winfrey Show." This particular episode included an examination by the host and her guests and audience of serious parental/supervisory issues including the complained-of discussion arising from the movie "Thirteen."

There can be no question that the complained-of dialogue describes sexual activities, and therefore falls within the subject-matter scope of our indecency analysis. We thus turn to the second prong of our indecency analysis - a determination of whether the material at issue was patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium.

Turning to the first factor in our contextual analysis, the broadcast here clearly describes sexual practices in very specific terms, and is highly graphic and explicit.

With respect to the second factor, the dialogue is not brief, but continues at length. Indeed, the title of the segment is "The Secret Language of Teens," and the discussion of these terms for sexual activity is the subject of the entire segment.

Given this particular context, though, our findings with regard to the first two factors of our analysis are outweighed by our conclusion under the third factor of our contextual analysis that the complained-of material, in context, is not pandering and is not used to titillate or shock.

The program segment focuses on the "secret lives" of many teenagers. Through guests -- parents, teenagers, and others -- serious discussions take place about the disturbing, secret teenage behavior portrayed in the movie "Thirteen." Guests speak of serious, potentially harmful behaviors of teens-- such as drug use, drinking, self-mutilation, and sexual activity, how teenagers hide those behaviors from their parents, and how parents might recognize and address those behaviors with their teens. The material is not presented in a vulgar manner and is not used to pander to or titillate the audience. Rather, it is designed to inform viewers about an important topic. To the extent that the material is shocking, it is due to the existence of such practices among teenagers rather than the vulgarity or explicitness of the sexual depictions or descriptions. It would have been difficult to educate parents regarding teenagers' sexual activities without at least briefly describing those activities and alerting parents to the little-known terms (i.e., "salad tossing," "rainbow party") that many teenagers use to refer to them. For many of the same reasons, we have previously denied complaints about similar educational broadcasts.

As we have previously stated, "the manner and purpose of a presentation may well preclude an indecency determination even though other factors, such as explicitness, might weigh in favor of an indecency finding." Here, in light of the overall context of the broadcast, we find that the complained-of material is not patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium, and, therefore, not indecent.

Dear Chairman Martin:

I am writing in response to something I learned while doing a project for my Women's Studies class at UNLV. My group and I were doing research for a presentation titled, "The Empress of Media vs. The King of Media," a report on how Oprah Winfrey and Howard Stern impact society.

In doing our research we found the following quotes from one of Oprah's television shows:

Oprah: Lets talk about that secret language Michelle.

Michelle: Yes

Oprah: I didn't know any of this

Michelle: I have yea, I have gotten a whole new vocabulary let me tell ya

Oprah: I did not know any of this

Michelle: Salad tossing, cucumbers, lettuce tomatoes ok

Oprah: ok so so what is a salad toss?

Michelle: ok a tossed salad is, get ready hold on to your underwear for this one, oral anal sex, So oral sex with the anus is what that would be.

Clip Two

Michelle: a rainbow party is an oral sex party it's a gathering where oral sex is performed and rainbow comes from all of the girls put on lipstick and each one puts her mouth around the penis of the gentleman or gentlemen who are there to receive favors and makes a mark um in a different place on the penis hence the term rainbow...

When Howard Stern played the sound clip from Oprah's show on his show the next morning, it was bleeped out and was not allowed to be aired.

The Howard Stern was on the air from 6 a.m. to 10 a.m., when most children are asleep or at school. Oprah's show on the other hand airs in New York at 4 p.m. and in Los Angeles at 3 p.m., both times when children are at home with the opportunity to watch television. If the reason for levying fines is to protect our children and keep them from listening to offensive language, then why wasn't Oprah fined?

Why is it that Howard Stern cannot play clips from the Oprah show without a fear of being fined by the FCC? It seems to me that there is a double standard in what is offensive language and considered finable. You are responsible for levying fines against broadcasters across the United States and need to do so in an unbiased and just manner.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]:

This letter responds to your complaint in which you allege that unlawful programming was broadcast over Station KYTV(TV), Springfield, Montana, during its airing of the "Oprah Winfrey Show" on an unidentified date, at an unidentified time. Although we appreciate your concern, the information that you have submitted to us concerning this broadcast does not allow us to determine whether the material about which you complain is actionable.

As you may know, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) is responsible for enforcing its rules and applicable statutory provisions restricting obscene, indecent or profane broadcasts. Because the standard for proving that programming is indecent or profane is less rigorous than that for proving obscenity, when considering broadcast complaints, the FCC generally focuses its analysis on indecency and profanity.

We are unable to make a determination that the material about which you complain is actionably indecent or profane because: (1) you have not provided the date of the broadcast; and (2) you have not alleged that the station broadcast the material between 6 a.m. to 10 p.m., the only time period within which the FCC prohibits the airing of indecent or profane material. As a result, we dismiss your complaint.

Please note that you may refile your complaint with additional information if you so choose. You may provide such information in the form of a significant excerpt of the broadcast or a full or partial tape or transcript of the broadcast, but these are not required. Please note that any material you send to the FCC becomes part of the record of the case and cannot be returned. In whatever form the information is provided, it is important that it is sufficiently detailed to allow us to ascertain the actual words and language used during the broadcast. Please also provide the date and time of the broadcast. You should send your complaint to the Federal Communications Commission, Enforcement Bureau, Investigations and Hearings Division, 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20554. If you include electronic media, such as video or audio tape or a CD or DVD, with your complaint, please send the complaint and such media to Federal Communications Commission, Enforcement Bureau, Investigations and Hearings Division, 9300 East Hampton Drive, Capitol Heights, Maryland 20743.

While we dismiss your complaint, we appreciate and recognize your concern. To assist you further, we include an information sheet that discusses the law with respect to indecent, profane and obscene broadcasts and our enforcement procedures. If you have not done so already, we encourage you to convey your concerns directly to station management, because this can be an effective method to influence a station's programming decisions.

Thank you for your interest.

Sincerely,
