Office on Violence Against Women

Washington, D.C. 20530

November 19, 2007

Your request for records under the Freedom of Information Act has been processed. This letter constitutes a reply from the Office on Violence Against Women, United States Department of Justice. We are making all records required to be released, or considered appropriate for release as a matter of discretion, available to you.

- ☐ This letter accompanies a full release of the requested information.
☒ This letter serves as a partial denial of the request for information.
☐ This letter serves as a full denial of the request for information.

To the extent that information is being withheld from release, OVW cites the following exemption(s) as outlined in the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. 552, as the basis for withholding records or portions of records:

Section 552

Section 552(b)(6) of the FOIA exempts from disclosure certain personnel and medical files and similar files when the disclosure of such files would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The privacy interests of the individuals identified in the requested materials outweigh the public's right to know their identities. Any redacted/withheld documents were reviewed to determine if any information could be segregated for release.

This is the final action of the Office on Violence Against Women concerning your request. You may appeal this decision within 60 days from the date of this letter by writing to the Office of Information and Privacy, U.S. Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20530-0001. Both the envelope and the letter of appeal should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." If you appeal, and the decision is upheld, you may seek judicial review in the United States District Court for the judicial district in which you reside or have your principal place of business or in the District of Columbia.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Mary Beth Buchanan". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, stylized "M" and "B".

Mary Beth Buchanan
Acting Director
